WOOD LEADING JOHNSON IN INDIANA PRIMARIES.

Soldier Candidate Carries Maryland by Substantial Majority; Maintains New Jersey Lead.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

INDIANAPOLIS, May 4.—Maj.-Gen. Leonard Wood had a lead of 6635 votes in the contest for the Indiana Republican Presidential preference vote when returns from 1851 out of 3387 precincts in the State in today's primary had been tabulated tonight. Senator Johnson of California was running second. The vote was: Wood, 45,491; Johnson, 30,856; Lowden, 20,808; Harding, 12,018.

Unless one of the candidates obtains a majority of the votes cast, which on the face of the early returns seemed improbable, Indiana's delegation to the Republican National Convention in Chicago will go without instructions, unless instructed by the State convention. The delegates to the national convention will be chosen at the State convention, delegates to which were elected today.

There were no candidates for the Democratic Presidential preference. Dr. Carlton B. McCulloch, Indianapolis, with 11,446, had a lead in the race for the Democratic nomination for Governor when 724 precincts had been tabulated. Mason Niblack, Vincennes, was second with 5101; John Isinberger of North Manchester was third with 4791, and J. Kirby Risk, Lafayette, who made his campaign as an avowed Prohibitionist, and was indorsed by William J. Bryan, was fourth with 3574.

With 1258 precincts tabulated in the Republican gubernatorial contest, Warren T. McCray of Kentland, had a commanding lead with 36,958, while James W. Fesler of Indianapolis had 22,202 for second place, and Edgar C. Toner of Anderson, was third with 14,697.

INDIANAPOLIS, May 4.—Under the Indiana primary law, a Presidential candidate, to secure instructions of the thirty delegates, must have a majority of all the votes cast today. Otherwise the State convention to be held May 11 may instruct the thirty delegates as it sees fit.

Today's plurality is not binding legally. And apparently (at this hour) there is a plurality for Wood, but not a majority. This is in line with what the Republican leaders of Indiana have expected all through the primary contest.

Scattering returns from the country counties indicated that the vote had been exceptionally light, and that the farmers had stayed in the fields.

Enough had come in, however, at Indianapolis, at 10 o'clock tonight to indicate that the Wood plurality had been established in the State was furnishing Wood pluralities at large.

Indianapolis, as far as reported, Nothing in the meager figures, however, was sufficient to warrant the claims made at Wood headquarters that he had won a clean majority of the State.

WATCHING MARION COUNTY.

In Marion county, in which is Indianapolis, the unquestioned attempt was made to deliver to Johnson the Democratic Irish-American vote. The eventual figures from Indianapolis, therefore, will give a substantial line upon this classification of voters.

Returns coming from counties on the Ohio border have been a disappointment to the Harding managers. They were counting on carrying these, but the scattering returns also favored Johnson and are leading in these border districts.

The best showing made thus far by Gov. Lowden was in Hamilton county, an agricultural district. Eleven precincts from that county gave Lowden, 256; Wood, 189; Johnson, 171, and Harding, 45.

Allen county, in which Ft. Wayne is located, has made the best showing for Wood. Twenty-five precincts gave Wood 535 votes more than Johnson, and it was predicted that the general would carry the county by at least 1500. Lowden and Harding are running far behind in this county.

RADICALS FOR JOHNSON.

At Michigan City, in the northern part of the State, first returns from the industrial section give for seventeen precincts: Johnson, 275; Wood, 59; Lowden, 38; Harding, 38.

GARY, May 4.—In partial returns Johnson is leading Wood, his nearest opponent. Three out of thirty precincts here gave Johnson 284; Wood, 37; Lowden, 11 and Harding, 4.

It is estimated that 6500 votes were cast in Gary today, and that Johnson will carry this city by 1000 majority. Judging from returns tonight Johnson will carry Lake county by 2500 or 3000 majority.

WOOD LEADS IN TERRE HAUTE

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

TERRE HAUTE, May 4.—Partial reports in the Fifth Indiana Congress District of which Terre Haute is the center, gave Wood the lead in the Presidential preferential primaries. The vote appeared to be the lightest ever cast in an Indiana election. On th early returns it appeared that two Republicans voted for every Democrat.

With Wood leading the field for Republican nomination for the Presidency Johnson was second, with Lowden a close third and Harding trailing. The Indiana counties along the Illinois State line expressed favor for Lowden in a neighborly way, but this complimentary vote did not appear to be sufficient to overcome the advantage of Johnson in the central and eastern counties of the State, where, in some instances

VICE RAMPANT IN JUAREZ.

Rebel Reign Permits "Queen of Border" to Resume Crooked, Devious Way.

BY NORMAN WALKER.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

JUAREZ (Mex.) May 4.—Having slipped off the old Carranza flannels and put on Obregon B.V.D.'s, Juarez resumed her crooked and devious ways today. Except for the closed saloons and the overflowing jail, Juarez under Obregon was the same as it was Monday morning under Carranza control. A few more troops were on the streets and a few less tourists crossed during the day. Whether this was due to the revolution or to their order closing all saloons was not known. The port was reopened today for the normal flow of business across the rickety wooden bridge and streetcar traffic started at 8 o'clock.

Gen. Urbelejo, the Yaqui chieftain, who came to Juarez late last night on a special train with his Chief of Staff, remained here today as a member of the revolutionary army, having joined the movement at midnight when told his Yaqui troops would be attacked from Sonora and Chihuahua if they did not surrender. Although Chief Urbelejo joined the revolution his Yaqui Indians, who remained at Casas Grandes were not ready to join the Obregon movement today because of alleged mistreatment by Obregon during his west coast campaign for Carranza and it may be necessary to send troops to subdue them as Urbelejo admitted he had lost control of the Indians.

DRAMATIC SCENE.

The scene between Gen. Escobar and Urbelejo was a dramatic one as Urbelejo wore a pistol in a holster slung under his arm.

Urbelejo was under arrest all evening and forced to sit outside the general's private office in military headquarters until he had given his first official statement and had received a delegation of politicians from Juarez. As Urbelejo had no superior, he declared at first he would not join the movement and that his Indians would avenge anything that might happen to him. After Gen. Escobar had talked with him for a while he became more quiet and agreed to join the movement if his troops were given an opportunity to become a part of the revolutionary army. This was promised, but had not been taken advantage of late today.

Former Mayor Trinidad Romero, who was held a prisoner in Escobar's headquarters last night was released today, but was removed from office. His successor will be elected by the people, it was announced. Pending this election the military rule would continue and saloons remain closed. No more arrests were made today and many of the customs and fiscal guards, city and State officials, released from jail. Trains are scheduled to leave here for Chihuahua city tomorrow as practically the entire State is in control of the revolution.

VILLA LOCATED.

Francisco Villa was at Las Delecias, fifty miles southeast of Chihuahua city, yesterday with approximately 500 men and was preparing to move toward the Ojinaga border, 150 miles east of Juarez, according to a message received by Villa's friends here. Villa offered to join the movement against Carranza if permitted to execute all who participated in the execution of Gen. Angeles, but upon this request being referred to Gov. Adolfo de la Huerta, first chief of the revolution, it was refused and Villa will probably continue to operate independently as he has been doing.

He looted Rosales and Las Delecias recently, taking everything that could be hauled away.

BALLOT BATTLE CLOSE IN SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA.

Hoover Forces Claim It by Ten Thousand; Official Figures Show Johnson Leads in Los Angeles.

Returns from the Presidential primary at 2 o'clock this morning show that the battle between Hoover and Johnson in Southern California will be close. Both sides claim it, the Hoover forces declaring their majority will be at least 10,000.

The 2 o'clock summary by the Associated Press gives Los Angeles county to Hoover by over 9000, the figures being: Hoover, 39,709; Johnson, 30,528, in 666 precincts out of 1275, city and county. The same summary gives Southern California, including Los Angeles city and county, to Hoover by 4739 votes. The figures, for 1218 precincts, are: Hoover, 81,641; Johnson, 56,902. The southern counties outside of Los Angeles county, according to the Associated Press, give, for 552 precincts: Hoover, 21,932; Johnson, 26,374.

However, the semiofficial count by Registrar D. B. Lyons gives for Los Angeles city and county, 603 precincts at 1:30 o'clock: Hoover, 35,174; Johnson, 29,324—a lead for Johnson of 4150.

Hoover headquarters estimated at midnight that their candidate was leading Johnson in Los Angeles by 1200 votes. Their returns from 460 precincts at that hour gave Hoover 24,367 and Johnson 23,170. In the county outside the city the Hoover vote was relatively stronger, their count giving Hoover 14,687 and Johnson 9940.

At 11 o'clock E. D. Lyman, Southern California Hoover manager issued the following statement:

"We concede Johnson has carried the State by a substantial majority. All returns would indicate that Hoover will carry Southern California by over 9000. Johnson's majority in Los Angeles county four years ago was 54,000. Southern California today is a rousing tribute to Herbert Hoover.

"This successful campaign for Mr. Hoover in Southern California has practically been accomplished in less than three weeks."

OUTSIDE COUNTIES.

From an incomplete tabulation of the counties south of the Tehachepi returns at midnight indicated that Hoover's lead would not be more than 8000 votes. Los Angeles and Riverside counties, from incomplete returns, gave the former Food Administrator slight majorities, while Johnson apparently won in the other six counties. Johnson won decisively in Imperial county, while Hoover surprised his supporters by running well ahead in Riverside county, one of Johnson's strongholds in the south, where Hoover had not been conceded a chance.

The districts in which Hoover showed marked strength were Pasadena, which gave him [illegible]68 against Johnson's 2436 in twenty-nine precincts: Whittier, which gave Hoover 1250 as compared with 904 for Johnson, and Claremont, where the former Food Administrator polled 476 votes to Johnson's 84. In Anaheim, a Johnson stronghold, the Senator's vote ran [illegible]o 1 over Hoover.

At midnight, when the main issue of the day's battle was no longer in doubt, a statement was issued from the Hoover Republican Club, conceding the victory in the State to Johnson and claiming only a slight majority in the south for Hoover.

The bond issue of $95,[illegible]00 for the purchase of land on which the Arcadia Balloon School is established apparently carried by a large majority. This means that the donation of the land to the government during the war is legally ratified by the people. The land is already in use by the War Department, and the effect of the bond issue will be to retain the school.

NORTHERN VOTE DEFEATS HOOVER; BALLOTING HEAVY

Late Returns Indicate Johnson's Majority will be Near Hundred and Fifty Thousand, Despite Close Fight in the South; Vote Everywhere is Heavy.

Returns early this morning indicated that the Johnson ticket won yesterday in California by a majority of about 150,000. The entire group of twenty-six Johnson delegates were elected.

Los Angeles, Riverside and Ventura counties were the only ones in the State that showed a majority for Hoover. But the midnight returns indicated that the former Food Administrator would have a lead in the group of nine southern counties that are generally referred to as Southern California.

At 2 o'clock a summary by the Associated Press of 5056 precincts out of the 5729 in the State gave Johnson 293,835 and Hoover 156,890, a lead for Johnson of 136,945.

Voting was unprecedentedly heavy in the larger cities of the State, possibly the heaviest primary vote ever cast. But throughout the country the voting was remarkably light.

Absence of organization outside the southern counties explains Hoover's defeat. Where organization met organization the Hoover forces won; but when the Hoover supporters were not organized the powerful State machine piled up big majorities.

About San Francisco Bay the voting was especially heavy. The Johnson majority of 20,000 in Alameda county is without precedent in a California election.

The complete tally of the San Francisco vote, 381 precincts, gave: Johnson, 69,637; Hoover, 25,087.

LATE MORNING NEWS: TELEGRAPH AND LOCAL

Held as Auto Bandits

With the arrest last night of Julian Deimer, 17, and Harold R. Foster, 22, the police believe they have caught the automobile bandits who have committed a number of highway robberies in this city for the past two months. When arrested both boys were armed with revolvers and Foster wore a special deputy badge. Deimer was taken to the Police Station by William Thomas, 1012 West Fourth street. He told the police that he came out of a house at Third and Flower streets last night and caught the boy cranking his automobile. Deimer, the police say, acknowledged that he was planning to steal the automobile and made a signed confession, admitting several holdups. He told the police that he roomed at Sixth and Flower streets with Foster and Detectives Zeigler, Wallis, Fitzgerald and Mart went to the address and arrested Foster. Both boys are said to have admitted several holdups. They said they used stolen autos. They are held on the charge of highway robbery.

Kern Bonds Fail

BAKERSFIELD, May 4.—The Kern county soldiers' memorial bond issue carried a majority today, but failed to receive the required two-thirds vote, and was lost. The bonds were for $400,000, and would have provided nine service halls in the county.

LODGE IS TO WIELD REPUBLICAN GAVEL.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

WASHINGTON, May 4.—Senator Lodge of Massachusetts is to be temporary chairman of the Republican National Convention at Chicago and will deliver the keynote speech, according to Republican leaders in Congress who have conferred recently with Chairman Hays.

Republicans in Congress are said to have been virtually unanimous in urging selection of Senator Lodge. The committee on arrangements will meet at Chicago May 10.

No contest over the chairmanship in anticipated, although some friends of Senator Hiram Johnson have been urging substitution of Senator Borah of Idaho, and reports have reached here that former Senator Beveridge of Indiana, also aspires to the chairmanship.

Republican platform pronouncements will be considered here May 23, by the general committee. Many questionnaires on paramount issues have been turned in. The conference here is expected to outline some of the general principles, at least, to be recommended to the Chicago committee on resolutions.

To Acquire Spain's Electric Power.

[BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

MADRID, May 4.—Acquisition of all electric power in Spain is under consideration by Spanish bankers and business men.

DEMOCRATS NIL.

As far as the Democratic primary was concerned it might as well be termed no contest. The Democrats of the State seemed to take a delight in getting revenge for Hoover's refusal to permit his name to go on the Democratic ballot. Taking advantage of the open primary thousands of them called for Republican ballots.

At midnight the Democratic vote was so infinitesimal it had to be searched for with a magnifying glass. In hundreds of precincts not a single Democratic vote had been cast. It is probable that it will not total 10,000 in the entire State.

The expected fight of the wets to break the slate of the Democratic State Central Committee did not materialize. Childers, the independent on the Democratic ticket, did not receive but a few hundred votes. The Democratic delegation to San Francisco will go to the convention uninstructed. A number of the delegates, it is claimed a majority of them, have expressed a preference for McAdoo.

There was a Prohibition ticket in the primary; but there was no contest and only a few scattering votes throughout the State were cast for it.

PREDICTS HOOVER SUCCESS.

Undismayed by the Johnson victory, Ralph Merritt, head of the Hoover organization in the State, said at midnight:

"The issues represented by Hoover will continue to command the attention of the country and eventually of the Republican convention.

"Hoover will be nominated for the Presidency."

As the big majorities piled up for Johnson in the north were tallied, surprise was expressed that Los Angeles county had so stoutly resisted the onslaughts of the powerful Johnson.

All previous primary records for both State and national elections were apparently broken in the larger cities of California, the Republican vote in the primaries being as great as that in the National election in 1916.

This heavy primary vote was indicated by the heavy registration this year. The registration for the general election in 1916 was 1,244,898; that for the primary election this year was 1,111,192.

When the polls closed at 7 o'clock last night it was estimated that Los Angeles county had cast about 110,000 votes, San Francisco 80,000, Alameda county 25,000, Fresno county 15,000, Santa Clara county 17,500, Sacramento county 15,000 and San Diego county 15,000.

Throughout the rest of the State, the vote appears to have been light, not more than 20 per cent of the vote being cast in the interior counties, and in many of them, not more than 25 per cent.

Several thousand persons who had declined to state their party preference when registering took advantage of the open nature of the primary and voted Republican tickets, making yesterday's voting more in the nature of a general election than of a party primary.

About three-fifths of the votes cast yesterday came from counties lying north of the Tehachepi Mountains and two-fifths from Southern California.

CALLS GERMANS BUTCHERS.

Refugee from Guatemala Accuses Teutons of Torturing Friends of Cabrera.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

NEW ORLEANS, May 4.—Caesar Calvo, Cuban Consul to Guatemala, is in New Orleans and is fearful lest he be killed by someone friendly to the powers that overthrew Cabrera, who was his personal friend in Guatemala. Calvo escaped to the United States on a United Fruit vessel, after a mob had demanded that Benton McMillin, American Minister, turn him over.

After praising McMillin for saving him, he said:

"They took my poor friend, President Cabrera, and put him in the military prison. But that was not so bad. Secretly they took him from the prison and, the last I heard of him he had been taken to a house on Ninth avenue, in Guatemala City; this was several days ago before I escaped; no telling what may have happened to him by this time. His Cabinet and a number of other men were captured and called political prisoners; they were executed in the most brutal manner. Their throats were slowly slit; they were butchered, the butchers, among them quite a few Germans, gloating over their suffering and torture.

"I had protested against the overthrow of the Cabrera government by the so-called 'Unionista party,' and against the declaring of Cabrera insane by the Guatemalan Congress for he is no more insane than you or I. This served to divert the anger of the mob calling themselves the new government to me; my name had been signed, the expose published in the newspapers and I was fairly well known in Guatemala City; having been Vice-Consul from Cuba to Guatemala for some time, so it was no difficult matter for the mob to find me. They did. I fled with the howling mob demanding my head at my heels. But I arranged to keep ahead of them."

The information was received tonight by Joe Greenlaw of Flagstaff, a third son of Eben Greenlaw, in a telegram from his sister in the Arizona town. Further details were lacking.

STORM DEATH TOLL GROWS.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

MUSKOGEE (Okla.) May 4.—The swiftly mounting death list of the storm that swept the little inland town of Terrs, Okla., from existence late Sunday night had reached fifty-nine this evening with the finding today of seven bodies underneath the debris of ruined homes.

Rescue workers placed the list of injured at 150.

One great funeral for more than fifty victims was held today. Whole families were placed in single graves. No estimate of the great financial loss is yet available.

Not a building in the village carried tornado insurance, it is said.

COSTS US HIGH TO REMAIN DRY.

Gallivan Says the Expense of Prohibition is Immense.

He Asserts Illicit Stills Set in Cities, Valleys, Hills.

Even Trees in Time of Thaw Violators of the Law.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

WASHINGTON, May 4.—Prohibition enforcement will cost $38,000,000 annually, Representative Gallivan, Democrat, of Massachusetts declared today in the House.

There are more illicit stills now than before prohibition became effective, he said, adding that the bulk of Anti-Saloon League funds are used to hire special agents to locate stills.

"There were 2006 stills found in Georgia in 1918," he declared. "1534 in North Carolina, and twenty-six in Nebraska, the home of the first apostle of grape juice."

"Blind tigers are now surrounded by romance if not respectability. Members of Congress could tell interesting personal interviews with bootleggers who have become respectable citizens of the communities in which they live.

"During the year when prohibition was young over 6000 stills were captured by prohibition inspectors and 200,000 gallons of 'moonshine' confiscated."

SAP'S FLOW VIOLATES LAW.

Control of Congress and the Presidential election may be decided by the prohibition question, Mr. Gallivan declared.

"You can no more settle the prohibition question or keep it out of politics than you can sweep back the ocean," said he.

"Every tea kettle and stew pan is placed under suspicion since the Volstead Act has become effective. It prohibits everything with more than ½ per cent alcohol and yet the sap of every tree flows in violation of that law."

PENS MAIL BILL REJECTED.

The House Postoffice Committee refused today to act favorably on the Penn bill proposing repeal of the graduated increase in second-class mail rates for 1920, 1921 and 1922.

The vote was 7 to 8 under the measure, which was introduced by Representative Penn, Republican, Ohio, at the request of the American Newspaper Publishers' Association. The 1919 rates would have been continued in effect while a Congressional committee worked out a policy of second-class mail rate charges.

Committee members said the bill might be called up later for reconsideration.

As a substitute for the Penn bill, the committee adopted, 9 to 6, a motion of Representative Madden, Republican, of Illinois, by which a flat rate of 2½ cents a pound would be charged for reading matter, regardless of distance carried.

Rates on advertising matter would range from 1½ cents to 5½ cents a pound. Under this plan the existing law providing for automatic increase of rates this year and the next two years would be repealed.

The vote of the committee adopting this plan was not final, committee members said. A final vote will be taken when all committeemen can be present.

GOVERNMENT SAVED $4,000,000

Richard H. Long, of the R. H. Long Manufacturing Company of Framingham, Mass., testified before a House War Investigating Committee today that low bids submitted by his company for war supplies brought down prices and saved the government more than $4,000,000.

Mr. Long appeared at his own request to answer charges that his concern had made exorbitant profits during the war.

The Long company, the witness said, did not seek war contracts for the purpose of making profits.

Mr. Long asserted that at the request of the quartermaster corps, his plant was diverted from shoe manufacturing to the making of other leather supplies and textile goods. This diversion, he added, was so great that the company's factory since the war has been practically bound and gagged.

The Long company, he testified, not only saved the government nearly a million dollars on leggings through lower bids, but raised the standard of the product by the introduction of new designs.

Mr. Long placed in the committee's record a telegram which he sent to the Massachusetts delegation in Congress the day after war was declared, urging that war taxes be levied principally on large incomes and big war profits.

BANK ACT CRITICISM.

Attacking the administration of the Federal Reserve Act, Representative State bankers told the House rules and banking committees today that Federal employees by coercive methods were seeking to force State bankers into the reserve system.

The rules committee was asked to act favorably on Representative King's resolution, proposing investigation of the administration of the Federal Reserve Act, while the banking committee was requested to report an amendment of the act authorizing a charge for exchange.

At the request of the Department of Justice, the House committee investigating Shipping Board expenditures went into executive session today to continue its inquiry into the contract of the C. W. Morse Company with the board.

Members of the committee denied that the investigation was connected with the indictment of Charles W. Morse by a Federal grand jury at New York yesterday for violation of the shipping act.

The conference report on the deficiency appropriation of $300,000,000 for the Railroad Administration was approved today by the House. The bill now goes to the President.

CORDIAL TOWARD UNITED STATES

President of Venezuela Expresses Good Will.

Institutes Teaching of English in the Schools.

Country's Finances in Satisfactory Condition.

[BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

CARACAS (Venezuela) May 4.—Marked cordiality toward the United States featured the message of Dr. Marquez Bustillos, provisional President of the Venezuelan Congress, yesterday. He announced that Venezuela had been admitted to the League of Nations formed "on the generous initiative of President Wilson," and referred to this step as "a supremely important act."

"It is very significant," he said, "that the Minister of Public Instruction has instituted the teaching of English in the primary schools of Venezuela."

Conclusion of a reciprocal agreement between Venezuela and the United States respecting commercial travelers was announced.

Venezuelan finances are in a highly satisfactory condition, Senor Bustillos said, last year's revenues being 29,000,000 bolivars above those of 1918.

URGES SALE OF SHIPS.

[BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

RIO DE JANEIRO, May 4.—Sale of former German ships which were seized by Brazil during the war was urged by President Pessoa in his message to Congress today.

Twenty-eight of these steamers were borrowed by France and the President said France was noncommittal when asked by Brazil if she desired to purchase the ships on the same terms offered by North American firms. He said France suggested that the ship questions be settled by the reparations commission.

Brazil replied, the President said, that the ownership of the steamers was settled by the Versailles Treaty and refused to renew its loan to France. At the same time she asked that country to return the ships to Brazilian harbors. No response has as yet been received from Paris.

MANAGUA (Nicaragua) May 4.—Diego Manuel Chamorro, former Nicaraguan Minister to the United States, yesterday was nominated the Presidential candidate of the Conservative party. Notwithstanding this action of the Conservative convention, Martin Bernard insists he is the party's candidate, and apparently has official support.

WOOD LEADS IN HOOSIER STATE.

the Lowden vote was almost absent.

Partial returns from the Fifth District, in Putnam county, gave Wood 100, Johnson 29, Lowden 28, Harding 21. In Vigo county, Terre Haute, the Wood lead was not as large, and Johnson pulled ahead of Lowden.

Gibson county indicated a strong Wood sentiment when the first five precincts gave the general 173, Johnson 70, Lowden 48 and Harding 8.

Contests for places as precinct committeemen of both parties made the tickets complicated and delayed the counting. Reports from some precincts in Terre Haute, even where the vote was unusually light, indicated that the count would not be completed before tomorrow morning.

BITTER IN RANDOLPH.

In Randolph county, which is the home of Gov. Goodrich, a bitter fight was waged against the Goodrich candidates and there were many lively contests. Other counties in the district early tonight reported a light vote, but many warm contests spurred on by the Goodrich faction.

Senator Johnson appeared in this district a week after Senator Harding fired the opening gun of the campaign, and the flaying which he administered the League of Nations is thought to have gained him strength, especially in the rural districts. Lowden is running third.

VINCENNES, May 4.—Incomplete returns from twenty-six scattered precincts in the Second Congress District, give Wood 618; Lowden, 394; Johnson, 238; Harding, 93.

Returns so far received indicate Wood will obtain at least 40 per cent of the total Republican vote cast for President. Only one-tenth of the total number of precincts are heard from.

MUNCIE, May 4.—Although early returns in Delaware county, regarded as the stronghold of the Eighth Congress District, favor Johnson for President, and Toner for Governor, it is the pediction that Wood and McCary will carry the district.

EVANSVILLE RETURNS.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

EVANSVILLE, May 4.—Returns in the City of Evansville and Vanderburg county at hand indicate at 10 o'clock that Johnson has carried Vanderburg county. The first precinct in the city to report, gave Johnson 102; Lowden, 58; Wood, 17; Harding, 17. The second precinct to report gave Johnson 137; Wood, 59; Lowden, 93; Harding, 15.

Returns are slow in coming in, due to the fact that the Australian voting system was used and long tickets were voted, and it will be noon Wednesday before many of the precincts are tabulated.

In Dubois county, three precincts gave Johnson as leading.

In Gibson county five precincts showed that Johnson is over 100 votes behind Wood. In Knox county Wood ran ahead of Johnson, two to one. In Pike county, Wood was leading. The surprise of the voting here was the strength shown by Lowden, as politicians had him "doped" to run last in the Presidential race.

CALL TEXAS DEMOCRATS.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

DALLAS, May 4.—A call for a State-wide conference of Democrats to meet in Dallas, May 15, was issued today by the Advisory Committee of the element of the Texas Democratic party which met defeat at precinct conventions last Saturday in its campaign to repudiate the national administration.

DENVER, May 4.—Two uninstructed delegates to the Republican National Convention were selected today by Republicans of the First Congress District of Colorado, comprising the city and county of Denver.

LOUISVILLE (Ky.) May 4.—Eight delegates, including three women, to the Democratic National Convention, each with a half vote, were elected tonight by the Democratic State Convention.

A contest which forced postponement of the election occurred when Col. Marion Taylor, Louisville, was recommended for selection as national committeeman, instead of Johnson N. Camden, Versailles.

WOOD'S NEW JERSEY LEAD.

[BY A. P. DAY WIRE.]

NEWARK (N. J.) May 4.—Official figures in the New Jersey preferential Presidential primary contest with estimated returns from only one small district in one county, gave Gen. Wood a margin of 1225 over Senator Johnson. The totals were: Wood, 52,901; Johnson, 51,676.

PRICE (Utah) May 4.—Republicans of Utah in convention here yesterday elected eight uninstructed delegates, four to have votes and four alternates, to the national convention to be held at Chicago in June. Delegates at large selected are United States Senator Reed Smoot of Provo, Mrs. Jeanette Hyde of Salt Lake, J. U. Eldridge, Jr., of Ogden, and J. C. Lynch of Salt Lake.

The election of Mrs. Hdye as delegate-at-large and Mrs. Lilly Westerholm of Salt Lake as alternate is unique in Utah Republican annals. Both Mrs. Hyde and Mrs. Westerholm have been prominent in Republican circles for years.

The convention declared for ratification of the peace treaty with the Lodge reservations; for immediate declaration of peace with the nations against whom the United States fought, and for a stronger Mexican policy, "so that the lives and property of American citizens may be given better protection."

SALT LAKE CITY, May 4.—The Utah State Democratic Convention, at which delegates to the national convention at San Francisco are to be chosen, will be held here June 14. The Utah delegates probably will be uninstructed.

POLES AND REDS FIGHT FOR KIEV.

Bolsheviki Digging in on Dnieper's West Bank.

Both Sides Using Artillery; City not Bombarded.

Desperate Battle Imminent at Capital of Ukraine.

[BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

WARSAW, May 3.—The Bolsheviki are intrenching in the hills on the west bank of the Dnieper in a great semicircle with their backs against Kiev, the Ukrainian capital, according to information today from the front. The fight for possession of Kiev is at its height, raging day and night along the line through the valleys and rivers.

Both sides are using artillery, but Kiev has not yet been bombarded by the Poles. It is reported that the Poles, who are within forty-five kilometers [approximately twenty-eight miles] of Kiev, are making effective use of modern equipment. From the north the Poles are proceeding southward below the Pripet and Dnieper rivers with a flotilla.

Reports received here say that the plans of Leon Trotzky, the Bolshevik War Minister, for the defense of Kiev, called for the replacing of Gen. Mieczekow by Gen. Szwiesdow.

Two men were killed and nine wounded in conflict between civilians and military at the railway station at Praga, a suburb of Warsaw, where troops from Posen were entraining for the front today. According to the military authorities the conflict arose between some of the soldiers and a group of Jews.

CONFUSION IN KIEV.

[BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

WARSAW, Sunday, May 2.—Disorder and confusion prevail in Kiev, according to reports received here. Some dispatches stating that the Bolsheviki are evacuating Kiev while others say that Gen. Mieczekow, the 25-year-old commander of the Twelfth Red Army, is making extensive preparations to defend Kiev.

The first anniversary of Poland's democratic constitution Monday brought out the greatest parade in the history of the country.

The people took advantage of the occasion to manifest their joy over the Polish successes in the advance into the Ukraine. Great posters announced the triumph of the army in its drive toward the Dnieper.

Thousands of soldiers took part in the procession. Uhlans, who led in the drive toward Kiev, were everywhere. A hundred patriotic organizations which for years met secretly under the Russian administration of Poland paraded for the first time.

CRIMINAL SYNDICALIST MEASURE DISCUSSED AND DISPOSED OF IN OAKLAND.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

OAKLAND, May 4.—Resolutions asking modifications of the criminal syndicalism law, and in defense of Miss Anita Whitney, convicted under it, were tabled today by the biennial conference of the Unitarian churches of the Central Pacific district.

Rev. A. B. Heeb of Berkeley, presented the resolutions, declaring that those who framed the law did so hastily, and were now convinced of its imperfections. He characterized the attitude of the conference in refusing to adopt his proposal as one of "closed-mindedness."

Rev. E. M. Wilbur, president of the Pacific Unitarian School for the Ministry, led the opposition.

SEATTLE (Wash.) May 4.—Trials of the cases against eleven northwestern shipping men indicted by a Federal grand jury last January and March for alleged frauds in connection with construction work for the United States Shipping Board will begin September 7.

GOOD SERVICE.

The handling of the election returns by the organization under D. B. Lyons, Registrar of Voters, was excellent. Mr. Lyons put in effect a new system which workers at the Hall of Records say is the best ever adopted at the registrar's office. He sent out about 500 requests to inspectors for special telephonic reports to be sent to him. Four hundred of these were dispatched to Los Angeles points and 100 to county districts. They were so well scattered that a general survey of the situation was quickly obtained. The returns began to come in early, counting being comparatively easy. As fast as the count was completed and the closed boxes containing the votes arrived at headquarters, they were given a semiofficial count. For this purpose a battery of ten comptometers was employed together with from eighty to one hundred deputies. They received the returns and tabulated them. It was conceded that the work reflected great credit on the registrar and everyone employed.

An army of campaign workers was used by both Hoover and Johnson headquarters to get out the largest possible vote. They did yeoman service for both sides, working in automobiles to take workers to the polls, conducting house-to-house canvasses, and contesting every inch of the ground. Throughout the day the contest was waged with intense zeal from both camps. The Hoover supporters worked with an intense loyalty that expressed the depth of their affection for their candidate. The Johnson adherents were working to hold the State for the radical Senator.

John F. Lucey, head of the Hoover Republican clubs in the United States, yesterday branded as absolutely false the statement of Meyer Lissner, manager of the Johnson campaign in Southern California, that a huge "slush fund" had been dumped into California at the eleventh hour by Hoover's friends to win this State for the former Food Administrator.

"No one knows better than Mr. Lissner, himself that such a statement as his is false," declared Mr. Lucey. "On behalf of the Hoover Republican clubs I challenge Mr. Lissner to make good his charge. We will be glad to submit the records of the Hoover campaign both in California and the United States to a public audit. If Mr. Lissner has any faith in his own statement he will do the same. The fact is, the Johnson campaign management has spent more money in California alone than Hoover's friends have in the entire country."

Mayor M. P. Snyder visited the Hoover Republican Club headquarters, 712 South Spring street, late yesterday and congratulated Edward D. Lyman, head of the Hoover organization in Southern California, on the magnificent campaign which had been conducted for the former hope that you will," declared Mayor Food Administrator.

"You deserve to win, and it is my Snyder. "Your campaign has been conducted throughout with brilliance and with absolute fairness."

Capt. H. O. Wheeler, an ardent volunteer Hoover headquarters worker, recruited groups of telephone operators in downtown hotels throughout yesterday to call up voters and urge them to go to the polls. It proved an effective method of getting out the Hoover vote.

FULLER PENSION BILL SIGNED BY PRESIDENT.

MEASURE PROVIDES INCREASES FOR VETERANS OF MEXICAN AND CIVIL WARS.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

WASHINGTON, May 4.—President Wilson has signed the Fuller pension bill increasing the pensions of veterans of the Civil War and widows and other dependents of veterans.

An increase for veterans of the Civil and Mexican wars and their widows, and less than 100 widows of men who served in the War of 1812, is provided for in the bill, which will add approximately $65,000,000 annually to the government's pension account. For veterans, the measure fixed $50 a month as a minimum with $30 as a monthly minimum for widows. High cost of living was urged as a reason for the increase.

SIXTY DOLLARS FOR CARPENTERS

Make Eighty Dollars Per Week with Overtime.

Partial Operations in New Bedford, Mass., Mills.

[BY A. P. DAY WIRE.]

PHILADELPHIA, May 4.—Three thousand of the 7000 carpenters who struck on Saturday last returned to work today, according to a statement by union officials. They assert a $60-a-week wage scale has been granted by 119 contractors. The new wages, $1.25 an hour for a six-day week, will yield as high as $80 a week, with overtime.

NEW BEDFORD (Mass.) May 4. The gates of all the cotton mills in this city were opened today and partial operations were conducted in each. Leaders of the strikng textile workers claimed an increase in the number of strikers since yesterday.

VICTORIA BAKERS OUT.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

VANCOUVER (B. C.) May 4. Union bakers of Victoria have walked out, adding their number to the bakers already on strike in Vancouver, Seattle and Portland, it was announced at the Labor Temple here today. Prediction was made that the entire Pacific Coast would be affected before the strike was over.

TALE IN CLEVELAND.

[BY A. P. DAY WIRE.]

CLEVELAND, May 4. Twenty thousand Cleveland men employed in industrial work, lake transportation and building trades are idle today as a result of the railroad switchmen's strike, according to a Chamber of Commerce statement.

YOUNGSTOWN (O.) May 4.—The food situation here is becoming acute as the railroad strike continues. Sugar is practically unobtainable, even for babies. Wholesalers have been without sugar for several days and restaurants are substituting syrup.

This serious food condition, coupled with reports that 25,000 men are idle, has caused the City Council to telegraph the Railroad Labor Board at Washington asking for quick action on the men's demands.

WASHINGTON, May 4.—Representatives of the striking railroad workers will meet here tomorrow to organize a national association through which they hope to gain a hearing before the Railroad Labor Board.

HOUGHTON (Mich.) May 4. Indian timber workers on strike in Baraga county have discovered a new source of pleasure in the strike parades.

They paraded at Baraga yesterday. All were good-natured, and there has been no trouble in the district.

CHICAGO, May 4.—Attempts of master barbers to increase the price of haircuts to 75 cents because of wage increases granted would be fought by the Journeymen Barbers' Union, A. B. Raymond, business agent, declared today.

PARIS STRIKE NEAR END.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

PARIS, May 4.—Official circles tonight feel that the end of the strike is near. The railroad men have been given until Thursday to return to duty; after that time they will be discharged.

In the northern mine field the men are continuing at work.

The Union of Metal Workers of the Paris region has called a general strike for Thursday in support of the general Federation of Labor as a protest against the action of the post in making arrests May Day.

UTICA (N. Y.) May 4.—A walkout of composing-room employees which caused the two local afternoon newspapers to appear in greatly reduced form was settled today.

GALESBURG (Ill.) May 4.—One hundred and twenty-five switchmen employed by the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Railroad failed to report for work today.

sional commander-in-chief of the revolutionary army.

EXPLAINS ACTION.

Explaining his action in withdrawing his support from Carranza, Escobar said: "I turned from Carranza because I believed that he was trying to force Ignacio Bonillas on the people of Mexico against their will."

With the resumption of telegraphic service between Juarez and Jiminez and the promise of restored train service shortly from the border here to Parral and Jiminez, Juarez swung back to its normal life following the coup d'etat of yesterday.

Trains between Chihuahua and Jiminez are already running, it was announced here.

The commercial agency established by the Constitutionalist party in El Paso, opposite here, was crowded today by people who wanted border cards vised by the new faction.

American immigration officials in El Paso received orders not to permit American women to cross the international bridge from El Paso.

Gen. Escobar expressed ignorance regarding the fate of Torreon, which was reported to have fallen. Confirmation of this could not be obtained from the commercial agency of the revolutionists in El Paso.

WARSHIPS IF NEEDED.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

WASHINGTON, May 4.—Secretary Daniels said today that additional warships would be sent to the east coast of Mexico, "if they are needed."

Requests from the American consuls at Vera Cruz and Tampico that men-of-war be sent there for the protection of American citizens were received Sunday at the State Department and it was announced yesterday that the Navy Department had been requested to send destroyers.

Secretary Daniels would not say today that this request had been received. At the State Department it was said that inquiries would be made of the Navy Department.

Gen. Pablo Gonzales, formerly one of the chief military advisers of the Carranza government, has left Mexico City, and is believed by officials here to have joined the revolutionists, probably in the Michoacan-Guerrero district, where Gen. Obregon now is with the anti-Carranza forces. Advices received here today said Mexican officials in the capital did not know where Gen. Gonzales was. He was one of the generals who participated in the recent conference with Carranza at which the Mexican President was advised to resign.

GONZALES GOES OVER.

Gen. Pablo Gonzales, long regarded by Carranza as his staunchest supporter, has joined in the revolution. According to advices today through official channels, he was a few miles east of the Mexican capital yesterday, in command of two regiments of Federal troops, and had severed both railway lines to Vera Cruz.

Another report received here through unofficial channels was that the high military officers whom Carranza summoned in council a few days ago, had supplemented their advice to him to resign with an ultimatum fixing May 15 as the limit for his tenure of office.

The reported determination of the military group to force him out of office would go far, officials here believe, to account for the failure that has been met by Carranza in getting an offensive campaign under way.

The report mentioning the ultimatum, added that his military advisers were determined not to follow a course that inevitably would involve the country in a long struggle, filled with danger of foreign complications.

SECRECY REMOVED.

When Gonzales disappeared from Mexico City, government officials there are said to have professed ignorance as to his whereabouts, but all secrecy as to his movements was removed when he joined Manuel Gonzales, commanding a Federal force near Los Reis. This meeting was followed by immediate utilization of the force as a revolting unit. After cutting the railroads, Gonzales and his force are said to have moved toward the State of Pueblo, where a strong force to rurales recently announced their support of the rebellion.

Gonzales, who was the leading opponent of Obregon for the Presidency until Ambassador Bonillas entered, conferred with Obregon just before Obregon fled from the capital. Prior to that, a conference had been held between Obregon, Gonzales and Bonillas at which, it was announced, Bonillas has been urged by both Obregon and Gonzales to join them in withdrawing their three candidacies in the interest of harmony. Bonillas' refusal was followed by the revolt in Sonora and the flight of Obregon.

REFUSE CABLE MESSAGES.

Cable companies refused today to accept messages for Mexico City for the first time since the upising. The refusal was construed here as an indication that when the revolutionists cut the railway lines between the capital and Vera Cruz, they also cut the land wires which paralleled one of the roads most of the way.

Whether Carranza still has access to the cable station at Coatzacoalcos, south of Vera Cruz, was unknown here, but was regarded as immediately probable on account of the presence of rebels in the vicinity of that point on the Isthmus of Tehuantepec. Salina Cruz, the cable station at the Pacific end of the Isthmus has been reported in possession of the rebels. The only land wires left the government for direct communication with the United States are those through Eagle Pass and Laredo.

OBREGON EMISSARY ARRIVES.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

SAN FRANCISCO, May 4.—Following his activities in heading a special commission from Gen. Alvaro Obregon to Gov. de la Huerta of Sonora, offering the insurgent government of that State all possible assistance, Luis F. Morenas, a campaign manager for Gen. Obregon in his contest for the Presidency of Mexico, arrived here today en route to Washington. Morenas, an electrical engineer of Mexico City, came here from the west coast of Mexico on a Pacific Mail steamer.

He said he was on his way to Washington to advise the government as to the progress of the Mexican election campaign. He expects to leave for Los Angeles tonight.

Differences between President Carranza and Obregon became so pronounced that Obregon was forced to flee Mexico ity in disguise on April 13, Morenas said. The general was hidden in a box, which was placed on an express train, and was carried to safety in that fashion, he asserted.

While lending full support to the revolutionary movement, Gen. Obregon does not desire to use it in order that he might be elevated to the Presidency, Morenas declared. He said an acute situation was brought about when Carranza was alleged to have sent armed men into Sonora to further the Presidential campaign of Ygnacio Bonillas, former Mexican Ambassador to the United States. Later Bonillas announced his retirement from the race.

SEEK TO ASSASSINATE HIM.

Morenas declared Obregon had been followad all over Mexico by men on motorcycles seeking to assassinate him. On a visit to Tampico forty Carranza policemen entered the hotel where Obregon was staying and beat up some of the men who accompanied him on the trip, Morenas said, Obregon escaping injury because he happened to be out of the hotel at the time.

Since the central government had failed to guarantee a fair election, according to a proclamation from Obregon to the American people carried by Morenas, Gen. Obregon had decided to lend his support to the Sonora insurgents. Nine States in Mexico are loyal to Obregon, Morenas declared.

Foreign interests in Mexico are promised protection by Obregon if he should become President.

JAPANESE SHIPPING PORTS CONGESTED.

BANKS REFUSE ADVANCE ON CARGOES; TRADE SUFFERS, PRICES DECREASED.

[BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

WASHINGTON, May 4. — With banks refusing to make further advances on cargoes, Japanese trade is feeling the full effects of the financial situation there and shipping at Yokohama already is congested, according to official advices from Tokio received today by the Department of Commerce.

Commodity prices have declined sharply and money is exceedingly tight despite a decline in banking rates. The dispatch said, however, that "no disastrous" failures had yet occurred.

HONOLULU (T. H.) May 4. — A military agreement conceding all Japanese demands was signed by representatives of the Siberian Vladivostok government and the Japanese April 29, according to a Tokio cable to the Nippu Jiji, Japanese newspaper here.

The Emperor of Japan, whose illness recently necessitated a visit to the winter palace at Hayama, returned to Tokio Sunday, according to a Tokio cable to the Nippu Jiji.

STUDENT TO BELGIUM.

Los Angeles Youth Gets Exchange University Fellowship.

[BY A. P. DAY WIRE.]

NEW YORK, May 4.—Eight American students have been chosen on nomination of their universities as exchange fellows to enter Belgian universities next fall, the commission for the relief in Belgium announced today. Among the students selected are Frank Howard Wilcox, Berkeley, Cal., and Richard Henry Scofield, Los Angeles, of Princeton.

Each will receive tuition fees and traveling expenses to and from Belgium, in addition to his fellowship of 10,000 francs. They will enter universities at Brussels, Liege, Ghent and Louvain. Twenty-four Belgian graduate students will enter American universities at the same time.

RUSSIAN BOURGEOISIE PERISH IN SEA STORM.

[BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

LONDON, May 4.—A considerable number of Russian bourgeoisie who fled from South Russia to Asia Minor perished during a storm in the Black Sea, according to a wireless dispatch from Moscow today. Fourteen ships laden with refugees were lost.

The remnants of the Russian volunteer army in the Stotchy region of the Black Sea coast, numbering several thousand, have surrendered to the Bolsheviki, the statement continues. The volunteers were headed by Gen. Morozoff and Uhreoff. All were granted life and liberty with the exception of the leaders of the rising.

The capture of Stotchy was announced in an official statement issued by the Soviet government at Moscow on Sunday last.

About Rheumatism.

People are learning that it is only a waste of time and money to take medicine internally for chronic and muscular rheumatism, and about ninety-nine out of a hundred cases are one or the other of these varieties. All that is really necessary to afford relief is to apply Chamberlain's Liniment freely. Try it. It costs but 35 cents per bottle. Large size 60 cents.—[Advertisement.

WIRE OPERATION DEFICIT GIVEN.

Telephone and Telegraph War Losses Disclosed.

Burleson Asks Fourteen Millions to Square Debt.

Claims Suit to be Filed Against Postal Company.

[BY A. P. DAY WIRE.]

WASHINGTON, May 4.—Operation of the telegraph and telephone companies during the war cost the government $14,005,565, Postmaster-General Burleson informed Congress today in asking immediate appropriation of that amount to liquidate the affairs of the Federal wire administration.

"The deficit," wrote Mr. Burleson, "is the outcome of operations involving gross revenues of over $600,000,000 and therefore represents less than 2½ per cent of the total gross revenues."

The Postmaster-General said that when taken over by the government many of the companies were not earning operating expenses, and a fair return on the investment because of increased labor and material cost.

Mr. Burleson said that no loss would have been suffered had the government retained operation of the lines "a few months longer," or had rate increases not been temporarily halted by court injunctions.

WILL FILE SUIT.

Mr. Burleson disclosed that no agreement has yet been reached with the Mackay companies for the use of their land lines, forming the Postal Telegraph system. He said the Postal earnings during Federal control were $2,123,393 more than the compensation awarded by him and that suit for this sum would be filed by the government.

[BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

PANAMA, May 4.—United States Army officers and soldiers yesterday were ordered not to enter Panama city. The order was issued by Maj.-Gen. C. W. WILL DISCUSS SPA MEETING.

British and French Premiers to Confer Next Week.

Diplomats will Consider Reparation Clause of Pact.

France Declared Opposed to Softening of Terms.

[BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

PARIS, May 4.—Premier Millerand is going to London next week to confer with David Lloyd George, British Prime Minister, regarding financial questions. It is expected an agreement will be reached with regard to execution of the reparation clauses of the Treaty of Versailles.

The premiers will also agree on the basis of the discussions to be held with the German representatives at the Spa meeting on June 3.

The French viewpoint is that they will not discuss the principle of any clause of the treaty, and will take up with the Germans only the manner of applying the treaty's terms.

What practically amounts to a modification of the reparations clause will be discussed in the form of proposed minimum and maximum totals of reparations.

The French probably will not accept a lower minimum than 100,000,000,000 marks gold, but are likely to consent to fixing the maximum reparation payable by Germany at 150,000,000,000 marks, which was the limit the American experts reported they found Germany able to pay.

The minimum sum may be divided into annuities of 2,000,000,000 marks as discussed at San Remo.

"Will your experiment terminate and pass into a quite conventional married life, if you become parents?" was the next question.

"That is hard to say," said Mr. Danielson. "It is really hard to tell—" he broke off suddenly, his face brightening, and suggested, "Here is Miss Hurst now; maybe you had better ask her that."

Miss Hurst gave evidence that the question was one about which she had thought and that she had reached a decision, for she answered at once:

"No, that does not mean that our basis of marriage would be altered. It might be adjusted, of course, but I can find no reason why in its essentials it should not work just the same. I can see no reason at all why a woman with a profession of her own cannot raise her child more efficiently by intrusting its upbringing, properly supervised, to a woman who is a professional in that way.

"That certainly seems to me to be the wiser way, at least while children are in the younger stage, unfolding like little buds growing into flowers."

THE OTHER SIDE.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

CHICAGO, May 4.—Mr. and Mrs. Charles Cleaver, who yesterday celebrated their fiftieth wedding anniversary, do not take kindly to the ideas advanced by Fannie Hurst.

"Not for us," said Mr. Cleaver. "We noticed the story today and thought it rather funny. I suppose it's part of the new-fangled ideas that are taking hold of the world. Things are what you make them, and if people want to make marriage a sort of formal undomestic business it's their own lookout.

"As for us, and I suppose thousands of other married couples, marriage has meant a pleasant, worthwhile partnership, in which we have shared our days for fifty years and I am conscious of neither familiarity nor contempt."

Over in the divorce courts, however, investigators found some women and men who heartily agreed with Miss Hurst's ideas.

They admitted that if they had taken on the "trial marriage" instead of attempting to live together they would have been happier. These misfits agreed that they grew terribly weary of seeing each other every day, staring at each other over the breakfast and dinner tables, quarreling over trifles until their differences reached the knockdown and drag-out stage, whereas had they only seen each other at intervals they might have gone along happily enough.

AGAINST THIRD TERM.

Democrat Introduces Bill to Put Limit on President's Tenure.

WASHINGTON, May 3.—Representative Humphreys, Democrat, of Mississippi, has introduced a bill in the House prohibiting Presidential third terms through a constitutional amendment limiting the tenure of the Chief Executive to two terms.

Representative Humphreys recently made a speech attempting to smoke President Wilson out of his silence on the third term proposition

"KICK" IN HOME BREW; MALT AND HOPS TABOO.

CHICAGO FEDERAL AGENTS ON TRAIL OF KITCHEN BRAND OF "MOONSHINE."

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

CHICAGO, May 4.—As the result of secret investigations four large breweries are facing prosecution for manufacturing and selling large quantities of beer containing 7 to 8 per cent of alcohol.

Another sensational development of the day was the sounding of the death knell for the "home brew" artists, hundreds of whom have been producing an article with a savage kick. This home product has been liberally distributed with the result that drunkenness is again becoming prevalent.

Quite recently, too, there have been saloon brawls and a shooting, due entirely to drunkenness, all of which opened the eyes of the authorities to the fact that saloons were handling plenty of hard liquor.

The "home brew" industry has caused enterprising manufacturers to place on sale all the paraphernalia required in a small brewery or distillery and there has been a heavy sale of this material and of hops and other ingredients.

Now the government has ruled that the sale of malt and hops is illegal. Thousands of stores have been selling malt, hops, yeast and syrup, combined in just the right proportions. There also has been an enormous sale of "beverage" bottles and "beverage boilers."

The run on the raisin market has doubled the price and word from growers, who have a tight little trust, are planning to double the price again. Large shipments of raisins have been followed by the Federal sleuths and enabled them to uncover big "moonshine" plants and bootlegging resorts.

MEXICAN NEWS SLIPS THROUGH.

Carranza Censorship of Wires and Mails Ineffective.

Underground Methods, Codes Bring Many Messages.

Story of Obregon's Escape of Alleged Plot Thus Known.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

LAREDO (Tex.) May 3.—While the censorship by the Carranza authorities of the wires and mails is rigidly enforced and prevents information reaching this country by those means as to existing revolutionary conditions many underground sources bring daily accounts of the progress of events to this side of the border. Much of this information that is tabooed by the Carranza authorities is brought here by refugees and through well-conceived and apparently innocent telegraph messages that have code meanings.

An authentic account of the events immediately surrounding the escape of Gen. Alvaro Obregon from the city of Mexico has just been received by one of the leaders of that movement in Laredo. According to this narrative Gen. Obregon was well advised of the dangers that would surround him in the capital when he left Matamoros on the border for the city of Mexico a few weeks ago.

He decided, however, to respond to the command of Carranza to come to the capital and face charges against him. It is stated that he was assured by certain friends in the city of Mexico that he would be given protection in the event an effort was made to arrest him.

On arriving in the capital Obregon learned that the Carranza officials there had made out what was ostensibly a clear case against him. This included the trumped-up testimony of certain of his enemies who even went so far as to present letters bearing the forged signature of Obregon which implicated him in a plot to bring about the overthrow of the Carranza government.

USE OF MONEY EFFECTIVE.

Plans were all set for his arrest, and fearing that he might be made the victim of a drumhead court-martial, such as brought about the end of Gen. Felipe Angeles, he decided to make a run for it and evade the arrest, which was set for a particular night. He met with much difficulty in arranging his plans to escape from the city of Mexico as he was under constant surveillance of secret service men of the Carranza government.

Through the liberal use of money, however, by certain of his friends, he found an opportunity to get in an automobile and start for the mountains of the State of Michoacan. Before the automobile reached th outskirts of the city it collided with another car and Obregon was forced to seek refuge in a safe hiding place pending the arrival of another automobile that carried him over a little frequented and rough road far into the country before morning.

According to the statements of representatives here of the Obregon movement plans are well advanced for setting up a provisional government in Mexico with Obregon as provisional President. This is to be done, it is stated, irrespective of whether the City of Mexico falls into the hands of the Obregonistas or not.

The assertion is made that the revolt has already brought under the control of Obregon more than two-thirds of the area of Mexico and that it is spreading so rapidly that within another month there will be very little Carranza territory left. The Carranza army is becoming more and more disrupted and the military effectiveness of his administration is becoming less powerful each day.

FRIENDLY TO UNITED STATES.

Mexicans of prominence who have discussed the events of their country with Gen. Obregon recently say that one of the first official declarations that he will make upon becoming provisional President will be to assure the United States government and Americans generally of his friendship and good will toward them. He will seek to bring about a feeling of amity between the two governments and peoples that will enable him to obtain the financial and moral support of the United States.

He is said to have declared that without this support no government in Mexico can exist for any great length of time. He realizes, his friends say, the need of American capital and American enterprise for the development of the resources of Mexico. He will advocate and seek to bring about the immediate restoration of the constitution under which such wonderful progress was made during the administration of the late President Porfirio Diaz.

It is realized by Gen. Obregon and those who are most active in promoting the revolution in his behalf that much difficulty will probably be experienced in satisfying the various revolutionary leaders who are rendering him valuable aid at this time. Just what he will be able to do with Francisco Villa and Gen. Manuel Peleaz is yet to be determined. Gen. Felix Diaz has not yet openly aligned himself with the Obregon movement, according to information received here. It is expected, however, that he will do so before events have progressed much farther.

One of the significant features of the present troubles in Mexico is that comparatively few Americans have as yet come out of the country on account of a renewal of disturbances. In the Tampico region it is estimated that there are more than 3000 Americans employed in the different petroleum camps and in the city itself. Notwithstanding the fact that more or less fighting has been going on in the oil fields during the last several days the Americans there have not been molested so far as known here.

Suffrage Leaders in Convention.

[BY A. P. DAY WIRE.]

NEW HAVEN, May 4.—The "flying squadron" woman suffrage leaders opened its "emergency drive" in convention last night. The party, composed of forty-six women, representing every State except Texas and Delaware, arrived in Hartford today. It is the aim of the suffragists to demonstrate to Gov. Holcomb that a "special emergency" exists which would warrant him to summon the Legislature in special session so Connecticut might be the thirty-sixth State to ratify the Federal suffrage amendment.

RESOLUTION FOR PEACE UP TODAY

Senate to Debate Knox Plan to End State of War.

Democrats will not Impede Progress of Measure.

Claim Secretary Colby to Oppose its Passage.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

WASHINGTON, May 4.—The Senate will begin debate tomorrow on the Knox peace resolution, with general expectation of its adoption and certain veto.

Republican leaders supporting and Democrats opposing the resolution, introduced as a substitute for the House measure, said a vote probably would be reached within two weeks, or just before the contemplated recess for the political conventions.

Senator Knox will call up his resolution tomorrow and deliver a prepared speech, after which, according to present plans, it will lie over for a few days, unless Senators desire to discuss it at odd times.

Senator Hitchcock, ranking minority member of the Foreign Relations Committee, announced, after a Democratic conference today, no attempt would be made to delay action on the measure.

COLBY AGAINST IT.

The Democrats on the committee conferred with Secretary Colby and Senator Underwood, minority leader, and it was said Mr. Colby agreed with the Democratic plan of opposition to the Knox resolution. Besides pointing out what he regarded as its constitutional objections, Mr. Colby is said to have stated it was likely to draw criticism from America's associates in the war.

Senators said they gathered Mr. Colby was not informed as to the President's plan for future action regarding the treaty.

The question of a conference of all Democratic Senators on the peace resolution was discussed, but no decision was reached.

Republican leaders said it was their purpose to dispose of the pending dye tariff and other urgent legislative affairs before giving continuous consideration to the Measure. Senator Lodge, Republican leader, said Senators could speak any time they desired. There was a reported disposition among Republicans to curtail discussion and give the Democrats full sway. Democratic leaders, on the other hand, said they were disposed to let the Republicans have the floor for the present, and develop the opposition toward the close of debate.

FORECAST VETO.

In the opinion of the administration officials close to President Wilson, the Knox peace resolution is certain to be vetoed if adopted by Congress.

In outlining this belief the officials recalled the President's letter to Senator Fall last summer declaring that to make a separate peace would be a strain on the nation's honor. They said they knew of no reason to believe that the Chief Executive had changed his mind.

Senator Glass, Democrat, of Virginia, was at the White House today and had a long talk with Secretary Tumulty. Both declined to reveal details of their discussion.

What Actually Happened
Last Night at Trinity Auditorium

The remarkable photograph reproduced here visualizes the seeming miracle witnessed by thousands at Trinity Auditorium last night, when Leo Ornstein, the noted pianist, played in direct comparison with the Knabe Ampico Reproducing Piano.

—following one of Ornstein's most difficult compositions, the artist left the piano and seated himself on the stage, a silent spectator, while the Knabe Ampico miraculously repeated his playing.

—like some ghostly performer, an invisible Ornstein still produced his marvelous harmonies.

—the keys of the Knabe still moved as with the pressure of the genius' fingers, and the unmistakable Ornstein touch, tone and personality imbued the rendition—

—for it was Ornstein's other self that played:

The KNABE AMPICO

The same records of Ornstein's playing that were heard last night may be heard today—or any day—in our Ampico studio—and on the same PIANO—come in and enjoy this interesting experience.

MIDDLE WEST NEWS IN BRIEF.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

MINNEAPOLIS, May 4.—Attacking a second indictment against Sheriff Oscar Martinson and twelve other men alleged to have been implicated in the Winnipeg-to-Minneapolis liquor running plot attorneys declared yesterday that the charge under the United States customs law is not applicable as whisky is not a dutiable article.

Embargo on wheat to prevent European governments from buying American stocks and thus running the price beyond control or continuation of the United States Grain Corporation control for another year are proposals that will be considered at a conference of bankers, grain growers, dealers and millers at Chicago Friday, Minneapolis men said yesterday.

Summer schools will be conducted in Minneapolis this year despite shortage of school funds, Supt. B. B. Jackson announced yesterday. Tax levy creating a fund of approximately $55,000 for that purpose cannot be diverted to other purposes in 1920, he said, and discontinuance of summer school courses would not relieve the present financial difficulties.

KANSAS CITY.

KANSAS CITY, May 4.—The Chicago Real Estate Board has chartered a special train to carry its members to the national real estate convention here June 1 to 5. A committee visited Kansas City recently from Chicago and chartered the entire Dixon Hotel for the convention week.

The Commerce Trust Company yesterday bought the Farm mortgage business of Close Bros. & Co., Ltd., of London, Eng. The deal involved more than $5,000,000 and retired from business in the Southwest a firm of investment bankers which has operated in the Middle West since 1870.

With housing conditions becoming acute Kansas City is building fewer homes than usual, though big business structures show a remarkable activity. In April there were permits for structures to cost $3,974,500 while only two apartment building permits were issued.

For the fifth time a continuance was granted yesterday in the trial of Mr. and Mrs. Samis and Mrs. Tranin, charged with obtaining money under false pretenses. The continuance yesterday was because of the illness of Mrs. Grace Patrick, 312 West Armour Boulevard, one of the State's chief witnesses.

DETROIT.

DETROIT, May 4.—Rev. J. T. Hustead, dean of the Congregational ministry in Michigan, died Monday morning at his home in Grand Rapids.

Kalamazoo is in the throes of its second gasless day owing to inability of the Michigan Light Company to secure coal. Thousands of families eat cold meals and the restaurants, hotels and eating houses served nothing but sandwiches and iced drinks. The city may be without gas for the rest of the week or even longer it is said.

C. L. Glasgow of Nashville, former member of the Michigan Railroad Commission yesterday announced his candidacy for the Republican nomination for Governor.

Robberies of gasoline stations have become so frequent that it is found necessary to close them at dusk. Detroit automobile owners protested to the police yesterday, asking if some way cannot be found whereby stations can be protected from highwaymen.

DENVER.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

PHOENIX, May 4.—A remarkable feature of the late strike of the building trades unions in Phoenix was the fact that the main sufferers were closed-shop contractors.

The open-shop jobs went on as usual, and only the contractor friends of the union were compelled to stop operations. The union claimed that at one time, about 1000 artisans were idle. That the strike was called off was due to appreciation of the facts above stated, and to pressure brought by the bricklayers union, which generally has opposed agitation.

The start of the trouble came over the refusal of the plumbers union to join the central body and the first strike agitation was designed to drive the plumbers in. There is plenty of employment in Phoenix for all artisans, who are paid according to skill on the open-shop jobs. Finishing carpenters are in especial demand, and are getting $12 a day. Many of the other trades have the same wage, while the bricklayers are said to be calling for $14 a day of eight hours.

About the only evidence of labor trouble now locally visible concerns the picketing of restaurants that refuse to sign for the closed shop.

TUCSON, May 4.—The Central Trades Council has endorsed the strike of the local union cooks and waiters. In the resolutions it is called a lockout, on the basis that the restaurant owners refused to treat with the officials of the union. There also is resentment over the wording of an advertisement in which the strikers are classed with "drifters and bums." A strict boycott of the offending business houses therefore is proclaimed. A vote of thanks was given the judges and University of Arizona participants in a late debate with the University of Southern California, in which the local team successfully defended affiliation of teachers with the American Federation of Labor. A considerable number of Tucson teachers already are members of an affiliated union. There was report of a material wage increase for the plumbers.

Col. Epes Randolph, president of the Southern Pacific of Mexico, has started on a general inspection of his road, lately returned to his management after a period of revolutionary conditions. The line now is being operated as far as south as Culiacan, Sinaloa, but trains are to run to Quila, fifty kilometer further southward.

Beyond that point, the bridges are understood to have been very generally destroyed. At Quila is the junction point of a railroad to Dorado, from which there is expectation of bringing out large quantities of refined sugar. Large shipments of garbanzos and tomatoes also will be sent northward from Sinaloa points.

The city generally is to join, on May 26, in a formal celebration of the fiftieth anniversary of the coming to Tucson of a band of Sisters of Saint Joseph. The pioneer nuns came from Carnodolet, Mo., their journey being by way of San Francisco and San Diego and from the latter point by buckboard across the deserts, the last stage taking seventeen days. They were met a few miles from Tucson by a guard of citizens, mounted and bearing candles. It is proposed to re-enact this scene of entry by night, the guard to be sons of members of the original guard. The Sisters established a school, now the prospering St. Joseph's academy, and then a hospital, which is the present large St. Mary's. Also in the work they have sustained have been an orphanage and an Indian school.

A movement has been started for the creation near Tucson of a national cactus park, including what has been called one of the finest groves extant of the giant cactus, the Cereus Giganteus. Dr. Fenner and Dean Butler, especially are interested and it is proposed to push the plan through the American Association for the Advancement of Science, of which a southwestern chapter lately was organized in this city.

Of esthetic interest is a decision to designate formal colors for Tucson, for use on gala occasions. A committee of the Community Council, headed by Mrs. L. H. Manning, has reported to the Mayor in favor of the green of the desert foliage, the pale yellow of the flowering palo verde and the deep orange of the wild poppy. The green is to be that of the cactus and the creosote bush.

"Of What Value is a Woman's Opinion

—Criticism is without question the indirect cause of betterment.

—Without it the world would be content and, consequently, there would indeed be very little progress.

—Therefore effort is stimulated so that criticism might be avoided.

—Realizing this, we have made hundreds of experiments all with a view to manufacturing a perfect flour not just an ordinary every day flour to which the consumer has been accustomed.

—What the cost of this flour to the consumer would be was not considered in making the experiments.

—What we were after was something perfect and after we had that it was then up to us to manufacture it as economically as possible.

—Under no conditions was the quality to be lowered because of price. THIS WE WERE ABSOLUTELY DETERMINED ON.

—We finally reached the goal, but it necessitated that we would have to discard the ordinary run of wheat and select wheat of only certain varieties and localities which was quite limited in production.

—This meant paying higher freight rates, owing to distance, also that we would have to pay a premium for the quality.

—Although we reduced the cost of manufacture, we found it was still impossible to sell this superior flour at the same price as ordinary flour.

—But we also found that the liquid absorption of this flour was so much greater, that in spite of the slight extra cost to the consumer, the final cost was less than ordinary flour owing to the fact—more bread, more biscuits, more rolls, etc., were produced from an equal amount of flour.

—The result is satisfaction, quality and even economy to the consumer, besides the upholding of our reputation and support of our name BESGRADE and slogan "not just good but best."

—We think so much of this valuable product that we pack it in a little safe all its own, called "Saxolin," a paper-lined sack, for which we have the exclusive rights in California. "Keeps the dirt out and flour in."

CHINESE WILL CONTROL IMPORT OF NARCOTICS

[BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

SHANGHAI, April 3. (Delayed in Transmission.)—Disclosures in a report recently compiled by Lien Teh of the Anti-Opium society, have led that body to take a systematized effort to stop importation of narcotics into China. Dr. Wu says imported morphia into changhai has increased in the past five years from 28 tons annually.

By reason of increased production of opium from new poppy fields in Szechuen and Fukien, he says, the price of the drug has fallen to $1 an ounce.

...of the witnesses were required ...to produce contracts and ...information which might be ...useful to their competitors. Chairman ...Graham had announced an executive session. He announced that the committee would determine later what part of the testimony should be made public.

Representatives of a number of brokerage firms in New York City and elsewhere were examined today.

PUBLISHERS TO FORM LEAGUE.

Members of the committee said later that, while the testimony had shown cases of profiteering in paper by some brokers, in their opinions brokers' activities had not affected seriously the market prices, but that the situation was largely due to the failure of production to meet increased demands.

While the executive session was in progress a number of small publishers, at a separate hearing conducted by Senator McNary, Republican, recommended acquisition by the government of the surplus paper supply and its retailing to the newspapers of the country.

William Pape of the Waterbury (Ct.) Republican told the committee about 100 publishers are to meet in Washington, May 17, to form a league to cope with the paper situation.

OPPOSE GOVERNMENT OWNER

Permanent government ownership and operation of American merchant vessels, "except as a last resort," was opposed in a report submitted to the Senate today by the Senate Commerce Committee, which presented as a substitute for the House bill, a measure under which the vast tonnage accumulated during the war is to be disposed of by the Shipping Board.

MONEY AVAILABLE.

An additional appropriation of $300,000,000 to aid the railroads in purchasing rolling stock to relieve the present freight car shortage was urged today by farmers and millers of Minnesota, and other northwestern States, who appeared before the Senate Interstate Commerce Committee. So much grain is tied up on the farms and in elevators, that credit of owners is acutely impaired, they said.

Chairman Cummins told the delegation that the $300,000,000 appropriated recently by Congress to cover deficiencies in government operation of railroads would be available for freight car purchases.

TUCSON NOTES.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

TUCSON, May 3.—Pedro Ballesteros, wanted on a charge of cattle stealing, was visited at his home at Las Guijas by Officer E. O. Osborne and George McClure. When they called upon him to come out, he suddenly flung open the door and fired point-blank at Osborne, the pistol bullet grazing the officer's face, which was burned by the powder of the charge. As the door slammed shut, Osborne fired through the side of the hovel. Osborne and McClure then cautiously opened the door, to be confronted by Pedro's wife, who was armed with a Mauser rifle. This secured, discovery then was made that Ballesteros was on the bed, dead. The single shot from without had found a fatal spot. Justice Pease held an inquest at which it was decided that the officer had acted correctly, in the course of performance of duty.

There is keen disappointment over the census showing for this city. There had been hopes of even 30,000 and the figures wired give only 29,293. Phoenix is claiming 40,000 and there appears little doubt that this year she will attain position as metropolis of Arizona. This place has been held by Tucson ever since she emerged from the stage of a Sobaipuri village in 1776. Last census she led Phoenix by more than 200. Her growth for the ten years has been gratifying, more than 55 per cent. It would have been larger had not there been reached a limit of housing possibilities, while the mines of Southern Arizona have been relatively quiet for more than a year. It is contended that hundreds of Mexican residents were not counted in the census of Tucson, for the census takers generally spoke no Spanish and the Mexicans nothing else.

Dean Cummings of the university department of archaeology this summer will lead another class into the land of the ancient pueblo and cliff dwellers, in Northeastern Arizona. The trip is to include the Grand Canyon, Painted Desert and many points on the Navajo Reservation. Last year the class numbered about a score of individuals, including a number of instructors from eastern colleges, interested in the study of aboriginal culture in the Southwest. Many very important discoveries were made and valuable relics were secured, to be added to the collection in the university museum.

PHOENIX NOTES.

[SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE.]

PHOENIX, May 3.—E. O. Kennedy, probably the oldest mining expert of the Southwest, is dead, at the age of 83. He was a native of New York, was in Colorado in 1865, in Northeastern New Mexico in 1868, in Silver City soon thereafter and in Globe in 1875. He told often of starting through the Indian country for inspection of claims that had been located in Tonto Basin, near the site of the Roosevelt Dam, and how he passed by the site of Globe, where he found a score of newcomers excited over the showing of silver from the croppings of the present Old Dominion mine. When he returned, a few days later, he found 100 or more men in the district and there settled down as an assayer and miner. At one time he served as superintendent of the Old Dominion, but found there was more money in his assay office. He was the first to develop a satisfactory process for the reduction of the mines ores, after failure on the part of a couple of imported Freiberg matallurgists. Two sons and three daughters survive. His eldest daughter, Mrs. E. P. Kroeger, died in El Paso a few years ago.

Sixty Boy Scouts, representing a half-dozen organizations, have returned from a scout trip to Roosevelt, with a midway camp on Salt River at Mormon Flat. Their transportation and natural history instruction during the trip were provided by State Game Warden Joe Prochaska and discipline was in the hands of Scoutmaster LeRoi Snow.

Phoenix is being combed by a corps of 100 volunteer investigators, especially to find the real conditions in the community concerning tuberculosis. The searchers are under the direction of T. C. Cuvellier. Especial attention will be paid to the restaurants and lodging-houses and the tubercular hospital camps in the outskirts, bake shops, soda fountains, pool rooms and other gathering places, and then there will be expansion into the dairies and all outside places from which comes any part of the city's food supply. There will be consideration of the ranch bunk houses and general housing on the farms. Relatively few consumptive cases are known in Phoenix, of the sort that is manifest, most of the sufferers going out to sanatoriums that have been provided for them or to camps of their own. Statistics collected show nearly 1000 deaths a year from tuberculosis in Arizona, most of the cases coming from outside the State.

WILL PROTEST TAX ON SECURITY TRANSFERS.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

NEW YORK, May 4.—In response to the call of the New York Stock Exchange for a meeting here next Friday to protest against the proposed tax on security tranfers, acceptances have been received from various out of town institutions. These include the Boston, Pittsburg, Cincinnati, St. Louis and Hartford stock exchanges and the Buffalo Chamber of Commerce.

The Chicago Board of Trade, Chicago Stock Exchange, Detroit Stock Exchange and many similiar institutions also are expected to be represented by the officials. The Chicago Board of Trade, it is said, is taking independent action against the "bonus tax" with other grain markets.

EXIT CARRANZA; VIVA DOMINGUEZ

Capital Rumor Says Mexican Chief to be Ousted.

Factions in Republic Declared United in Action.

President of Nation Said to be Planning Trip.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

WASHINGTON, May 4.—President Carranza is to be ousted on May 15 and Alfredo Robles Dominguez will be chosen Presidentpro tempore of Mexico under an agreement just reached by the various factions, according to private advices received in Washington today from authentic sources across the border.

No formal ultimatum has been served on Carranza, it is understood, but all the various factional leaders have decided to unite and bring sufficient pressure to bear upon Carranza to force his abdication on May 15.

These factions, if harmony prevails, will have abundant strength to depose Carranza, it is believed here. Carranza, it is said, has already seen the handwriting on the wall and has prepared an avenue for hasty exit when the crash comes.

The prospective overthrow of Carranza will not be attended by the violence and bloodshed customary in Mexican changes of administration, it is said, for the reason that Carranza's supporters are deserting him so rapidly that he will not be able to make much resistance when the insurgent lines begin to tighten around him.

Alfredo Robles Dominguez, who, according to the report, is to act as President until one can be duly elected, is a civil engineer, and has never been prominently identified with any particular faction.

BOLDLY ATTACKED CARRANZA

Recently he has boldly attacked the Carranza government in articles in Mexican newspapers, warning the Mexican people to expect American intervention if the Carranza government were permitted to remain in power. Dominguez, it is understood, is a sort of "dark horse" selected largely to fill the gap until Carranza's successor can be formally chosen.

The Foreign Relations Committee, keeping a close eye on the Mexican situation, failed at today's meeting again to take action on the nomination of Henry Morgenthau to be Ambassador to Mexico. In view of reports received it was stated that even if the Senate confirmed Mr. Morgenthau's appointment tomorrow, he could hardly get to Mexico in time to meet Carranza coming out.

Members of the committee believe it would be better to withhold action on the nomination a few days longer until the new Mexican government can be sounded out as to its attitude toward Mr. Morgenthau.

Secretary Daniels's continued delay in complying with the request of the State Department for the dispatch of destroyers to the Mexican east coast to allay apprehension of Americans in threatened Mexican towns, excited considerable comment here today.

Although the State Department was pursuing its course convinced that the ships were going forward, Secretary Daniels declared that the ships had not been sent and that no orders for them to proceed to Mexico had been given. The Secretary did not say they would not be sent, nor explain what was the cause for the delay.

AWAITING BETTER SHIPS.

In some quarters it was held that the Secretary was delaying execution of the order in the hope that the ships would not be needed. In other quarters, however, the belief was expressed that the Secretary cannot find four or five destroyers required for the expedition that are properly manned for the trip and is waiting to get the vessels properly manned.

Most of the available destroyers in the Atlantic Fleet are now in New York, for two weeks with men on shore leave and it may be necessary for the department to rescind the shore leave order and send destroyers from New York instead of southern ports.

Interest was manifested also today in the fall of Juarez to the revolutionists. While the capture of this large and important border city in Chihuahua was anticipated after the recent capitulation of the Federal garrison at Chihuahua city, still it was looked on as a distinctive gain for the revolutionists.

Its seizure by the latter would be of advantage both from a military and a moral point of view and it was pointed out in some quarters that it will open the way for an advance against Torreon, an important strategic point in an attempted advance toward Mexico City.

VIA CRUCIS CEREMONY IN ROMAN COLISEUM.

[BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

ROME, April 17 (Delayed in Transmission.)—After an interval of fifty years the Coliseum again has been the scene of the moving and picturesque ceremony of the Via Crucis.

Pope Benedict XIV, who reigned as Pope from 1740 to 1758, instituted the ceremony by placing a cross in the center of the arena, where martyrs had given their lives for the faith, and erecting fourteen stations of the cross about the historic pile. Each Friday the ancient amphitheater witnessed the solemn rite.

The practice was abandoned in 1870. The celebrants have once more visited the Coliseum, however, and arrayed in their strange gray garments, which included a cowl which covered the head and face, have revived the ceremony of old time.

Crowds gathered along the streets traversed by the procession.

POISON OAK OR IVY NO LONGER TO BE DREADED

ANYONE who has ever experienced poison oak or ivy poisoning will be grateful to know that this extremely painful and irritating annoyance need not be feared, or longer remain troublesome. The pain, itching, fever and irritation disappear almost like magic with a few applications of Santiseptic Lotion, and the eruptions and redness of the skin soon follow. Timely use of Santiseptic will often prevent the poisoning in many cases.

"Santiseptic Lotion is the greatest remedy on earth for poison oak," says Carl Larson of Canyonville, Ore. "I have used it in all forms—on my face, arms and body. Nothing gave me relief until I tried Santiseptic. I would not now be without Santiseptic in my home." Mr. Larson's experience is but typical of thousands of others who have had the misfortune to become infected with poison ivy.

Santiseptic also heals other skin irritations, such as sunburn, windburn, chafing, fever and cold sores, flea and other insect bites. It is a remarkable soothing and healing lotion. Men use it after shaving and women for the complexion and baby's skin.

Santiseptic is easily procured at most drug stores. If your druggist cannot supply it, send 50 cents, with his name, to the Esbencott Laboratories, Portland, Ore., for a full-sized bottle, postpaid.—[Advertisement.

Dishonest Messengers Stole Bonds and Securities.

"Higher Ups" Disposed of Loot; $1,500,000 Gained.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

NEW YORK, May 4.—In the most remarkable confession thus far obtained in the secret hearings in the Arnstein-Sullivan & Co. bankruptcy proceedings, Joseph Gluck, admitted leader of a band of dishonest messengers in the financial district that stole more than $1,500,000 worth of securities, told of the organization of his band, the manner in which he delivered $620,000 worth of the stolen securities to "Nicky" Arnstein and "Nick" Cohen, fugitives from justice.

He declared that out of the $600,000 worth of securities he turned over to the master crooks, who later disposed of them through loans in banks and brokerage houses made to the brokerage house of David W. Sullivan & Co. of this city and Washington, he received but $20,000 in cash and admitted that out of that amount he had to give $9000 to the "boys" who actually stole the securities for him.

He declared he organized his band of dishonest messengers before he met Arnstein and Cohen a year ago this month.

Cohen, he declared, took him down to the Post Graduate Hospital where Cohen left him standing in the waiting-room while he called on a patient in a private room with whom Cohen left all the securities. Cohen told Gluck the name of the patient, but the witness could not recall it, except that it ended with "stein." Cohen had explained to him, he said, that the patient was a broker, who had just undergone an operation and that the broker would dispose of the securities from his bed in the hospital.

On Oct. 13 Gluck testified, he met Cohen and Arnstein, when Arnstein made an arrangement to have Gluck accompany Cohen and himself to Baltimore for the purpose of disposing of another batch of securities that Gluck had received the day before from dishonest messengers who then were being directed in their thefts by Irving Gluck, a younger brother of the witness. They left for Baltimore that night with a grip full of the stolen securities, and it was brought out in the testimony that instead of going to Baltimore they took a train for Washington.

Just as the train was about to leave the Pennsylvania station, Gluck said, he saw David W. Sullivan in conversation with Cohen and Arnstein.

Gluck then related trips to Baltimore, Boston, Philadelphia and Hoboken, where he turned over to Cohen and Arnstein batches of securities which had been stolen from brokerage houses within forty-eight hours of the delivery to him by his brother Irving or by Herbert and Rudolph Bunora.

When Fire Breaks Out —

There is no safe substitute for a Fireman!

THE F. D. S. detector. It positively registers abnormal temperature rises by a flow of thermal electricity.

CONTROLLING a serious fire, or a small blaze, demands organized effort, technical skill of the highest order, and oftentimes courage to act in the face of grave danger.

The units of a modern Fire Department are schooled in the difficult technic of fire-fighting, disciplined to work effectively under the direst emergency and peril, and are equipped with the most efficient apparatus that experience, ingenuity and science can suggest or devise. Regardless of other protection, the early presence of a fire company limits fire losses and reduces accessory damages due to heat, smoke and water.

Fire Detection Service Utilizes Organized Fire-Fighting Skill

Fire Detection Service, Inc., provides supervision of any premises by trained central station observers, kept in direct touch continuously night and day with every fire bay in the protected buildings. This accurate supervision is obtained through wire connections between central station and installations of F. D. S. electrical equipment on the subscriber's premises.

The outbreak of the smallest fire is immediately registered at the central station indicating exact location which is then relayed to the municipal fire department exactly as if a street fire box, located in your building, had been pulled.

A fire company is brought upon the scene within the first few minutes after the generation of the blaze—at a time when organized fire-fighting skill can hold fire losses to negligible amounts and minimize smoke and water damage.

F. D. S. Fire Intelligence Circuits under Constant Electrical Control

The F. D. S. Circuits, which constitute direct communication between all areas of a protected building or establishment and the central office, are as simple and positive in action as an electric dynamo, do not depreciate from age or repeated transmission of alarms and are under continuous electrical supervision by the central station.

They are precision instruments providing under the direction of skilled central station operatives, reliable, infallible fire intelligence—in time to avoid serious losses!

They supplement human vigilance with the untiring watchfulness of an automatic mechanism — and in turn their integrity and infallibility are safeguarded by supervising human intelligence.

A. D. T. Maintenance and Central Station Service

Central station equipment and operatives and maintenance for Fire Detection Service are furnished by the Los Angeles District Telegraph Company—local office of the national A. D. T. System.

The unexampled experience of the A. D. T. organization in the operation and maintenance of burglar protection systems, and night watch service supplements and completes the efficiency of the mechanical and electrical equipment of F. D. S.

Disciplined human intelligence, positive, automatic electrical fire indication, organizational strength and financial ability are here combined with civic fire-fighting resources to prevent serious conflagrations by immediate attention to every small blaze.

FEATURES OF FIRE DETECTION SERVICE

EVERY part of each F. D. S. circuit is under constant electrical test and cannot become inoperative without turning in a trouble alarm at the central station.

A. D. T. central station service insures 24-hour supervision by a trained personnel—and immediate response to every fire or trouble alarm.

F. D. S. Alarm indicators, placed in accessible position in the entrances of a protected building, show at a glance the location of a fire.

Reason Why Money is Tig[illegible] Too Much Borrowing.

Mania for Extravagance h[illegible] Back-Fire Effect.

New Situation is Presented [illegible] United States Citizens.

BY FREDERIC J. HASKIN.

WASHINGTON, May 3.—Almo[illegible] every owner of real property in t[illegible] United States has a mortgage on h[illegible] house or on his farm that amoun[illegible] to about half and sometimes tw[illegible] thirds of its value. But to the multitudes who hav[illegible] accustomed themselves to carryin[illegible] this load of debt there is likely soo[illegible] to come an unexpected shock. The[illegible] mortgages will be coming due fro[illegible] time to time. Most of these mort[illegible] gages were made for terms of thre[illegible] or five years. In the days before th[illegible] war they were renewed almost auto[illegible] matically when their time had run[illegible] There was little to do other tha[illegible] take mother around to the notary t[illegible] sign the papers. The mortgage, lik[illegible] the brook, ran on forever.

But when the mortgage falls du[illegible] next time a new situation will b[illegible] presented. The holder of it ma[illegible] merely say that the interest rat[illegible] must be increased from 6 to 8 pe[illegible] cent. Where the mortgage wa[illegible] formerly assigned $300 in the fam[illegible] ily budget it must be assigned $480. The home owner, when thus in[illegible] formed, will probably run around excitedly for a few days, looking for 6 per cent. money. There are thou[illegible] sands of them in the United States registering excitement from thi[illegible] cause today. Some of them may find money at the old rate, but no[illegible] many. Most of them will absorb a bit of financial atmosphere in their quest and return hastily to sign up at the advanced rate.

Or, perhaps the man in busines[illegible] has a loan at his bank, secured by his note. It may be for a thousand dollars or for ten thousand. He is using this money in his business, or is speculating with it, or has borrowed it to waste in extravagances.

He is very much surprised, one morning, when he gets a notice from the bank asking him to come in and liquidate this loan. He wonders what has happened that his credit is no longer good at the bank. He frantically and introspectively looks himself over for sins of omission and commission. He timidly goes down to the bank and asks why he has to pay up. The bank, six months ago, solicited his business. Why the change of front?

He is told that the money market is tight. Call money has been up to sixteen. Four-and-a-quarters are below ninety. The country is suffering from inflation.

He does not know what all this talk means, but is humiliated by his very ignorance, goes out and digs up the money, if he can, and pays the note.

But the fact is that the owners of this money have found that they can make it earn more than it has been earning. They can put it out at a higher rate of interest than money has been drawing during the past few decades. They have been hiring out this chattel which they possess for $5 where they might be getting $6.

DEMAND FOR MONEY GROWS.

Their climbing interest rates are due to the fact that the demand for money is greater than the supply. More people are wanting to borrow money than have money to loan. The borrowers are bidding against each other and running the price up.

The Treasury Department is much agitated over this situation. It explains it by saying that the world formed the habit, during the war, of living beyond its income. The gospel of pouring out without stint, destroying, lending, spending, was preached unceasingly for years. Lavish borrowing became a national necessity, a national virtue. The whole world came to spend much faster than it produced.

In the lives of families there are sometimes crises. Typhoid fever may run through a poor family and require unusual expenditures for doctor bills, medicines, nurses. The family will spend at a rate that is entirely beyond its income. One often wonders that the finances of such a family may go so far.

But the crisis is usually brief and when it is over the family goes back on its modest basis of living. It may deny itself to retrieve its losses.

The countries of Europe that were in the war financed themselves beyond the point where it would have seemed possible. They borrowed from their citizens, from America, from all the world. The United States spent prodigious sums, borrowed from its people, preached the gospel of pouring out its wealth.

Thus it performed the financial miracle, but it created a madness for spending, for borrowing. The nation did not retrench when the orgy was over as did the family with typhoid. They had grown accustomed to waste, to pouring out, to borrowing. The people of the nations, and particularly of the United States, are still indulging in a profligacy never before known.

LOANS BASED ON WEALTH.

The treasury points out the basic fact that loans must be made on existing wealth. So long as the wealth is greater than the loans, the security is adequate, is made on a sound basis. When there is not wealth behind the value of the loans issued against it, those loans depreciate.

If a man has a coal mine worth $1,000,000, he may borrow amounts less than a million at the current rate of interest and the paper he issues will remain at par. If he issues $1,000,000 worth of stock against his mine, his stock will go down to fifty. No matter how much stock he issues he cannot make it worth more than the wealth back of it.

So it is when the borrowings of a country are greater than its wealth available to pay them, its currency depreciates. France, Germany and Italy have borrowed beyond the amount warranted by their productive wealth. If they issued twice as much currency it would so depreciate as to have the same value as the present amount. The production of wealth is the sure way to re-establish the value and the mark.

The United States, the treasury says, has issued as many securities for the production of wealth warrants. It should issue an additional $5,000,000,000 in bonds and give to service men as a bonus, the

LOANS BASED ON WEALTH.
The Treasury points out the basic fact that loans must be made on existing wealth. So long as the wealth is greater than the loans, the security is adequate, is made on a sound basis. When there is not wealth beyond the value of the loans issued against it, those loans depreciate.
Suppose a coal mine worth
$1,000,000, he may borrow amounts to that value on it. If he issues $1,000,000 worth of stock against his property his stock will go down to fifty.
No matter how much stock he issues it is not worth more than $1,000,000. So it is with the borrowings of a nation. They are greater than its wealth to pay them, its currency issued. France, Germany and England have borrowed beyond the ability to pay by their productive power. Germany issued twice as much currency as the present value as the present value would as depreciate as to the production of wealth is the way to re-establish the value of the mark.
The United States, the treasury points out, has issued as many securities in the form of wealth warrants.
It proposes now an additional issue in bonds and give them as a bonus, the result would be a depreciation in the value of the bonds already out to just that amount. The principle is the same as in the case of the man who issued too much stock in his coal mine.
The spell of typhoid fever is over in the national family and it is time to retrench. The nation is magnificently prosperous, but at the same time magnificently profligate. Of its great wealth all the world is borrowing. Every activity that was held in leash during the war is working a double shift to catch up. It all costs money and they go in the market and bid for it. Every individual continues to live as expensively as in the days of war-time extravagance.
People borrow money for automobiles, pleasures, luxuries. All issue paper against existing national wealth. It is more than the wealth warrants.
From all sides comes the demand for money. The demand is greater than the supply and the old law works. The Pennsylvania Railroad has a new issue of stocks that pay 7 per cent interest. Before the war it borrowed at 4½. The Bell Telephone is putting out an equally interesting offering. The bonds of China or Great Britain can be so bought as to yield above 7 per cent.
Call money in New York has been up to 15 and 20 per cent. All of these demands are competing for the money that finds its resting place in American banks.
When the man who holds the mortgage on your house has these alluring opportunities to invest it at 7 or 8 per cent. why should he leave it with you at 6? When the bank that made you a loan on your Liberties can get a higher rate, why should it not call in its pittance to you?
The Treasury Department believes that the road to relief in this situation lies past the homes of the people of these United States. The demand for money is too great. The people should cease to borrow. If the call for luxury money from the people were shut off, the supply would be adequate to take care of all other calls. If the people cannot be aroused to this fact, it is held, it is the province of the bank to say to its customers: "What is the purpose for which you want money? If it is for that which is not a necessity you shall not have it no matter how high you bid."
So, says the treasury, might demands for money be kept proportionate to the supply.

NEW MANAGER FOR VALLEY PROPERTY.

C. T. WARDLAW RETIRES FROM FOREMANSHIP OF BIG CATTLE RANCH.

CALEXICO, May 4.—Management of the immense properties of the California-Mexico Land and Cattle Company will pass from the hands of C. T. Wardlaw to H. H. Clark some time during the next month, according to information made public yesterday by Mr. Wardlaw.

Owing to the depressing effect of the low altitude upon his health and the debilitating effect of his strenuous duties, Mr. Wardlaw tendered his resignation as manager of the ranch about a year ago, but it was only a few days ago that he received definite information regarding the date when he would be relieved of the responsibility of the 500,000-acre property. He has held the position for the last five years and has become one of the most favorably known business men of the community.

No definite plans have been made yet, he says, regarding his future course, but he will leave the valley for some higher altitude very soon after his successor takes charge. While the new manager is not so widely known in Calexico, H. H. Clark has made a wide circle of friends from the north end of the valley, where he formerly resided. He has been interested there for the last six years, most of the time being manager of the Imperial Valley Lands Association, original owners and pioneers of the 47,000 acres of land the center of which is now Calipatria.

McADOO IS FAVORITE IN POLL IN MISSOURI.

QUESTIONNAIRE SENT OUT BY DEMOCRATS GIVES HIM A SUBSTANTIAL LEAD.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

KANSAS CITY, May 4.—William Gibbs McAdoo appears to be the favorite for the Democratic Presidential nomination among Missouri Democratic leaders.

An expression of the McAdoo sentiment was gained through some 2000 questionnaires sent out by the State committee to prominent Democrats and county and township chairmen. Gov. Cox of Ohio, however, ran a close second.

A meeting of the State Committee and the Women's State Committee, probably will be called by Ben M. Neale, chairman, about the middle of this month, possibly May 13, at Jefferson City and at that meeting pre-convention arrangements are to be discussed.

The Missouri delegation is instructed to stand as a unit behind David R. Francis, former Governor and Ambassador to Russia, for the Democratic Vice-Presidential nomination, and arrangements for sending a number of Francis boosters to San Francisco are being discussed.

LANDMARK DESTROYED.

Famous Ranch House Near Lindsay Burned to Ground.

LINDSAY, May 4.—In the recent burning of the big farmhouse on the Shoemaker ranch, a half mile east of Lindsay on the Tulare road, one of the landmarks of the Lindsay district was destroyed.

The building was occupied by S. E. Viau, foreman for the Shoemaker Orchard Company. The blaze started on the second story of the house, and it is believed to have been started by defective wiring. The water supply ran out and nothing could be done to save the building, although most of the furniture, including a piano, was removed from the first floor.

The house was built in 1895 by William Postlewaite when the entire surrounding district was a grain field.

FURNITURE DEALERS MEET.

TULARE, May 4.—Members of the Retail Furniture Men's Association of Kings and Tulare counties convened in this city May 3rd.

Numerous delegates of the association attended from Coalinga, Lemoore, Hanford, Visalia, Exeter and Porterville.

FREIGHT RATES DUE TO AVIATE

Rilway Executives Declare Increases Necessary.

Would Leave Passenger Tariffs at Present Levels.

Advance of 23.9 Per Cent Proposed for the West.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

WASHINGTON, May 4.—The nation's railroads will need an additional $1,017,000,000 to bring their income to the 6 per cent basis provided in the transportation act.

Through the Association of Railway Executives, the roads proposed to the Interstate Commerce Commission today that this sum be realized through increased freight charges, leaving passenger rates at the present level.

Advances proposed were:

Eastern roads—30.4 per cent to yield an advance in all revenues of 21.1 per cent.

Southern roads—30.9 per cent to provide 20.7 per cent larger revenue.

Western roads—23.9 per cent to advance all revenues 17 per cent.

Presentation of the figures marked the formal opening of the railroad-rate case. Detailed statements submitted to the commission today covered only the eastern lines.

WILLARD OUTLINES NEEDS.

An estimated valuation of $20,610,000,000 was placed on the transportation systems of the country by Daniel Willard, president of the Baltimore and Ohio Railway. While there has been an increase in operating expenses of 99.1 per cent since 1916, the roads' basis of revenues for the same period has been increased only 36.37 per cent, the executive statement declared, and the operating expenses of the lines now are 99 per cent. of the revenues, against 69 per cent in 1916.

This year and next, the eastern lines alone face the renewal of nearly $250,000,000 in maturing obligations, Mr. Willard said, discussing the problem of financing the roads. Some of these loans and bonds have been bearing an interest rate as low as 3½ per cent and Mr. Willard declared that in taking care of this amount of obligations at the current rate of interest necessitated the most careful study of the revenue production question, in order that the roads' credit be kept unimpaired.

"Further, the European markets heretofore available for American railroad issues are now closed to us," he said, "and, in fact, are absorbing our surplus funds and this applies not only to Europe, but to points especially the whole world, including Japan and the east."

There is nothing in the existing situation, Mr. Willard believed, to justify the expectation that either wages or material prices soon would be decreased; on the other hand, he said, the public expected a constantly higher standard of service.

CONVENTION WHISKY IS TO COME HIGH.

BELL BOYS PLOT TO SELL REPUBLICAN DELEGATES BOOZE AT $41 PER PINT.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

CHICAGO, May 4.—Capt. Hubert Howard of the Federal prohibition enforcement office here has unearthed an ambitious plan by the bell hops at the various loop hotels to make a big "cleaning" during the Republican National Convention.

According to the information in the hands of the Federal sleuths, the bell boys will supply delegates and visitors with all the hard liquor they require at the price of $41 a pint, plus whatever "tip" the thirsty one may feel inclined to pay.

This price may seem outrageous, and is little short of murder, but it is amazing how many people will pay it and be glad of the opportunity. With the American dollar worth about 32 cents they figure they might as well spend it for whisky of villainous origin as to let the merchants have it. At the rate of $125 for a $30 suit of clothes or $18 for a pair of shoes that would give a fair profit if sold for $5.

Whisky smugglers, according to the information in the hands of the prohibition officers, have arranged to supply all the bell boys with all the booze they can sell. Taxicab drivers are also said to be in on the deal. The smuggler will get from $10 to $15 a pint and the cab drivers or bell hops can pocket all they get above that figure. Many stores in the vicinity of the Coliseum have recently been rented at very high figures for "soft drink parlors" and this has also excited the suspicions of the Federal detectives.

ATTENTION! COOKS

Do you know how to prepare "little pigs in blankets"?
Can you make a "shrimp wiggle"?
Or get a tamale like? Or lima bean loaf?
Or stuffed beets? Or turnips au gratin? Or roquefort dressing? Or Royal Anne salad? Or even a simple thing like apricot snow or Brown Betty?

CITIZENS MAY DISARM WORLD.

Council may Name Military Men as Advisers.

Proposals to Abolish War Before Meet at Rome.

Conference is to be Held, Beginning May 14.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

WASHINGTON, May 4.—Necessity of deciding whether disarmament proceedings of the League of Nations are to be conducted by military men directly or by civilians with military officials as technical advisers will face the Council of the League when it assembles this month at Rome.

Appointment of the permanent armament commission to advise the council, which is to be taken up at Rome, must be preceded, in the view of League officials, by announcement of policy on this point. Under Article IX of the League of Nations covenant the permanent armament commission is to be charged with advising the council on armament matters.

As projected, the duties of the commission would be divided specifically into a number of phases to deal with each point mentioned in the covenant.

It is hoped by those arranging the program, it is understood, that definite plans can be prepared for submission at the first meeting of the Assembly of the League in regard to permissible armaments of nations seeking membership and also regarding exchange of military information by members.

COUNCIL TO DECIDE.

As the covenant does not specify the composition of the permanent armament commission, the Council is expected to determine whether it shall consist of military men or civilians, with adequate staffs of military and naval advisers. If the task is placed directly in the hands of the military through appointment to the commission, it has been suggested that each member nation name an army officer, a naval officer and an air service officer to constitute its commission representation. Should the theory of civilian control be approved, however, a single civilian commissioner from each power with a technical adviser from each branch of the service—naval, military or air—probably would be named.

One additional arrangement contemplated is that when the armament of any particular member nation should be under review by the commission, additional representatives from that nation would be invited to join the permanent delegation.

ABOLISH WAR.

The Council will also have before it at Rome the proposals of the league to abolish war which played a part in the last British elections. The program includes proposed amendments of the covenant of the League in order to secure immediate establishment of an international police force under authority of the League and by expansion of Article VIII or otherwise of creation of an international force to require disarmament of all nations except for the purpose of maintaining internal order.

Another suggestion which the league to abolish war made was that private manufacture of war munitions be prohibited and that the League of Nations undertake to procure and supply all munitions in the future from international sources controlled by the League.

LONDON, May 4.—The next conference of the League of Nations is planned to be held in Rome, May 14. Reports concerning the health of nations will be considered.

ADMIRAL BENSON IN SIMS-DANIELS QUERY.

DECLARES NAVAL ACTIVITY BEFORE WAR DECLARATION NOT JUSTIFIABLE.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

WASHINGTON, May 4.—In view of the general sentiment over the country, the Navy would not have been justified in actively preparing for war with Germany in advance of a declaration by Congress, Admiral W. S. Benson, war-time chief of naval operations, testified today before the Senate committee investigating the Sims-Daniels row.

The admiral said that even before the beginning of the World War he personally had believed that war between the United States and Germany was inevitable.

Replying to Chairman Hale, the witness said the Navy prepared plans before the declaration of war. "They were not complete," he testified, "and are not complete in some respects today."

TO INCREASE SERVICE OF TEXAS RAILROADS.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

HOUSTON, May 4.—According to W. R. Scott, president of the Southern Pacific company's lines in Texas and Louisiana, steps have been taken to greatly increase the efficiency of the service of these roads.

"No definite statement of what improvements are to be undertaken can be made at the present time, for the reason that our plans are not completed," said Mr. Scott. "I can say this, that additional equipment is being ordered or built, that we are putting our roadbeds in good shape as fast as possible, and are planning better service, all in the interest of the public.

"At the present time we are building complete in the Houston shops, eight Mikado type locomotives for use on the western end of the line, probably between Glidden and El Paso. Just now we are also finishing an order of 500 automobile cars. These cars are built of steel, with wooden superstructure. We will continue to build a considerable amount of new equipment as well as repair old equipment, in our Houston shops."

BANKER VICTIM OF DEATH TRAP.

Believe Aged Man Killed by Mistaken Plotter.

Police See Crime as Sequel to Burglar's Slaying.

Rope Used in Garroting is Thought Important Clue.

Victim, the police believe, of a ... plot for revenge that mis... ried with a gory sequel, the body ... H. J. Robbins, 68 years of age, ... retired banker of 320 South Ho... Boulevard, was found at 3 ... yesterday beneath two bales of ... saw in a lot at Fifth avenue and ... Boulevard. The head was ... badly crushed and a rope bound ... about the neck. It is believed that ... crime was committed about ... hours before the finding of ... body.

Blood stains, a few foot prints in ... soft dirt, a six-foot rope, and a ... description of the murderer ... given by a maid in a near-by house ... all the clews to the crime found ...

Police Detectives O'Brien, ... Williams and Ballesterro, ... are investigating the mystery. ... is a late hour yesterday the four ... men were unable to establish a ... definite motive for the murder, other ... than that the banker was the victim ... of a death plot that miscarried in ... that the body was not robbed. ... both the banker had $50 on his ... person and a valuable gold watch.

MARKED FOR DEATH.

A careful investigation of the ... crime, according to the police, points ... to some one attempting to avenge ... the killing of an unidentified bur... glar at 321 South Hobart Boulevard ... on the night of April 29. The bur... glar was slain by Special Officer J. ... Shaberry of the Windsor Patrol ... district while in the act of burglari... zing the Hobart-Boulevard resi...

The police theory is that ... the watchman and not Rob... inson was marked for death ... Saturday night, and that the banker ... was cut for a stroll, walked in... to a trap laid for another.

However, a good clew is supplied ... by the rope found about the dead ... banker's neck. The rope, according ... to Detective O'Brien, is a left laid, ... hard, Manila rope, a rope that ... is used in the West and can ... be obtained here only packing ... boxes shipped from the East or from ... Mexico. The rope brought to Califor... nia individuals. The rope is ... about six feet long, but was cut in ... two places, to remove it from the ... body. Efforts will be made today ... to trace stores and other places of ...

Bishop Nuelsen was in Switzerland throughout the war and during the period which has followed has had charge of distribution of relief supplies sent by the Methodists. He stated that catastrophe threatens Europe unless speedy and effective efforts are made to relieve the millions of children who are in a subnormal condition physically, owing to insufficient nourishment.

Bishop Nuelsen declared that during the past year the Methodist Episcopal Church has sent Europe more than $400,000 in supplies, including food, clothing and medical supplies.

Bishop Johnson said the political situation which exists in the Belgian Congo mission between the Methodist Church and the Methodist Church South, may be a precursor of coming union in America, the "south" having been dropped and the missionaries of both denominations working together.

WATSON SPIRITED AWAY TO ESCAPE LYNCHING.

Reports of Gathering Mob Cause Officers to Rush Him from El Centro; Collapses at Sight of Body.

BY A. M. ROCHLEN,
Staff Representative of "The Times."
(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.)

EL CENTRO, May 4.—Reports that a mob was gathering at the station to lynch "Bluebeard" Watson tonight caused the Los Angeles officers who have him in custody to spirit away the wholesale wife-murderer and secrete him in a city between El Centro and Los Angeles. The name of this place is carefully guarded. Watson's guards are Deputy Sheriffs Manning, Couts, Bell and the El Centro Sheriff's men. Sheriff Cline, Dist-Atty. Woolwine, Dr. A. C. Saunders and the newspaper men went to the station in order that their appearance there might throw from the scent any persons who might be seeking Watson with a view to taking justice into their own hands.

The presence of the officers led the crowd to believe that Watson was put on board the train at El Centro. Excited men rushed forward with cries of "Lynch him! Kill him!" A flashlight by a photographer brought them to the car which had been occupied by Watson and for a time the situation looked serious. At Imperial Watson, guarded by the Los Angeles officers and Undersheriff Barker and Deputy Sheriff Blake of Imperial county, was put on the train. He was badly shaken and nervous.

The iron nerve that helped Watson to lead the authorities to the grave of his victim today failed him later when he looked upon the battered features of Nina Lee Deloney just before the inquest over her body was held here late this afternoon.

The man who calmly pointed the way to the burial place of the woman he killed and then carried across four counties to its desert sepulcher broke down when he was taken to the undertaking parlors of Shafer & Lemons here. He sagged in his tracks at the doorway of the room where Nina Lee Deloney's earthly remains lay in a metal casket ready for the post-mortem.

Watson was brought from the County Jail, where he was under guard, and was led through the back door to escape the crowd that gathered in front to see him. Deputy Sheriff Lee Couts of Los Angeles county and Deputy Sheriff Sam T. Griffin of Imperial county led him into the room, half supporting, half carrying him as they went. At the threshold of the mortuary the murderer faltered for a moment. The strong fumes of the embalming fluid struck him in the face as he hesitated. A crowd of officials in the background stood motionless waiting for the man to make the first move. Slowly the iron top of the gray casket was removed, and the sheet covering the partly decomposed corpse drawn away from the head.

IDENTIFIES BODY.

"Mr. Watson, is this the remains of Nina Lee Deloney, whom you say you killed in Los Angeles county and then brought to Imperial county to bury?" Dist.-Atty. Woolwine asked Watson in the hush that fell upon the assemblage. Watson all but collapsed. He sagged on his feet. His mouth twitched desperately for the first time since his arrival here. His hand shook visibly, his fingers touched the nose and then he half removed his glasses. He shut his eyes, rubbed them with his hand and then said in a voice hardly audible, "Yes, this is Nina Lee Deloney, whom I murdered in Los Angeles county."

"Now, Mr. Watson, can you recognize by the fact of the nose being crushed in and by other marks on the face that this is the woman, Nina Lee Deloney?" Mr. Woolwine asked.

"This is Nina Lee Deloney," was the answer. Then the man collapsed absolutely and hanging like a limp rag to the strong arms of the two deputies he was half-carried from the room to the automobile outside. He was taken back to the County Jail, where Dr. A. C. Saunders, the physician who made the trip with him, gave him the third hypodermic of the day. The face Watson looked upon was beyond recognition, sand and human tissue mingled into one mass, a crushed nose and hair still matted with sand and blood added grewsomeness to the sight. The face looked different from the face he saw the last time he looked upon it, as he was dragging it up the steep mountain, and that face will live in Watson's memory forever. Just before Watson viewed the body, the Coroner's jury was taken into the room to view it. One of the jurors turned white and had to be assisted out of the room.

Dist.-Atty. Woolwine, Sheriff Cline, Undersheriff Manning and Deputies Couts and Bell represented Los Angeles county at the inquest. Dr. F. W. Peterson, the Coroner, Sheriff Charles M. Appiestill and Undersheriff Harry Barker, Chief of Police Matlock, Dist.-Atty E. R. Simon and Dep. Dist.-Atty. Charley Scott and Don Bitler represented Imperial county. Watson's collapse caused a delay in the proceedings and he was taken away in the automobile to be brought back after the post-mortem which was performed by Dr. Peterson, Dr. A. E. Elliott and Dr. Saunders.

THE VERDICT.

The autopsy report stated that Nina Lee Deloney came to her death from blows on the head administered with a blunt instrument, a hammer or a hatchet, and that the woman had been dead three or four months. The cause of death the report said was a depressed fracture in the right templar region.

The coroner's jury, after hearing the testimony of Deputy Sheriff Couts, who told of finding the body and searching for it in the past four days, the three doctors and Watson returned the verdict of "death caused by a blow on the head by James Watson." Watson sat all hunched up, his face deadly pale and not unlike the parts of the corpse in the next room. His hands were active, but not nervous during his testimony. Two flies that buzzed around him and occasionally lighted on his face did not seem to bother him in the least. Deputy Sheriffs Couts and Bell, Under Sheriff Manning and two Imperial county officers who stood behind him, towered above him. The Brains! The quality of a piano is measured not alone by the excellence of its material, but by the SKILL AND SPIRIT of the workmen in the factory.

Packard Pianos are made by workmen who use their HEADS—not simply their hands. They work with a spirit of personal interest and love. They put more than their TIME into their work—they put their whole SELVES.

This has been made possible by the famous Packard Business Policy—which makes each workman a partner in the profit his labor creates.

The Packard factory is operated like a little government—each man has a voice in the conduct of the business. That is the reason why the QUALITY of Packard Pianos is so excellent—why the VALUE is so exceptional.

Hear the magnificent tone of the Packard Piano.

Few instruments combine such exquisite mellow tones with such rich, inspiring volume.

business where this kind of rope is received on packing cases.

Little could be learned by the police yesterday from members of the dead man's family that would throw any light on the killing. All that Howard Robbins, 32 years of age, of 6220 Franklin avenue, eldest son of the dead man, could tell was that his father had no enemies, and almost always took a short walk just before going to bed. He was not at his father's home when the aged man left Monday evening for his stroll.

Mrs. Robbins, the widow, Harold Robbins, another son, 25 years of age, and Maud Robbins, 25 years of age, a daughter, told the police that Mr. Robbins left his home at about 7 p.m. Monday evening, stating he was going for a short walk and would be home early. When he did not return by 10 p.m. the wife became worried and Harold started out in an automobile to search for his father. He notified members of the Windsor patrol of the absence of his father and also told several police officers in the neighborhood. They all joined in the search, but were unable to find any trace of the missing man. The matter was then reported to Central Police Station.

FINDS BODY.

At 8 a.m. yesterday George Innes, foreman of a gang of housemovers, noticed a hand sticking out from beneath two bales of straw in the rear of the house at Fifth street and Oxford boulevard that he was moving. He investigated and discovered the body. The police were at once notified and the body was removed to the undertaking establishment of Booth and Bolyston.

According to Detective O'Brien, who made the first investigation, the body when found showed that the aged banker had been beaten over the head with a stone or brick. The scalp was lacerated and bruises were found about the face and shoulders. None of the blows, according to the police, could have caused death. The rope the police discovered wound three times about the dead man's neck, and drawn tight with a slip knot at the end, had caused strangulation. The strands of the rope were cutting into the flesh when the body was found, and a knife was used to remove the rope.

From what the police were able to learn yesterday one person only saw the murded and at the time did not know it. She failed to make a report to the police, and without knowing it probably allowed the murderer to escape. That person is Della Healey, a maid at the residence of J. S. Riley of 446 South Oxford boulevard, next door to the scene of the murder. According to the police Miss Healey heard someone say, "Don't do that to me," and loked out of a rear window. She saw dimly in the darkness the figure of a man dragging some heavy object along the sidewalk and up into the yard next door. At the time she thought that one of the workmen engaged in moving the house next door had returned to the job and gave the matter no more attention. On account of the darkness the woman yesterday was unable to give the police any description of the murderer.

Among the other persons who heard the struggle, but paid no attention to the matter, believing as Miss Healey did, that men were working on the house next door, were Mrs. L. M. Tullis, a cook in the Riley home, a Chinaman employed across the street from the scene of the murder, and several other persons in the neighborhood. All the persons interviewed by the police stated that they heard someone cry out and then heard a struggle. Only the one person saw the murderer drag his victim to the rear of the lot next to the Riley home.

WENT FOR WALK.

As nearly as the police were able to reconstruct the crime yesterday, Mr. Robbins left his home and walked around the block several times and then down Oxford Boulevard. He is believed to have turned east on Fifth street and to have been attacked as he was passing the rear of the lot on which the house was being moved by Innes and his men. After having been knocked down the aged man, according to the police, must have lost consciousness and then the rope is believed to have been placed about his neck. He was then dragged to the rear on the lot, the rope tightened about his neck, and the two bales of straw thrown over the body.

While the officers were working late yesterday on the theory that Robbins was slain by mistake and that the real victim was to have been Stuchberry, the two sons of the slain man stated that today a large reward for the arrest of the murderer will be offered by them. The two sons also stated that they intend to work with the police in every manner and to remain on the case until their father's slayer is brought to justice.

According to Howard Robbins, his father retired from the Meister Bank of Shelton, Neb., in 1912. With his family he came to California and lived for a time in Long Beach. Later he purchased a home at 446 South Oxford boulevard, now occupied by Riley and next door to the spot where he was murdered. He sold the home to Riley about two years ago and returned to Shelton for a short time, returning to Los Angeles over a year ago. When the retired banker returned to this city for the second time his brother, C. J. Robbins, also of Shelton, came with him. The brother lives with his family at Long Beach.

GET LUNCHEON TICKETS.

Ex-Cabinet Member and Balloon School Head to be Honored.

A warning was sent yesterday to members of the Chamber of Commerce to make reservations at one if they wish to attend the luncheon next Monday at the Alexandria Hotel, in honor of William C. Redfield, president of the Russian-American Chamber of Commerce, and Maj. H. Geiger, in command of the Arcadia Balloon School.

As former Secretary of Commerce, Mr. Redfield has a wide knowledge of commercial affairs in the United States, and his new office, as head of the Russian commercial interests in this country, has given him intimate knowledge of Far-Eastern trade conditions, of which he will speak at the luncheon.

Maj. Geiger will appear in public for the first time since assuming his new command.

NURSES ARE COMING.

One Thousand Will Meet Here in Annual Convention.

For the first time in several years, 1000 members of the California State Nurses' Association will come to Los Angeles to hold their annual convention. The meetings will be held in the auditorium of the Y.M.C.A.

Many women speakers of national prominence will address the convention on civic and rural health problems and child welfare. Subjects of interest to high school girls and their mothers and movements in which the club women of the country are taking an active part will be brought up.

The convention is to open next Monday and will close Wednesday. Headquarters of the organization will be at the Gates Hotel, Sixth and Figueroa streets. The complete program will be announced Sunday.

SCIENTIST DIES.

Author of "Iron Laws of Nature" Succumbs after Long Illness.

Robert J. Belford of 1412 West Eighth street, formerly publisher of Belford's Magazine, author of "Iron Laws of Nature," and other scientific works, died yesterday morning aged 70 years, at the White Memorial Hospital after an illness of about three months.

He leaves a nephew, Alex Belford of Altadena, who is Pacific Coast representative of Rand, McNally & Co. The funeral services will be conducted tomorrow at 2 p.m., in the undertaking rooms of Overholtzer Sons Company, 1236 South Grand avenue.

MORE MEN ASKED TO FIGHT GRASS FIRES.

The Fire Commission asked the Council yesterday for authority to hire twenty-five extra firemen to combat the grass-fire menace. There were 844 alarms for grass fires from May until November, 1919, according to the report of the commission. The Public Safety Committee of the Council will investigate the situation.

TWO WOMEN CLAIM REPUTED LARCENIST.

ONE HAS FIVE CHILDREN AND OTHER SAYS KING STOLE HER DIAMOND RING.

While Samuel, alias William S. King, is in the County Jail on a charge of grand larceny of a $600 diamond ring from Mrs. Jennie King, who says she is his wife, Mrs. Maude King, the defendant's wife, has had to sell some of her personal belongings to support five small children, according to a report yesterday of George Contreras, a District Attorney's investigator.

Mrs. Jennie King, who is staying at 724 West First street, says she was married at San Diego and that King took the ring and never returned it. Mrs. Maude King lives at 80 Villa City, Venice. Through Investigator Contreras the Venice authorities were interested in Mrs. King's case and gave her material aid. Mrs. Maude King is endeavoring to support five children, Joseph, aged 14 months; Sammy, aged 3 years; Bobby, aged 6; Leah, aged 8; and Monica, aged 11.

King will be arraigned in Justice Court today.

CUT DOWN IN CELL.

Prisoner Tries Suicide; former I. W. W. Saves His Life.

Tearing his clothing into strips to fashion a rope, Andy Bargan, accused of attempted robbery of a cashier of the Western Union at the Southern Pacific station, tried to end his life by hanging himself yesterday in his cell in the County Jail. Bargan's cellmate, Charles Gallwey, a former I.W.W. held for the Department of Justice and recently given probation for criminal syndicalism, cut the improvised rope. Gallwey worked over his cellmate for several hours and then notified the guards. Bargan was taken to the County Hospital. He will recover, it was said.

ALIMONY DEMAND IS SLICED TWO-THIRDS.

Although she asked for $100 a month alimony, Judge Taft yesterday allowed Mrs. Anna Steiner $7.50 a week pending the trial of her divorce suit against Henry Steiner. Mrs. Steiner admitted, it seems, that the suit was started while they were living together. A property agreement was entered into at the time they separated.

BURGER IS CONFIDENT.

Accused Commissioner Expects Charges to be Dismissed.

Charles R. Burger, county civil service commissioner who is charged with offenses against youths, confidently expressed the opinion yesterday that the accusations against him will be dismissed. The matter is set for a hearing before Judge Houser.

Mr. Burger declares he is the victim of persecution and that an attempt is being made to ruin him. If the case is not dismissed beforehand, he is confident that he will be exonerated at the trial.

TO TAKE 'NOTHER TRY AT SIAMESE "FLIVVER."

MAYOR AND OTHER CITY HEADS WILL DO THEIR BIT FOR JINNISTAN CIRCUS.

Mayor Snyder, City Clerk Wilde, Councilmen Criswell, Mallard, Wheeler, Sanborn, Fleming, Farmer and the body's president, Boyle Workman, will tomorrow attempt for the second time to navigate the currents of Broadway astride "heraldic steeds of Siam;" in other words, plain elephants. In the interest of the Jinnistan Grotto's Circus at Clune's Auditorium tomorrow, the Mayor and other "city dads" were willing to be initiated into the ancient art of operating the "Siamese flivver" several days ago. Fifty were treated to the unusual sight of the Mayor and others atop pachyderms in front of the City Hall.

Mayor Snyder said that he would "try anything once," and the first effort was so successful that he is going to try it again.

The object of the circus is to provide a fund with which to send the Jinnistan Grotto's band and patrol to Kansas City in June and to present to the national convention this city's claim for the convention in 1921.

Should the convention be held next year in Los Angeles, it is hoped by members of the Grotto that the delegates will be received in the Grotto's new temple, which is to cost approximately $500,000. The site has not yet been decided upon.

County Supervisors McClellan, Bean, Dodge and Woodley are also billed for the "mahout" procession, and there is strong rivalry, says P. H. Halbriter, ringmaster of the circus, as to which aggregation will use their pedal extremities most efficiently in "steering" the elephants down the street.

Our patrons will remember that during the very acute sugar situation last fall, we followed the same policy. We believe it is unfair merchandising to make the consuming public buy something they may not want, or to trade somewhere they do not like in order to get sugar.

BEGIN ANNUAL SESSION HERE.

Mayor Welcomes Daughters of the Confederacy.

Flag that Floated Over Lee's Headquarters is Shown.

Reception to Delegates to be a Feature Today.

BY MYRA NYE.

Last night in the assembly-room of the Alexandria there opened the twentieth annual State convention of the United Daughters of the Confederacy. With Mrs. Grantland S. Long presiding, Mayor Snyder made an address of welcome to the delegates and guests, then turned over the keys of the city in formal token of the hospitality of Los Angeles to the visitors.

The address of welcome to the delegates was made by Mrs. W. C. Tyler, who is chairman of the Robert E. Lee Chapter of Los Angeles, which is the largest in the State.

"Not to keep alive old dissensions and differences of opinion is our purpose," said Mrs. Tyler, "but to make eternal the memories of the days of sacrifice and struggle, to keep alive our ideals for our country and for all our countrymen and women."

Mrs. Andrew M. Davis of Oakland and Mrs. Enola A. Scott of Long Beach, responded for the delegates.

After the more formal portion of the programme, Olga Steeb gave a piano recital of her usual excellence.

The assembly-room was decorated with white roses and old flags of historical interest. One of especial note was the tattered Confederate flag which belonged to Gen. Robert E. Lee and floated above his headquarters during the early part of the Civil War.

This morning after the invocation by Bishop Johnson, Mrs. Mathew S. Robertson will present Mrs. Thomas Jefferson Douglass, president of the California division of the U.D.C., who will thereafter preside at all sessions.

Tonight 700 invitations are issued to the reception to visiting officers and delegates. All the officers of the State are expected to be in the receiving line. An honor guest will be Mrs. Josiah Evans Cowles, whom this organization claims as its own through Dr. Cowles, who is a southerner, his mother being a charter member of the Robert E. Lee Chapter.

A formal musical program with band, harp, solos and dancing by pupils of the Denishawn School will be followed by informal dancing.

Matinee Musical Club.

At the Ebell clubhouse tomorrow the Matinee Musical Club will hold its primary election when officers for the coming year will be nominated.

A children's party is the feature of the day when children of the members of the club will give the program. This promises to be most attractive, with a minuet in costume; a Japanese song by Frances Buckley; a flower song by Sadie Keefer; Margaret Callmore, Spanish dance; Bessie Earl, a character dance, with all of the children in costume; Edna Swindell, reader; Helen Elizabeth Barnard at the piano and Ruth Thomas playing her own compositions on the piano. Genevieve Buckley, Mrs. Nell Callmore and Edwin J. Brent will be accompanists.

Mrs. Spencer-Kelly is chairman of the program and arrangements.

The section will meet at 1:30 p.m. when Eleanor Brodie Jones will speak on the New York Theater Guild and of the productions of John Ferguson.

A.E.F. SHOWMAN HERE.

Playfactory Producer and Denver District Attorney Are Visitors.

William E. Foley, District Attorney of Denver county, Colorado, arrived yesterday at the Angelus for a brief stay. With him is Ted Syman of Denver, who produced many of the plays at the Playfactory in Paris following the signing of the armistice. Mr. Foley is here for a rest while Mr. Syman intends to write.

Following the signing of the armistice, Mr. Syman with several others began producing plays for the soldiers in France. A number of creditable productions came from the Playfactory, he said last night. The producers had only men to work with, and they trained them to play women's parts. Among other pieces, "Officer 666," "Paid in Full" and "Under Two Flags" were produced.

PROPERTY IN SNARL.

Wife Charges Foreclosure Designed to Deprive Her of Money.

A division of the community property of Milton L. Herson and Carrie L. Herson, who were recently denied a divorce by Judge Taft, is being considered by the court, who has a tangle to straighten out. When the suit was tried, it appeared that Mr. Herson owned considerable property at Redondo Beach. It was charged that a mortgage was permitted to go by default and that the property was bid in after foreclosure proceedings by Mr. Herson's mother. The wife is contending that this was an effort to deprive her of her share of the community property.

CHILD WIFE SUING.

Would Annul Strange Marriage on the High Seas.

A boy-and-girl romance went to smash when Florence E. Pawling Clark filed suit yesterday to annul her marriage to Francis E. Clark on the ground that she wed without the consent of her parents. The marriage was a novel experiment. The girl, then 13 years old, and the boy, 18, accompanied by friends set forth in a launch from San Pedro and beyond the three-mile limit they were married, it is said, by Albert K. Mathews, formerly a chaplain in the army. Mr. and Mrs. Clark lived together about a month. The suit is brought in the name of Mrs. Clark's mother, Lillian M. Pawling.

THEY FAVOR HOOVER.

A straw vote of the faculty and student body of Occidental College yesterday showed not a faculty vote for Johnson and 220 student votes for Hoover as against sixty-four for Johnson.

THE CALIFORNIA VOTE.

As The Times goes to press it is apparent that Senator Johnson has carried California. Each of the twenty-six delegates pledged to him has a safe majority.

Herbert Hoover made a splendid showing in the South, carrying Los Angeles county handsomely—by enough to prove that, with organization back of him, Hoover could have swept the State. In Los Angeles county alone was there an organized effort to get the Hoover vote out, and in this county Hoover won.

It is too early to analyze the situation at this hour. The Times will have more to say later concerning the general result. But the returns show for themselves that where organization was pitted against organization the Hoover sentiment was stronger than that for a bitter-ender.

Volunteers led the Hoover campaign in California. His campaign was made by volunteer organizations and volunteer methods. Mr. Hoover himself stipulated that there should be no fat campaign fund and that money should be accepted only for the necessary expenses. The Hoover workers here have the gratification of knowing that Los Angeles county remained faithful to the great Food Administrator. His victory here proves that if nominated at Chicago and supported by a strong Republican organization he could carry the country.

As The Times pointed out repeatedly during the campaign, volunteer fights in politics are seldom successful; but they serve a useful purpose in awakening the better instincts of the citizenship of a community and prepare the way for organization against a political machine like that which now dominates California.

The Times congratulates the local Hoover workers on their success. They have won the gratitude of all loyal advocates of the League of Nations, and the experience which they have had will be highly valuable in organizing to carry California for the Republican ticket in the coming Presidential election.

The Times reiterates that Senator Johnson's victory in California will not have the slightest effect on the choice of the Republican National Convention in selecting a candidate for President. While he was carrying California he was losing Indiana. He lost Maryland on Monday and his primary fights are now over. With his 26 California delegates he will still not have 100 pledged votes in the convention, and it requires 496 votes to nominate.

THREES OF A KIND.

Gen. Wood, Senator Harding and Gov. Lowden all met in Indianapolis on the same day. The Johnson managers would probably call that a conspiracy of the boodle forces to debauch the republic, but it wasn't any such thing. It just happened.

COUNTING SOULS.

It is quite possible that Los Angeles will pass Pittsburg in population when the figures are fully known. The steel metropolis has but 588,000 and the Angel City knows she has more souls than that, though some may have not been recorded. A nice clean soul from Los Angeles ought to count for more than one of the black and sooty Pittsburg kind, anyhow.

THE BURGLAR BOLD.

The silk-masked burglar arrested in Chicago kept a card index of the places he had robbed and the loot gathered. There were over 700 burglaries on the list, showing that he was quite an active man in his business and had not suffered much restraint on the part of the authorities. He had a warehouse of his own and included in its contents were over $40,000 worth of oriental rugs. He seems to have been one of Chicago's busiest citizens.

TEACHERS UPHOLD BOARD.

Having failed to unionize the Los Angeles school-teachers, those behind what seems to be a country-wide movement have tried their luck in San Francisco and have lost again. The Board of Education has passed a resolution forbidding its employees joining a union. Any teacher who disobeys this order will be discharged. The board quite rightly takes the stand that municipal departments should not be unionized. Of course, P. H. McCarthy is howling. He has threatened that all the schools in San Francisco will be tied up if the Board of Education discharges one teacher for belonging to the teachers' union. The board cannot be overawed by the president of the Building Trades Council. It will stick to its edict. In doing so it has the support of the vast majority of the teachers. They don't want to line up with McCarthy and his crowd. They have let this be known through the president of the regular Teachers' Association, an organization recognized by the Board of Education. That official has made known the fact that out of the 2000 or more teachers in the San Francisco public schools only 130 or 160 joined the union when it was organized and seventy or eighty of these have since withdrawn on account of the position taken by the board. It is expected the others will speedily follow suit. The teachers are showing good sense in standing so solidly behind the board.

TWO SURE THINGS.

Two things have been definitely settled by the pre-convention campaigns which practically ended yesterday with the primaries in Indiana and California:

(1.) The country is as definitely and determinedly Republican as in 1914, which means that a Republican President and a Republican Congress will be elected this year.

(2.) And neither Hiram Johnson nor any other bitter-ender will win the Republican nomination for the Presidency.

Registration in the Northern States shows more than twice as many Republicans as Democrats; and the Democrats are very likely not to send a single representative to the Electoral College from the whole territory located north of the old Mason and Dixon line and east of the Mississippi River. No one can tell with what party the Bolshevist group of States with heavy German population in the Middle West will be aligned. As far as the Republican leaders are concerned, it is not a matter to them of great concern. If the Democrats fill their platform with Bolshevist bait it is possible that they can carry these States; but, in doing so, the Democrats will lose Kentucky and Virginia.

California has shown by its registration that it is striving to get back into the Republican line; while the Democratic party has become so weak here that it has almost ceased to be a contender. The Democrats are paying the penalty of coalescing with the Progressive party in the State for the purpose of getting a division of the spoils.

Senator Johnson's campaign has served the country a good turn, although unintended. By lining the Red elements up back of him he has prevented them from getting mixed in with delegates supporting other candidates. The only radicals in the convention will be those elected on Johnson tickets. There will not be more than 100 of them, all told. As there will be nearly 1000 delegates in the convention, these radicals will be without influence in drafting the platform of the party, which will be liberal in tone, but not socialistic, and will contain a restatement of the ideals which Republicans have embraced for more than half a century.

Some of the more timid among the Republican leaders were of the opinion a few months ago that there would have to be a partial surrender to radicalism in the platform in order to keep the elements of discontent from making common cause with the Democrats and defeating the Republican electors in doubtful States. Since Johnson's Red campaign has netted him so few delegates, however, it has become clear that the numbers of the discontented have been grossly exaggerated. The registration also proves that the number of doubtful States in the North and West has been reduced to a minimum and that they are not the menace to Republican success that they were in the closing decade of the last century.

While another attempt to disrupt the Republican party by staging a walk-out in the Republican convention looms up, it is a vastly different condition from that by which the party was confronted in 1912. Hearst is going ahead with his plans for a new radical, un-American party. He expects the Bolshevist group in the Middle West to form the nucleus on which he and his pro-German supporters will work to concentrate the unrest of the country. The delegations of these States are likely to bolt the convention. But, after they have once walked out, they will have no place to go to. The Reds in the labor unions will be with Hearst; but they form one of the elements that have been voting of late years with the Democrats. Mr. Taft pointed out in a recent article that the third party would draw more heavily on the Democrats than on the Republicans. If the Third Party is formed this year it will make assurance doubly sure that the Democratic party will not be dangerous in the fall campaign. It will be the campaign of 1912 over again; but the Democratic party will be in the position of the Republican party in 1912.

As far as Senator Johnson's campaign is concerned, there never was any chance for it to carry him even within striking distance of the Republican nomination. The forces back of him are noisy, but not powerful. He has not a delegate in the whole of New England and not more than seven possible delegates in the Middle Atlantic States. He has not a pledged delegate in Ohio, Indiana or Illinois, although he may secure a few delegates through the treachery of Mayor Thompson of Chicago. He has not a vote in the whole southern group, comprising 277 delegates. The groups which we have named comprise two-thirds of the entire voting strength of the convention. Mr. Taft wrote in the article above referred to that nothing short of a miracle could give to Johnson the Republican nomination, irrespective of the result of the California primary.

Whether Senator Johnson will lead the Hearst party ticket is problematical. He has said that he would not; but he has said he would not do many things politically in the past and has nevertheless done them. Johnson at the head of a Third Party would not be a menace to Republican success, for his chief support would come from Democratic sources. His withdrawal this year would rather be in the nature of a riddance, for he would carry an objectionable segment of the party with him; and its place would be taken by patriotic Americans who have heretofore voted the Democratic ticket, but who could be counted on to join the Republican party in defending American institutions against radicalism.

Never were the signs brighter for the election of a Republican President and a Republican Congress; and it is equally certain that the national leader selected at Chicago will not be a bitter-ender.

Next Sunday will be Mothers' Day. It was created by the adoption of a joint resolution by Congress, approved by President Wilson, setting aside the second Sunday of May. The United States is the first nation in the world to give this national patriotic honor and tribute to its homes as the "fountain head of the State."

The Department of Labor is to take another survey of the high cost of living. What did they do with the last survey?

GOSPEL FOR THE DAY.

The Gospel of Doing Without is not a popular preachment. Its churches are run down at the heel and its preachers often talk to empty benches. Yet the saving grace from material damnation is contained within the Articles of Faith of this doctrine and it is time for a series of protracted meetings such as the old-fashioned revivalists held when sin bore down too heavily.

The slowing-down process which business has been feeling for the past several weeks is gaining in momentum. Money is tighter this week than it was last week, and it will be tighter next week than it is this week. Banks are shutting down, and shutting down hard, on loans for purposes of expansion, and bankers and credit men are seeking carefully the motive behind each requested accommodation and then showing why and where the amount should be reduced.

Refinancing is not the rose-strewn path it was a few months ago. Interest rates have gone up from 5 per cent. to 7 and 8. A few days ago a great public utility company floated $10,000,000 worth of gold notes through a syndicate of investment bankers on a basis which will yield investors 7.70 per cent. interest. These notes are legal for savings banks and they establish a new high record in their class.

California has thrown up the sponge and admits that it is impossible to market her 4½ per cent. highway bonds on the original basis. The interest rate must be advanced to meet present conditions or the bonds cannot be sold and we will not have the highways. The additional interest involved in a 1 per cent. increase on $40,000,000 is $400,000 a year. Of course, the public pays the freight just as they pay when sugar goes to 25 cents and potatoes to 10 and 15 cents the pound.

The remedy, as The Times sees it, lies with the consumer and is contained in the text of this sermon, which is to do without. We have been too eager to spread out and expand. We have tried to complete houses and other buildings faster than the material men could secure supplies. We have been enlarging our plants faster than they could be equipped. We have been spending our money faster than we have been making it. We have been overreaching ourselves. We have exceeded the limit. The money market is exhausted. The rocks are just ahead. It is time to pull up. It is time to begin doing without. We did without during the war, so that we know the remedy is not an impossible one, and it appears to be the only cure for the distressing symptoms from which we are suffering.

The wise buyer is buying smaller stocks, and the wise manufacturer is bending one ear to the ground. Bankers know that a period of liquidation is upon us and they are pulling in their horns accordingly. The wise merchant senses the falling off in demand which is just getting under way. He realizes that this means but one thing: a curtailment of demand and lower prices for food, for clothing, for building material, for everything which goes to make up the necessities of life. As for the luxuries, many must do without them until the readjustment time is over.

The plan of reducing price costs by centralizing a drive on one commodity won't work. It is only a sporadic outburst of local feeling against a general condition. When the whole country or a State or even a city voluntarily dons overalls or gingham dresses the price of overalls and gingham automatically goes up and the latter state of the economist is worse than the first. Concentration is a fine thing when applied to the mind, but it is fallacious as a remedy for high prices. It is impossible to resolve ourselves into plenty. The royal road to learning is filled with boulders of experiences against which we must stub our toes. We have stubbed them and the lesson we are learning is that to achieve the goal we must do without. We must concentrate on the art of getting along with what we have rather than with what we would like to have.

The citadel may be captured by no other attack. Business is seeing the handwriting on the wall and is beginning to cut its cloth to fit the wearer. The consumer at large is slower to grasp the import of what is coming, but he might just as well realize it now. The sooner he begins to take the remedy the sooner the ill which besets him will be overthrown.

HAIL TO LONG BEACH.

With the official census announcement that Long Beach has a population of 55,593 the beach city scores another triumph. Ten years ago Long Beach achieved nationwide fame when it led all the cities of the United States in percentage of growth in the decade from 1900 to 1910. Its gain in population in that decade was 690.8 per cent.

In the past ten years Long Beach's growth was 212.2 per cent, an achievement in community progress fully as remarkable as its record for the ten years previous, for even the fastest-growing communities cannot hope to maintain their ratio after the population has run high up into the thousands.

It is not alone in population figures that Long Beach residents rejoice. The city has kept pace industrially, in civic improvements and volume of business. Its post-office business is three times as large as in 1910 and its bank deposits are seven times as great. It has spent six times as much in new buildings the past year as in 1910. It has gone forward all along the line and it will keep on growing.

Located on one of the fairest beaches on the Pacific, Long Beach is a favorite seaside resort in winter and summer, but it is more than that. It is a city of enterprise and constructive activity, a city of manufacturing and production, a community of fine homes and churches, beautiful avenues and spacious public buildings. Its residents are justly proud of their city, for it is blessed with many distinct advantages.

All California should feel grateful to Long Beach; for the frequently repeated cynicism that no community here can hope to measure up to the claims of its boosters has been refuted very satisfactorily and very convincingly by the beach city. Residents of Long Beach are naturally optimistic. It is in the air. They started out with unbounded confidence in their city, and as years of great progress roll by their views are strengthened. The average Long Beach man has been claiming 50,000 population for his city. His fellow-townsmen believed him and many others who are familiar with the city believed him, but others have been skeptical. Now the Federal Census Bureau announces that it isn't guessing that the population is 50,000 or 40,000, but knows exactly that Long Beach has more than 55,000 inhabitants.

So, hail to the fair city of Long Beach! It has not only set a mark for the whole nation, but it has outstripped its own boosters.

SOLID FURNITURE.

Furniture manufacturers say that it is hard for them to get enough of the various woods needed in their business. They have been reduced to veneers about as thin as a coat of varnish for some of the old favorites. The solid stuff is rare. In the search for substitutes they took to pouring concrete ships in place of wood and steel vessels. Now that they are pouring blocks of concrete homes for tenements and concrete cottages for our toilers they may as well pour concrete furniture at the same time. A stone dining-room table surrounded by a group of immovable and nonbustable concrete chairs would be possible and comparatively cheap. Nowadays a mahogany davenport may cost a thousand dollars or less, but when a contractor is putting in a fireplace he might as well pour a concrete davenport to face it. It would be durable and could be made quite comfortable with a stack of feather beds. If a house were fairly stocked up with this concrete furniture there would be no danger of burglars backing in with a moving van and carting the stuff off in the absence of the family.

RIPPLING RHYMES.

CRAZY TIMES.

Strike and the world strikes with you, work and you work alone; our souls are ablaze with a Bolshevik craze, the wildest that ever was known. Groan and there'll be a chorus, smile and you make no hit; for we've grown long hair and we preach despair and show you a daily fit. Spend and the gang will cheer you, save and you have no friend; for we throw our bucks to the birds and ducks and borrow from all who'll lend. Knock and you'll be a winner, boost and you'll be a frost; for the old sane ways of the pre-war days are now from the program lost. Strike and the world strikes with you, work and you work alone; for we'd rather yell and keep raising Hannibal, Mo., than strive for an honest bone. Rant and you are a leader, toil and you are a nut; 'twas a bitter day when we pulled away from the old-time workday rut. Wait and there'll be a blow-up, watch and you'll see a slump; and the fads and crimes of these crazy times will go to the nation's dump.

OUR SUNNY FRIEND

The Outlaw.

I'm a roisterous, boisterous buckaroo,
And Ride is my middle name;
From K. C., Mo., to good old Los
I have wrangled my way and found one hoss,
Just one that I couldn't tame,
I admit it with some shame,
Pegasus is his name.

There are times he'll stand like a livery plug
While I bridle and saddle and mount,
Then carry me in a gentle lope
O'er many a sun-lit hill and slope
By many a plashing fount,
Not once is there need account
Of antics to shout, "Aroint!"

There are times he'll stand for the bit,
But shy at the saddling act,
At others I can't get near the cuss
And around the field he'll faunch and fuss, Sometimes I think I'm safely backed
And then he leaps, while fierce impact
Of me and the sod disputes the fact.

I used to admire Harrison, Stone,
And buckaroos like One-eyed Sheets,
But since Pegasus sprung his tricks
On me their stunts are simply nix
Compared with the clever beats
Of Tennyson, Browning, Keats,
And others who kept their seats
Despite Pegasus' feats.

But now we come to parting days

The impressionist was giving some finishing touches to his picture when a stranger stopped to look on.

"Ah," said the painter, "perhaps to you, too, nature has opened her sky-pictures page by page. Have you seen the lambent flame of dawn leaping across the livid east, the red-stained islets floating in the west, the ragged clouds at midnight blotting out the shuddering moon?"

"Well, no," was the rejoinder, "not since the country went dry."

Events That Should Have Happened.

When Biggins stopped at Whitewater crossing to fill his radiator a woman was sitting by the stream sobbing frantically.

Ever willing to succor the distressed, Biggins hurried to her side and asked what was the trouble.

"I am traveling a la horse and buggy to Palm Springs to papa's," she said. "The only money I had in the world was in my handbag when, at 12:26 by my wrist watch, I settled back here in the shade with the handbag as a pillow for a short rest. I awoke at 12:46 to find the satchel and money gone. What shall I ever do?" and she sobbed afresh.

Biggins strode down the highway a few paces to the west, then toward the east a like distance, then back to the woman and said: "Come with me to the ranch-house and we will phone descriptions to Palm Springs, you of the satchel, I of the thief and doubtless they will be able to apprehend him there."

"But how can you describe the thief?" she asked as they proceeded.

"Observation tells me that he is going east in a Ford, that his right eye is deficient, if not altogether blind, that he sits in a crouching posture and has a heavily-calloused right hand."

"That description ought to get him," she said, "but how did you pick up so much on such short notice?"

"I found," proceeded Biggins, "by the way the swinging doors bent the brush toward the east that he was driving a Ford and in that direction, and by the way he veered to the right I knew his right eye must be a bum one."

"But how about the crouching posture and the callouses?"

"All Ford drivers have them," he said, "the posture because of cramped quarters and the callouses from intensive cranking."

Put on your B.V.D.'s?

This is the open season for straw hat.

The mermaids promise to be more plentiful than ever at the beaches this summer.

That overalls movement has already shown indications of being frazzled a bit at the cuffs.

What has become of the old-fashioned man who used to say, "Well, you can't prove it by me"?

What President Wilson is thinking about concerning that motion even the ouija board is said to tell.

There are indications that Attorney-Gen. A. Mitchell Palmer will be much calmer after the San Francisco convention.

Eleven of the local I.W.W.'s convicted guilty before Judge Wilbur in Seattle, there was no Assistant Secretary of the Post to save them.

Col. Bryan is of the opinion that the government ought to run all of the big business—barring the moving picture business, of course.

With oysters threatened with extinction and Col. House refusing to talk it looks as if the movement has the center of the stage.

The servant problem could easily be settled if the women were allowed to use brandies and wines in their cooking without restriction.

Things look dark in Mexico for Carranza. Germany ought to write to his relief. He was very kind to the Huns during the late great unpleasantness.

So far nobody has seconded the motion of Champ Clark, who recently said that if the nomination was tendered him he would feel bound to accept it.

The local Federal taxpayers are waiting for another bunch of boobs who they must favor for office. They have shifted so often that they have become exponents of perpetual motion.

It is quite evident that Mexico's visiting one of the neighbors those wireless experts tried to signal the planet. Even the telephone line was "temporarily out of order," as the lady operator often says it when the bill is not paid.

We sometimes fear that a telegram of sending uninstructed delegates to the San Francisco convention means that George has hitched up somewhere in the dark and brush ready to do the dastardly act.

Senator Smoot has introduced a resolution for a reorganization of the government to meet the demands of the times. Something of this kind is needed, of course, but it is the first duty of Congress to put the government's cost basis on a peace basis at once. That is what the people want.

An effort is being made to repeal the illiteracy test in the case of the migrant servant girls. This does not necessarily mean Hungarian. The United States does not admit the honest immigrant even if they have no more education than Tubal Cain or so much as a knowledge of writing than Andrew Johnson had before he was married.

Congressman Charles Hamilton Randall is sponsor for the proposition of Congressmen and Senators to the Far East at the expense of the government. Five have already booked for the junket, and the bill will not be less than $1,000,000 for the transportation alone. It is intended to visit Hawaii and the Philippine Islands, Guam, Japan and Korea. The voters of the Seventh Congress District will be pleased to hear of their representative frittering away that money on a joy ride at a time when every dollar ought to be conserved. NEW SUPERIOR JUDGE ON JOB.

Albert Lee Stephens Sworn in; Awards Damages in First Case Tried.

Judge Albert Lee Stephens, who was sworn in by County Clerk Lampton Monday noon, immediately tried his first case on the Superior Court bench. Friends sent flowers and other judges called and congratulated him. The case was brought by Jacob Deutsch, as administrator of the estate of Morris Deutsch, against C. H. Gain and Hazel C. Abbott, for the fatal injury of Morris Deutsch in an automobile accident August 24, 1916. Judge Stephens awarded the plaintiff $5000.

Rupert B. Turnbull, an attorney, by stipulation, sat in Department Eleven, trying a damage suit brought by Gilbert E. Robb against John F. Taylor.

custody by offering security furnished by a local surety company in the sum of $6000, with the understanding that it is to serve temporarily until today, when a personal bond for a similar amount will be substituted. The hearing was set for May 12.

After spending a night in jail, McShane paid a visit to U. S. Commissioner Long yesterday morning, with his attorney, in the hope of having the bond reduced, but was unsuccessful. He admitted that he did not have the money to purchase a bond of a surety company, and was not possessed of sufficient Liberty Bonds to satisfy the court. He spent the balance of the day until the bond was executed and approved in the custody of U. S. Marshall Walton.

McShane smiles at the charge that he owes the Riverside bank more than $311,000, as asserted by the special agents of the Department of Justice, and says he has receipts covering all of his dealings with the bank.

The case of McShane has been under investigation by the agents of the Department of Justice for some time, it developed yesterday, and it is stated that his stenographer made a number of important statements during the course of an interview with the officers at the Federal Building before the arrest. There is no information to in any way connect the young lady with any criminal responsibility in connection with the case, it is said.

That R. R. Sutherland, founder of the Sutherland Fruit Company, severed his connection with the firm in 1915, was the statement made yesterday in connection with the McShane case by Austin Holcomb.

PLAN SUPERWOMAN DAY.

Women of the University will Hold Field Meet—Men to Attend.

Today will be superwoman day at the University of Southern California when the fair co-eds will hold a track meet and play baseball as a part of women's day. Women members of the Trojan staff will issue a special number of the Trojan, the university paper.

Men students are to be admitted to Bovard Field for the athletic events—and the entire registration of students is expected to be in attendance.

Miss Isabelle Helm, president of the Associated Women Students, will preside. A program will be given in the chapel at the 11:40 hour, including music and reading.

A luncheon in the cafeteria, with toasts by representatives from the different colleges of the university, will be a special feature. Miss Emily Biles, dean of women, will make an address.

VISIT IS DELAYED.

Angeleno Minister to Poland Not Coming Home for Some Time.

Mrs. Frank Gibson of 2301 Scarff street yesterday received telegraphic advice from her son, Hugh Gibson, U. S. Minister to Poland, that official business compels him to remain in Washington, D. C., for the present and that he will not be able to pay her a visit in this city for several weeks.

Minister Gibson returned to this country from Poland about three weeks ago and has since been attending to official business in New York and Washington. About ten days ago he had a visit with Herbert Hoover in Washington, for the first time since they worked together on relief commissions in the war zone.

FIGHT EXPECTED.

Council to Consider Charges in Connection with Planning Body.

The City Council this morning will discuss the personnel of the City Planning Commission of fifty-one members, the nominations for which have aroused protests on the ground that there are too many members of the committee who believe that the proposed civic center, including City Hall, Courthouse, soldiers' and sailors' memorial auditorium and public library, should be located in the south part of the city. Objections have also been raised that a number of architects pledged to specific plans for a civic center are also on the list under consideration. The list was prepared by the Public Welfare Committee with the assistance of the Chamber of Commerce. A fight is expected before a list is finally approved by the Council.

BANISH CASE OVER.

The hearing of Otoman Zar Adusht Hanish, so-called prince and little master of the Mazdaznan sun cult, was continued by Justice Summerfield until tomorrow. The continuance was taken because witnesses failed to appear. Hanish is accused of offenses against five minor children. Similar charges, covering the same alleged offenses, were recently dismissed in Superior Court. The defendant was represented by Attys. Beebe and Stephenson and Dep. Dist.-Atty. Fitts is prosecuting the case.

COULTER'S—Seventh Street at Olive — Oldest Dry Goods Store in Los Angeles — Seventh Street at Olive—COULTER'S

—BUT THE CORSET REMAINS MUCH THE SAME

Spain, Persia, Egypt and China have found joyful reflection in the new gowns suits, wraps and hats. The world-old art of costuming women has found many new motifs and expressions.

But the foundation of all this beauty—the corset—remains comparatively unchanged from its skillful interpretation of the past few months. It is reassuring to know that the natural figure is still the vogue; poise and distinction of carriage gained by a comfortable support that fairly persuades the figure to graceful lines and proportions, are the charm of the fashionable woman. If there is a trifle more indication of "nip" at the waist line, it means no change in the corsetry of the properly corseted woman; it is gained by the skill of the dressmaker who fashions the clothes to follow more closely the perfectly proportioned figure so the accent at the waist becomes largely a matter of optical illusion. The "tight" waist or the appearance of obvious corsetry is as unfashionable as ever.

The ever-increasing vogue for Gossard Front-Lacing Corsets has gained even more amazingly as women have come to a fuller understanding of this new and altogether delightful mode that makes fashion dependent upon naturalness and grace.

There is not a type of figure, however unusual and difficult to fit, but can be successfully corseted in these original front-lacing corsets.

In the face of the scarcity of materials and well-known difficulties of present-day manufacture, Gossards are priced within the reach of every woman and offer a superior style, comfort and wearing service that give every dollar invested in them a full purchasing power of 100 cents.

You will find

GOSSARD Front Lacing CORSETS

CITY FARMERS WILL ORGANIZE.

Gardeners of Pasadena Take Interest in Agriculture.

Crown City Bids for Meeting of Veterans.

Display Handiwork of Sanatorium Patients.

[LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.]

PASADENA, May 4. — While Pasadena is not a community of farmers, there are many citizens here with gardens who are interested in growing things, so an attempt will be made to organize a live farm center, to be affiliated with the County Farm Bureau, at a mass meeting to be held Thursday night at the Pasadena High School. The meeting will be called to order by Claude Stone, who was elected temporary chairman at the preliminary meeting for organizing the farm center, held some time ago. The speaker of the evening will be Prof. R. W. Hodgson, chief farm adviser for Los Angeles county, and his subject will be "The Object and Value of the Farm Bureau." All persons interested in the growing of products will be welcome at the meeting, it is announced.

AFTER 1921 ENCAMPMENT.

The Pasadena delegation to the G.A.R. Department Encampment in Santa Barbara left today in a special car on the Southern Pacific, accompanied by John F. Godfrey Post life and drum corps and banners inviting the 1921 encampment to meet in Pasadena. The Pasadena veterans will make a strong effort to secure the 1921 encampment. Riverside and Stockton are also after it.

STAGE HOLDUP PLANNED.

When the New York delegates to the National Electric Association Convention arrive here in their special train May 18 they will be driven to the Hotel Huntington in an old-time stage coach, according to the local committee's plans. On South El Molino avenue the stage coach will be ambushed by highwaymen, who will "go through" the crowd. The local committee expects to get quite a "kick" out of this feature.

SHOW PATIENTS' HANDICRAFT.

Handicraft of the patients at La Vina Sanitarium for tubercular sufferers was displayed this afternoon at a tea in the interest of the sanitarium held at the home of Mrs. S. Hazard Halsted, 90 North Grand avenue. Mrs. Halsted is one of a number of Pasadena society women and prominent citizens who are interested in the welfare of the sanitarium. Under a new system inaugurated about a year ago, to occupy the minds of the patients and assist in their cure, the sufferers have been trained in handicraft work, and some beautiful and useful articles have been turned out by them.

GRADUATES GET POSITIONS.

The senior class in electrical engineering of the California Institute of Technology, which will graduate on June 14, has made an excellent showing in securing positions in advance of graduation, every member of the class having already secured a good position in which to take up his chosen work. Seven of the class will enter the electrical expert course of the General Electric Company at Schenectady, N. Y.

CHURCH MEETS QUOTA.

REDLANDS, May 4.—The First Baptist Church of this city has gone "over the top" in the big $100,000,000 drive of the Baptists. The local church had a quota of $67,250, and today it was reported that the amount had been reached and that $70,000 was in sight.

The members of the local church are much pleased, because Redlands is to benefit proportionately more than any of the cities in Southern California. The University of Redlands, a Baptist school, is to receive $1,142,000 from the drive.

It is believed that the whole of Southern California will go over the top.

MONTHLY PAY DAY.

[LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.]

POMONA, May 4.—Pomona is making special preparations to entertain the 100 Chicago business men who are making a tour of the Southland and who will be in Pomona Thursday. The programme will include a luncheon, an automobile ride through the orange groves of the valley and a reception.

PASSING OF LANDMARK.

The first two-story house ever built in Pomona and which was one of the show places of the valley in the early days is being wrecked to make way for a filling station. The house is known as the Barnum House and has been used as a rooming house in recent years. It is at the corner of Second and Elm streets, in what is now the heart of the business district. The house was built in 1880.

STOP SPEED BUGS.

The report of Police Judge Harry Mason for the month of April shows that it broke all records for more than a year in the number appearing in court. The greater number were cited for violation of the local traffic ordinance. The advent of spring weather appears to have started the speed bug here.

FOR THE BLIND.

A welcome announcement to the blind of this city was made today by Miss S. M. Jacobus, City Librarian. Lessons are to be given in connection with the library work in the Braille system of finger reading. Classes are to be held twice each month.

Funeral services will be held on Wednesday morning for Mrs. Alma Moya, aged 72 years, who has been a resident of this section for seventy years, coming here when a baby from Lower California, where she was born. For the past thirteen years she has made her home with the P. J. Yorba family at La Verne.

The purpose of the meeting is to complete the organization of naval reserve officers in Southern California, for pleasure cruises and for training.

FIGHTS EXTRADITION ASKED BY FLORIDA.

TRIO ACCUSED OF COMING HERE ON STOLEN RAILROAD TICKETS.

Whether a requisition for the extradition to Miami, Fla., of Emily C. Hess and Laura B. Thompson and Charles Reeder will be granted by Gov. Stephens will be fought out today in the Governor's office in Sacramento. Miss Thompson, who was a railroad ticket agent at Miami, is accused of stealing three railroad tickets from there to Los Angeles, and the other two with receiving the supposedly stolen tickets.

The two young women, and Arthur C. Webb, their attorney, left yesterday for Sacramento. Mr. Webb, who says he believes the Governor will refuse extradition on the facts, to be presented, will make a strong effort to obtain liberty for the three and resist extradition. Reeder, who is working in this city, will not go north.

Deputy Sheriff Green, who is here from Miami to take the three back for trial, also left for Sacramento yesterday.

EVIDENCE IS LACKING.

Ex-Army Officer Charged with Forgery is Released.

Lawrence F. Crambiet, former artillery lieutenant in overseas service, accused of forging the name of the Publishers' Service Company of this city to a check for $13.50, was discharged by Justice Palmer because of lack of evidence. In the complaint, C. G. Toland, manager of the company, accused Crambiet of the forgery.

Crambiet was married nearly two years ago, to Miss Ruth Moreland, daughter of Dr. E. W. Moreland, a wealthy physician of Fort Wayne, Ind., according to local acquaintances. He was also a member of several clubs. He was arrested in New Orleans.

ANNUAL PARADE.

[LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.]

Music and a gaily decorated Venice will accompany the big event.

Still another well-known man relates his remarkable experience with Tanlac. A. G. T... 62nd avenue, Oakland, an accountant, who numbers his friends by the score, declared in a statement the other day that after all the medicine has done his shape to where he has gained thirty-five pounds in weight. But let Mr. Tulier tell his story. Here is what he says:

"My friends all seem surprised at the wonderful change that has taken place in my condition in so short a time. Following an attack of the 'flu' in October, 1918, I found myself in an awful run-down condition. My stomach, which had troubled me for three years before this attack of influenza, was in very much worse, and for months I suffered frightfully after eating. In fact, I rarely ate at all, for that time and fell off thirty pounds in a period of two weeks. Then coming down with 'flu' I was terribly suffering from loss of appetite, general weakness, and this put me in my condition, as well as the stomach trouble, became much more pronounced. Gas would form on my stomach, causing the worst kind of pains and a feeling of fullness that was almost unbearable. I actually dreaded to eat, for I well knew so well the torture I would have to go through after eating anything into my stomach. I was badly constipated and it seemed every that I would often roll and toss all night long, without getting a wink of sleep. I was very nervous, so nervous that it was a real effort that I could do my work.

"My mother, who had been living up with the Tanlac testimonials, persuaded me to try the medicine, and, while I admit it seemed incredible, my weight was increased thirty-five pounds—making a total of five pounds above my normal weight—in thirty days' time. I can't say anything now without giving a sign of indigestion, but am back to old-time health and enjoying life and good living. I have not done a day's work in several hundred dollars for stomach trouble and other medicines for stomach trouble without results, but I had not taken the first bottle of Tanlac before I could eat my meals in comfort. Three bottles of this medicine brought me back to my normal health and I am glad of the opportunity to recommend it to others in need of something to build them up."

Grip, Influenza

Stanilo's Wizard Oil a Safe Antiseptic Preventive

During influenza epidemics the nose and throat should be sprayed every day with one part Wizard Oil and two parts water, using an atomizer. If you haven't an atomizer, gargle the throat and snuff the mixture into the nose. This treatment makes an antiseptic wall of defense against "Flu" germs.

Chest colds and sore throat should be taken in time to prevent pneumonia. Stop them at once by rubbing with Wizard Oil before they can get a firm grip into dangerous inflammation.

EDDIE MAIER TO BOLSTER TIGERS.

President Maier will take no chances of losing the flag through shortage of pitchers.

Although the purchase of Walter Smallwood, and Houck's return to the game, were supposed to complete the Vernon roster, Maier stated last night that he expects to close for another major-league pitcher within a few days.

This will fortify the clubs should Wheezer Dell go to the Idaho League, as has been rumored repeatedly. It is known that Dell has a very attractive offer awaiting him there, although he has denied any intention of leaving immediately. The deal by which Maier expects to add a catcher is also drawing near a close.

NEW BALL LEAGUE STARTS PLAY TODAY.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

TACOMA, May 4.—With Victoria scheduled to play at Tacoma, Seattle at Vancouver and Yakima at Spokane, the new Pacific International Baseball League, Class B, is scheduled to start on its four months' schedule tomorrow.

CONVICT LAKE EXCELLENT.

Ceph Salisbury of Dyas's has received a letter from Fred Raymer stating that all anglers have had no trouble in obtaining limits of good-sized trout at Convict Lake in two hours. Some of the fish ranged as heavy as three pounds. Roads leading to the lake are in good condition, according to Raymer.

NORMAN ROSS WITH US AGAIN.

"Big Moose" of Swimming World Back Again.

Comes Here with Party of Illinois A. C. Mates.

Marvelous Merman Breaks Seven World's Records.

BY PAUL LOWRY.

Broad-shouldered Norman Ross, the "Big Moose" of the swimming world and holder of more water records than the ordinary citizen has years to his life, arrived in Los Angeles yesterday morning accompanied by nine team-mates and Coach William Bachrach of the Illinois Athletic Club.

The party came direct from San Francisco, where the Illinois polo team lost the national championship to the Olympic Club last Saturday. They came south to spend a few days before hiking home to the Sucker State.

With Ross and Bachrach are Harry Hebner, Buddy Wallen, F. H. Town, H. J. Koop, F. McDermott, S. Jensen, J. S. Roth, Abe Siegel and D. L. Jones.

GREETS ROSS.

The unexpected arrival of so much class in the L.A.A.C. yesterday noon precipitated a small-sized riot. Bob Weaver, prexy of the local A.A.U., greeted Ross and Hebner like long lost brothers and before the greetings were half over was for putting on a swimming meet instanter.

Bob averred that the nonappropriation of so much talent to the public benefit would be a crying shame. Consequently the powers that be at the club have arranged for a programme of events tomorrow night that will be worth traveling miles to see.

Besides Ross, who is champion at practically every distance he ever swam, there is Hebner, who, before Ross came along was the best little thing in the way of a swimmer in the United States, holding no less than thirty-one separate records at one time. He was national back stroke champion for nine years, swam on the Illinois winning relay team for seven years, played on the winning polo team for six years and represented the United States at the Olympic games in 1908 and 1912.

INDOOR CHAMP.

Then there is Buddy Wallen, the national indoor champion at 500 yards and the only other man besides Ludy Langer to win all national outdoor races for two years in succession. Wallen turned the trick in 1918 and 1919. Langer accomplished it in 1915 and 1916.

Siegel and Jones are a couple of national junior champs at the backstroke and 100-yard dash. The rest of the Illinois crew are best known for their polo ability.

Ross stepped on the scales in the L.A.A.C. lockers room yesterday and sank the beam at the 215 mark in his street clothes. He is getting back to normal after losing thirty-five pounds by the influenza route. He was taken sick on the steamer returning from Australia.

BREAKS RECORDS.

While in Australia Ross broke seven world's records and twenty-four Australian marks, topping this off by smashing a couple of records in New Zealand. He now holds all the indoor records but one in Australia and half of the outdoor.

Here are the best marks he made in the land of the kangaroo: 300 yards, 3m. 25s. (old record, 3m. 26⅗s.); 300 meters, 3m. 45⅘s. (old record, 3m. 50⅘s.); 500 meters, 6m. 44⅘s. (old record, 6m. 51⅘s.) He also swam the fastest mile ever negotiated, making it in 22m. 58⅘s. and breaking Barney Kieran's old record of 23m. 16s., which had stood since 1905.

POMONA AND OXY LEAD IN BALL GAMES.

[SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE.]

REDLANDS, May 4.—The college conference baseball season is considerably muddled as a result of the Saturday games. The Throop team, nonvictorious through the season, turned the tables on the University of Redlands, Occidental, walloped a short season before by S.B.U.C., took a kink out of the Pomona team, undefeated up to that time. And S.B.U.C. dropped a peg by losing a game to Whittier.

The result is that Pomona and Occidental are now heading the schedule, but there is no one following the dope who is willing to predict what the final outcome will be. Fans here believe that Occidental has a shade the stronger team but that is problematical.

Redlands is not totally out of the running, although the local team has lost three out of five games.

OH, CLARENCE, HOW COULD YOU DO IT?

Playing about twelve miles over his head, Clarence Bean yesterday defeated Dick Retzer in a challenge handball match for the Frank A. Garbutt round robin tourney in two straight games. The scores were 21-4, 21-10.

Bean was chosen as an alternate for the round robin and challenged Retzer for his position as fourth in the list of the five best players of the club. The way he played yesterday, Bean could have beaten anybody in the club, including Bill Ranft, the national champion. He ran hog wild and Retzer never had a chance. The score by innings follows:

FIRST GAME.

Retzer	0	0	0	2	1	1	0	0	6	—4
Bean	1	1	5	0	3	4	4	5	x	—21

SECOND GAME.

Of the Illinois Athletic Club, who holds swimming records for practically every distance that was ever invented by the mind of man. He took a trip to Australia recently and smashed twenty-four of that country's pond marks, besides setting up seven new world records. He stepped off in Los Angeles yesterday, with the Illinois band of polo players who competed in the national tourney held at San Francisco last week. He and his mates will be seen in action at an aquatic performance to be held in the L.A.A.C. pool tomorrow night.

ANAHEIM MOTOR SHOW ON TODAY

First Orange County Exhibit Looks a Winner.

Trucks, Tractors and Accessories to Figure.

Dealers Primed for Economy Run to the Yosemite.

BY WARDE FOWLER.

All roads lead to Anaheim today for the opening of the first annual Orange county motor car, truck and tractor show. That the exhibit will be the most complete, best staged and most elaborate held in the south this year is the assertion of the management.

BEST EVER.

The show is being held under the auspices of the Orange County Automobile Trades Association. Two large tents, 100 feet long by 250 feet wide, will house the various exhibits and no expense has been spared in decorating the tents as well as the booths which will contain the many cars on display. Individual exhibitors have spent large sums in arranging their own space allotments and the tractor and accessory departments promise to rival the new car displays in interest and careful arrangement.

The Automobile Club of Southern California has posted the highways leading into Anaheim and it is expected that thousands of motoring enthusiasts from all over the south will turn out some time during the four days of the Orange county show.

THE FIRST ONE.

This is the first motor car, truck, tractor, accessory show staged in Anaheim, but plans are already perfected for making it an annual event. Such wide interest has been displayed even before the show has started that the success of the affair is assured and dealers, owners and prospective customers alike are impatiently awaiting the opening of the doors at 2 o'clock this afternoon.

Walter W. Biddick, manager of the show, has been working for the past several weeks on the many details connected with the exhibit and announces that this display will hold its own with anything ever staged in Southern California.

Many motor-car dealers in Los Angeles are already sitting up nights figuring out just how they are going to win the annual economy motor-car run to the Yosemite Valley. Twenty cars have been entered in the run and every single machine is in tip-top condition and ready for the jaunt.

CHECK 'EM ALL.

Arrangements have been made to check the entries Thursday night so that an early start can be made from the Automobile Club of Southern California Friday morning. A regular driver and observer will ride in each car and accurate tab will be kept on every particle of gasoline, oil and water consumed on the trip.

The machines will go from Los Angeles to Fresno Friday and will check in there for the night control. Saturday morning they will start for the valley and should arrive at Camp Curry before 5 o'clock in the evening. High-powered entertainments have been arranged at Fresno and at the valley for the drivers, dealers, observers and newspaper men who will jockey along to keep an eye on things.

ENDS AT YOSEMITE.

The run ends at Yosemite and the cars can return anyway they see fit and burn just as much gas and oil as they want to.

Many of the motor cars entered have already been sent over the road and into the valley via Wawona and reports show that the roads are in very good shape. There are large quantities of snow in the higher mountains, but the highways have been cleared and no one should have difficulty making the jaunt.

Anderson is 21 years old, stands 6ft. 1in., and weighs 190 pounds when in condition. He fights a style that pleases the fans, tearing in from the start.

CLINES VS. SOX.

The last of a three-game series between the Cline-Clines and the L. A. White Sox will be played on Sunday afternoon at the new White Sox park at East Fourth and Anderson streets, just across the Los Angeles River. Frank Larson has been added to strengthen the Cline club at second base.

MRS. PERLEY IS VICTOR AT GOLF

Defeats Mrs. Williams in the Women's Tournament.

Miss Newman Succumbs to Mrs. Luther Kennett.

Consolation Event will be Put on Tomorrow.

Play in the first round of the women's golf tourney for the championship of Southern California proceeded yesterday on the Annandale links with no violent upsets in the dope. The only mildly exciting victory of the day was Mrs. Perley's from Mrs. Williams, the score being 3 and 2. Mrs. Williams is a "4" handicap player, two higher on the list than Mrs. Perley and consequently the favorite. But even favorites have to lose, and yesterday was Mrs. Williams's time.

In the upper bracket of the championship flight Mrs. Luther Kennett of the Coronado Country Club and medalist of the tourney defeated Miss Newman, 3 and 2. Miss Doreen Kavanaugh, who ran Mrs. Kennett a close second in the qualifying round, defeated Mrs. Thomas, 2 up in the lower bracket.

TO PAIR OFF.

The ladies eliminated in the championship flight yesterday will form a defeated eight, pairing off as follows: Miss Newman vs. Mrs. Hargrigan; Mrs. Kegley vs. Mrs. Sullivant, Mrs. Fowles vs. Mrs. Cheney; Mrs. Williams vs. Mrs. Thomas.

The Greens Committee announces a consolation event will start tomorrow, to which all players who have been eliminated at the conclusion of today's play will be eligible. It has not yet been determined whether this will be match or medal play. The complete results follow:

GOOD FOR THREE DAYS.

Dr. E. C. Blackwell has written to Ceph Salisbury of Dyas's from Fairview on the Kern River, stating that the fly fishing in that vicinity was excellent for three days, the speckled prizes ranging from twelve to sixteen inches. The last three days, however, warm weather set in and melted the snow on the mountain tops, raising the river and causing roily water.

SAN PEDRO TRIMMED BY GARDENA HIGHS.

Gardena High School defeated San Pedro yesterday afternoon in a league baseball game on the former's grounds, 3 to 1. Beck, pitching for Gardena, was the entire show, striking out thirteen men and banging forth a triple that put the game on ice. Gardena came through with seven hits, while San Pedro barely managed to garner three. There were no errors on either side. The battle was a warm one all the way through and the stellar work of Beck probably accounted for the victory.

BASEBALL NOTES.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

CHICAGO, May 5.—Manager Ed Barrow of the Red Sox announced today in New York that Wallie Schang, the holdout, had reported for duty and would shortly take his place behind the bat. Whether or not Schang had received the amount he demanded was not divulged.

Cub fans are praying for hot weather. They say that when the soupers of Alexander and Vaughn thaw out the Cubs won't lose a game.

Claude Williams made it five straight by beating the Browns yesterday. If he keeps up his early pace, there'll be nothing in the southpaw line that can hold a candle alongside of him.

The Philly National team is playing as though they had found the fountain of youth. All their pitchers are going good and twenty-one hits off Nehf of the Giants is remarkable.

The shine ball king announced today that he was ready to hurl one of the games in the series with the Cleveland Indians which opens at Chicago tomorrow. Cicotte has been home several days nursing a slightly fractured finger on his left hand and declares that the injury has healed plenty for him to work one of the games.

Physicians have told John McCloskey, the veteran Memphis manager, that the sight of his left eye probably is gone. McCloskey has been on the bench directing his team and the showing it has made is evidence enough of what he has been doing with it.

• • •

Rabbit Maranville made four errors in a game against the Giants—at least the scores charged him with four. George Stallings kicked on the scoring. He said the rabbit should have had a couple more errors than were given him.

DALTON DRAWS WITH PALMER.

Arizona Wildcat Fails to Stop the Festive Steve.

Cliff Jordan and Sailor Petrosky Mill Even.

Seven Snappy Boxing Bouts Served at Doyle's.

BY ED O'MALLEY.

It looked for a spell in the second round of the Palmer-Dalton scrap at Jack Doyle's last night as if it would be the "Last of the Daltons," but Steve, old boy, came back good and strong in the third and fourth sessions and earned a draw. The bout was a savage display of rough-house work throughout with Steve having the worst of the close fighting. In the final session, however, he reached the Arizona Wildcat several times with cartwheel rights and slowed his man up considerably. The referee's decision of a draw was well received. The lads will probably be matched again.

Sailor Petrosky and Cliff Jordan who formed part of the double windup also boxed an upstick affair. The sailor took a lead at the outset and looked as if he were going to muss up Cliff considerably, but grew tired as the mill advanced and in the third round became so wild that he missed everything he attempted. In the last session, the old jacktar was pretty well spent, but he had showed so well in the first two rounds that Referee McFarland gave him an even break.

SORELY AFFLICTED.

Tommy O'Brien, who is sorely afflicted with an overdose of cleverness, won a decision over Leo Houck. Leo had a threatening right and Tommy a threatening nothing. The lads gave a good exhibition of shadow boxing mixed up now and then with some indicrous serpentine twists that caused many a ripple of laughter throughout the snug arena.

Bert Colima had a setup before him in the person of Johnny Meyers who is many kinks shy in the Lexing line. Bert, who, by the way, has the letters B.C. embroidered on his green trunks which letters stand for "Battled Cuckoo," tried every quirk he possessed in the line fistic to put Johnny away in dreamland, but failed dismally. Colima won all right but the victory will hardly add much to his reputation as a hard hitter.

The other bouts resulted as follows: Battling Savage trimmed Joe Pena; Joe Rooney and Frankie Dolan boxed a draw and the same verdict was given to Joe Miller and Jimmy Berry.

TIGERS SMEAR CRIPPLED OAKS.

whose feet are tought to step in four directions. Mr. Zeider, thanks to the large out-cropping of bunions, is able to cover first base with his feet as few other men. When he has both feet on the base, about the only way for a runner to reach it is to slide in under the overlapping bunions.

At short was Hamilton in place of Ginglardi, who used up his only home run when the Oaks were here before.

COOPER FAILS.

Claude Cooper arrived from Texas just in time to bat in a pinch in the ninth. Cooper, who has been working out with the Ft. Worth club, batted in the same way. He is slated to play first base pending the recovery of Guisto's broken leg. This sure is getting to be a busted-legged race for the pennant, and it will soon be up to the managers to lay in a stock of cork or utility legs. The club with the largest reserve in legs is likely to cop.

Messrs. Eason and Byron had departed for elsewhere. This was a surprise, as nobody knew the celebrated dusters were going away. Plans had been made to present them with a feather duster made of aigrettes so as to add class to the great national pastime. In their place, we had Billy Phyle running the bases and Ollie Anderson, well-known double-jointed arbiter, renovating the plate.

HUGHIE THERE.

In the second, with one gone, Hughie High, by knocking the ball down, held a mighty swat by Jack Knight to two bases. He scored on an infield single by Zeider, whose swat hit both Dell and Fisher, and narrowly missed Phyle. Pop Arlett planted a Texas leaguer in right for two bases, Zeider drawing up at third. Mitze put Zeider across with a single shot to center. Honus was thrown out trying to take second on the plate peg. Buzz put his rock-ribbed brother across with an infield hit. Lane grounded to Fisher, ending the rumpus. Luck was against Wheezer in this round, but the Oaks threw away at least one run by shiftless base-running.

Vernon reclaimed two of these in the third. DeVormer resorted to an infield hit, and took second, while B. Arlett and Zeider were retiring Dell. This was some job. Wheezer caromed the ball off Arlett's knee over to Zeider. Buzz, still staggering from the blow, saw that Zeider could not get back to the base. So he went over and covered throw just as Dell crashed across.

HORRIBLE PLAY.

Between Arlett's cracked leg, Dell's flattened wheezer, and Zeider's out-growing bunions, it was a brilliant, but horrible play to watch. Then came an infield hit by J. Mitchell, putting DeVormer on third, from where he scored on Chadbourne's out, Hamilton to Zeider. Fisher put Johnny across with a hit to center. Bob was flagged stealing.

Edington, High and DeVormer grouped hits around walks by Smith and Mitchell for two, in the fourth. Vernon finished winning the game in the sixth. High beat out a grounder to Knight, taking second when Jack threw the ball through the large air pocket between Zeider's legs. DeVormer, with a bunt sacrifice, sent him to third and he scored on Dell's aerial sacrifice to Hack Miller.

Dell was in the hole in the last three rounds, but was able to drag himself out, except in the eighth. Buzz Arlett stung him for a single at the start of the eighth. Wheezer walked Lane, and Willie, filling the bases, pausing just long enough in between to whiff Hamilton. Dell was hard-pressed, and showed it by making a noise with his wheezer like a person with adenoids, breathing through a fine comb. Miller released B. Arlett to the plate with a fly to Chadbourne. Mitchell camped under Knight's tall, twilight fly.

The Oaks tried to rally a late vote in the ninth. Zeider led off with a single to center. Cooper completed the last leg of his trip from Texas to the plate by stepping to the latter. Batting for A. Arlett, he flied to right. Mitze mauled a single to center. Zeider taking second. B. Arlett and Lane skied to center and left, and the Oaks, like the unsuccessful candidate, knows how it feels not to run strong enough. The score:

SALT LAKE CITY (Utah) May 4.—With "Lefty" Leverenz in the box, Salt Lake defeated Sacramento, 5 to 0. Krug was the battling star, gathering in two runs and two hits, including a triple. Errors by Sacramento were largely responsible for the two Bee tallies in the third inning. The score:

BLANCHE GOING ABROAD

HAMPTON STAR TO ENGLAND FOR PICTURE MAKING.

By Grace Kingsley.

We shan't have a single star left in our American firmament if the emigration of our best loved luminaries keeps on. Now it's Blanche Sweet who is to go to England in August, for the purpose of making a picture for Jesse D. Hampton, with whom she is under contract. An interesting fact about the production, is that it is to be directed by Marshal Neilan, who will leave in June for Europe, according to present plans. Some of the best pictures Miss Sweet has ever made, including "The Unpardonable Sin," were made by this director.

Miss Sweet expects to be gone about four months. At present, she is working hard to complete two pictures for Jesse D. Hampton, before leaving. One of these is to be done in the big outdoors of Truckee, in order that it may be in the nature of a sort of vacation, and therefore will provide opportunities for the star to recuperate after a hard year's work before undertaking the long journey.

The production Miss Sweet will make for Mr. Hampton, while aboard will be a screen version of a story by either William Locke or John Galsworthy, Mr. Hampton holding the rights to several stories by these writers. Miss Sweet, it is understood, is very anxious to undertake to put on the screen some of the famous psychological studies of Galsworthy.

It is quite likely, that a feature will be made in France, as Miss Sweet contemplates visiting that country. She will also go to Switzerland.

—o—

Sounds Reasonable.

While Bill Desmond, Hampton star, is at present enjoying a vacation, and while he wants to go a-fishing up in Bear Valley, still he just can't a-bear to think of leaving his family, which, as you will remember, now includes a baby daughter. So Mr. Desmond thinks that if his wife, Mary McIvor, not to mention little Mary Joanna, will consent, he will take them with him up to the fishing grounds. But if they won't go, that fishing trip is all off.

And speaking of that clever infant, Mary Joanna, we have the authority of her father, that as he was mixing a cocktail the other day, she looked up and remarked, "Well, dad, I see you've been studying ancient history."

—o—

Ditto.

Can it be that William S. Hart is at last about to be wed? At any rate, I have it on good authority that Mr. Hart, who lives right across the street from Mr. Desmond, on paying his first visit to the infant, looked up and exclaimed enthusiastically to the other Bill:

"Bill, I'm going to have one of those thing myself soon! I ain't going to let any wild Irishman get ahead of me!"

Louis Mann Writes Play.

Louis Mann, appearing at the Mason this week in "Friendly Enemies," is considering three plays for next season. One of them was written by himself, but, modest though he be, he won't deny it's a good play.

—o—

Warfield's Plans.

David Warfield, for the first time since his automobile accident, sat up in a wheel chair Sunday last. He expects to remain in the hospital three weeks longer, after which he will go to his home in New York.

—o—

First National Bulletin.

Important news concerning the doings of the First National Exhibitors' Circuit at the convention in Chicago is just at hand. All the producers of First National were in attendance, and the election features of the second day were the nomination of Robert Lieber of Indianapolis as president of Associated First National Pictures, Inc., the new organization of First National franchise holders. Lieber was also elected president of First National Circuit. Sol Lesser was appointed general western representative.

One of the important announcements as to the signing of stars and productions, was made by General Manager J. D. Williams, whose recent visit to Los Angeles resulted in the signing of two Mack Sennett five-reel super-comedies for First National. The statement created a furore, owing to the fact of the tremendous success of Sennett's "Down on the Farm," which smashed house records during its world premiere at the Kinema Theater here. It is understood Ben Turpin is to be featured in the premier Sennett First National comedies.

Another important announcement was the signing of a contract by Mr. and Mrs. Carter de Haven, to produce "Twin Beds" for First National, the price for the famous stage play being somewhere in the neighborhood of $90,000.

Lionel Barrymore is to produce five pictures for First National.

Sol Lesser, of this city, announced that he will build a studio in Hollywood in the near future, and also laid before the members, the plans for the new First National Theater here, which is to serve as the premier house in America for First National productions.

A new organization sprang into being, which will be known as the Independent Exhibitors of America, with Frank J. Rembush of Indianapolis elected as chairman. It is generally understood the new league is a subsidiary of First National.

—o—

Anita Loos Here.

Anita Loos Emerson, well-known scenario writer, arrived in town yesterday. She will be here only about a fortnight, and is taking a rest, staying with her mother at the Hollywood Hotel.

—o—

New Metro Star.

Francelia Billington has just signed up to play a leading role in the Metro production of "Hearts Are Trumps," in which an all-star cast will appear, under direction of Rex Ingram.

—o—

Is Coming Home.

Don't tell New Yorkers because they may not like it a bit; but H. H. Van Loan, author of various famous photoplays, is going to leave that well-known place flat as soon as his business is finished. He has sold a number of picture stories at a very high figure, including three to Norma and Constance Talmadge, and has several offers to remain in the East, but won't, because he likes the West too well.

—o—

Valet was Wise.

William Conklin, Ince star, employed a new colored valet recently. Knowing the habits of the chocolate-colored residents of the South, he found it necessary to rebuke Eban a day or two ago.

"You are getting careless and forgetful. You have not brushed my clothes for a week."

"Indeed, I has," earnestly asserted Eben.

"I left a dollar in my trousers three days ago, and it's there yet," declared Conklin triumphantly.

"Yes, sah, yes, sah. But if you looks again, you-all will find its a plugged dollah."

—o—

Warner Plans Trip.

H. B. Warner, Jesse D. Hampton star, is going to Maine to spend a month's vacation. He declares his real purpose is to buy new apparel in New York, but they do say he's also going to take an anxious peek at his cellar.

—o—

Jessie Jordan Here.

Mrs. Harry Mestayer, who used to be Jessie Jordan of this city, arrived in town yesterday and her scores of friends are preparing to entertain her.

—o—

Standing Improves.

Herbert Standing, the veteran English actor, who was injured in an automobile accident a few days ago, is reported as being slowly on the mend. Standing's leg was broken, but is knitting nicely.

—o—

"The Devil's Playground."

Vera Michelena will be the film star on the Hippodrome bill opening today. She is to appear in a sex photodrama, "The Devil's Playground." The vaudeville acts include the Royal Four in musical numbers; Emmet's canines; Bird and Kema in amusing patter; "Which One Shall I Marry?" a comedy sketch, and George Mack in stories; Harry Fisher and company, comedy cyclists.

—o—

Guests at Picture House.

Times employes are to be guests of the Superba Theater management today at the showing of "The Virgin of Stamboul," during the morning and afternoon. Before leaving for the East several days ago, Carl Laemmle extended the invitation.

The entire personnel of the Army Recruiting Station in the San Fernando Building will be guests of the picture house tomorrow evening.

—o—

Benefit Performance.

The gross receipts for the Wilkes Stock Company's performance of "Lilac Time" next Monday evening are to be turned over to the Maternity Cottage of Los Angeles, it is announced. This benefit is to further the work being done for the care of mothers and babies in moderate or needy circumstances at the cottage.

—o—

Mary Minter Film.

"Nurse Marjorie," the Realart picture starring Mary Miles Minter, is to be the principal attraction next week at Miller's Theater. The story of this feature is based on Israel Zangwill's comedy drama. Miss Minter has many mirthful opportunities as Nurse Marjorie, actually Lady Marjorie, who pretends to be the daughter of a fishmonger. During one of the scenes she is pursued by a suitor, an English lord, to the fish shop. Upon hearing the voice of a more favored suitor she unceremoniously thrusts the lord into a foul-smelling alley, infested by fish-hungry cats, and he is forced to remain there for the space of half an hour.

New Talmadge Play.

"Yes or No," which had a production at the Morosco Theater in this city, has been purchased for Norma Talmadge, the First National star, and is to be made into a photodrama. It will probably be filmed before Miss Talmadge undertakes her proposed European trip to make "The Garden of Allah."

—o—

Maud Fulton Playlet.

Mary Marble, who comes to the Orpheum next week, is appearing in a play written by no less prominent a person than Maud Fulton, whose production of "The Brat" won such wide acclaim a few seasons ago. Miss Marble's vehicle is called "Her Home Town," and deals with the story of a young woman who gave up her home life for a career. Miss Marble, it will be remembered, was formerly partner of the late Sam Chip, appearing in such novelties as "In Old Eden," "The Clock Shop" and "The Land of Dykes."

—o—

Fawcett to Direct.

George Fawcett is to assume the role of director for Dorothy Gish's next picture, "Her Majesty," which is to be made in the East. He has been loaned to the comedy star by D. W. Griffith. The supporting cast in this picture will include William Riley Hatch, Ralph Graves, George A. Siegman and Marie Burke.

—o—

Mann to Hold Over.

Louis Mann is to have a second week at the Mason in his play, "Friendly Enemies."

GALLI-CURCI CONCERT.

CAPACITY AUDIENCE GREETS SINGER AT AUDITORIUM.

By Edwin Schallert.

The coloratura soprano as triumphant queen of the public's desires and fancies—that is the iridescent personality whom Amelita Galli-Curci reincarnated last night at her first of two recitals, at the Auditorium. From the days of opera's beginning until our own it has been the pyrotechnical singer's prerogative to claim her popular adoship at regular intervals, and the emoluments and distinctions of the office seem to have descended on Mme. Galli-Curci as the most celebrated songstress of the type today.

It was fortunate that her arrival in this city fitted in so exactly with the plans of Messrs. Clark and Behymer for rechristening Clune's Auditorium as the Auditorium, that house now having reassumed its original destiny, as the home of music. Orchestra seats, balcony, gallery and even stage bore ample testimony to the popularity of the first music star presented at the new-old temple of melody.

The lyricism of the majority Mme. Galli Curci's programed numbers was occasionally illumined by the gleams of a more brilliant operatic selection. These arias principally drew the applause of her hearers, because it is mainly this singer's voice and not her interpretation that attracts her bigger public. This is not to say that, operatically speaking, Galli-Curci is not a fine interpreter, as her achievements in the theater have amply proved.

In her concerts, it is the apparently effortless manner in which she sings and delights her auditors most—this and the beauty of her voice as a voice. I do not know of any songstress who allows you to feel more at ease in listening to her than Mme. Galli-Curci, and this despite the fact there are imperfections of tonal finish, a stridency at times, that while, it is not displeasing, is certainly evident.

"Caro Nome," from "Rigoletto;" Sempra Libera," from "Traviata," and "Zul la Voce," from "Puritani," revealed the singular ligness of this coloratura's range and the roundness of her high notes. Such numbers as the old French "L'Heure Exquise" (Hahn,) "The Little Damozel" (Novello) and "Like Rosebud" (Lan Forge) are chiefly charming because of the ease with which she sings them.

One of the most intimate glimpses of herself she afforded in that sparkling bit, "Clavelitos" (Valverde,) given in Spanish and repeated. In encores she won the favor of her public with such familiar songs as "Way Down on the Swanee River."

Manuel Berenguer, the flutist, pleased in his solo number and effectually assisted in his obbligato. Homer Samuels merits complete approval as an accompanist.

ZOELLNERS OFFER NEW AMERICAN WORK.

QUARTET BY COLUMBIA PROFESSOR HAS FIRST HEARING.

By Jeanne Redman.

The Zoellner Quartet, which played last evening at the Ebell clubhouse, added another to their already long list of first-performance compositions by American composers. Prof. Frank E. Ward of Columbia University wrote and dedicated a quartet in three movements to the Zoellners and it received its first hearing last evening. It is rather a pretentious work, slightly modern in interval. The slow movement, the last section played with muted strings, was the most interesting, and clear cut. The first movement is somewhat distorted by a too vague and cloudy demonstration of the themes.

Beethoven's Quartet, Opus 18, was very majestic and impressive, and was played with a lively attention by the Zoellners. Schubert's Quartet in D Minor, Posthumus Opus, and written on the theme of "Death and the Maiden," with variations, was very delightful and was heartily approved by the small audience which attended the concert.

ORNSTEIN AT TRINITY.

Pianist in Varied Program at Demonstration Recital.

Leo Ornstein held the interest of his audience after his own unique fashion at the demonstration concert given last night at Trinity Auditorium. His programme was of concert excellence, and varied from classic Beethoven to modern Cyril Scott and Ornstein, as composer. The pianist played his own Prelude Tragique and his Impressions of Chinatown heard at the previous concert with the Philharmonic Orchestra.

Orstein manifested the flare and vividness of his style particularly in the Liszt numbers, which closed the programme, and his modern selections. His Chopin pieces, including the Valse in C Sharp Minor and the Ballad in G Minor showed his poetic style in attractive guise.

The Ampico piano player repeated several of the selections with a good approximation of the pianist's style.

APPROVES CUT PLAN.

Council Works Committee Favors West Fifth-street Work.

Councilman Wheeler, chairman of the Council Public Works Committee, the committee will report favorably on the proposed plan of cutting through West Fifth street.

The committee has been at work with the City Engineer and the members of the Fifth-street Improvement Association for several months on plans for making Fifth street a straight highway from Grand avenue to Boylston street, and this result will be accomplished by cutting through Normal Hill, at an expense of about $600,000.

FLORENCE STONE IN SARDOU SCENE.

So many seasons have elapsed since Florence Stone last caused Floria Tosca's emotion to become a palpitating reality on the local stage that her appearance in the excerpt of the Sardou play this week at Pantages is like the debut of a new star in a new kind of piece. The mechanics of the sensational French drama may be a trifle creaky for present-day audiences, but the spell of Miss Stone's acting is still tellingly evidenced in the dramatic struggle with Scarpia where she tries to save the life of her lover.

The plot has been kept alive on the operatic stage and the excerpt presented at Pantages is the familiar episode that closes the death of the dissolute baron. William J. Bowman has the talking part. Miss Stone's role of silent acting is no easier on this account, and she does it with fine sense of tradition and understanding. The setting and production is excellent.

The vaudeville attractions include "Oh, Mike," a musical comedy; Quinn and Caverly in nonsense; Count Perrone and Trixy Oliver in a singing act; Patrick and Oliver in a battle of chatter; Phil La Tosca, comedy juggler, and King Baggot's serial, "The Hawk's Trail."

DRESS QUESTION ON THE CELLULOID.

The Metropolitan Film Company, a new producing organization, with headquarters in Los Angeles, which has just been incorporated under the laws of the State of California, announce as their first picture, "The Dress of Disaster," dealing with "the dress question." Wycliffe A. Hill, the author, has secured some very pointed and interesting statements on the subject, from a score or more of prominent people.

—o—

Miller's.

"The Silver Horde," Rex Beach's picture play with the fishing industry as a background, is serving to entertain audiences at Miller's this week. The feature was transferred from the California. The story reaches a vivid and exciting climax, and the cast is one of balanced excellence.

—o—

Bosworth Leaving Island.

Hobart Bosworth, who has a leading role in the production of "Below the Surface," which comes to Grauman's Rialto next week, is to leave Santa Cruz Island for San Francisco in a few days. Mr. Bosworth and the other members of the cast of "Under the Mask" have been working on the island location the past three weeks. During their stay in the northern city, many important scenes will be taken, among them one of the blowing up of a ship. This film catastrophe will be staged near the Golden Gate.

—o—

Elaine Hammerstein Next.

Elaine Hammerstein is moving down onto Broadway next week. She will be seen in her new picture, "The Woman Game," at Clune's. She has been one of the most successful of the eastern film stars.

ALMOST FOUND BEFORE.

On our three previous attempts to find the body, we passed within a few feet from the place. Some of the searchers—the Los Angeles officers think they themselves may have done it—dug there for a while, and removed enough sand to bring the prowling coyotes to the spot. The sand showed signs of claws that scratched for something underneath. Another day or two and only the bones of Nina Lee Deloney would have remained in the vicinity to certify to the confession made by Watson last Thursday to Dist.-Atty. Woolwine and Sheriff Cline's officers. Watson's trip here was just in time.

Mr. Woolwine, Sheriff Cline, Chief Deputy Manning and Deputy Sheriffs Couts and Bell, who worked the case from the start; Sheriff Applestill, Deputy Sheriffs H. J. V. Blake, Sam T. Griffin, A. P. Crerer, E. E. Cummings, Chief of Police Dave Matlock, former Police Commissioner William Reams of El Centro and more than a score of Los Angeles, San Diego and Imperial Valley newspaper men were the next to reach the sandy ledge where the body lay. Shovels began to flash in the desert sun rays and soon the tendons of a leg came into view.

The body was in a good state of preservation. It lay on the left side, the legs drawn up and under it and one arm twisted behind. The dark brown hair was matted and lay around the head. There was a hairpin and one safety pin, two silent tokens Watson failed to remove when he burned the clothing and blanket in which he brought the body. The face had been crushed in with a hammer or some other heavy object, just as Watson told Mr. Woolwine in his confession. One of the hands had been badly crushed, as if it had tried to block the first blows.

Carefully and patiently the workers removed all sand and boulders from it. The sandy ledge was at the place where a waterfall during the rainy season would bring more sand and gradually deposit thicker layers of sand and rock upon it. Apparently Watson knew just what he was doing and how to do it. It took the searchers only about a half an hour to remove the sand around the body. It lay exposed in the sunlight while far overhead buzzards circled in slow, steady swings.

"I TOLD YOU SO."

"I told you I'd find the place," was the remark made by Watson as he was placed in the ambulance. "Sometimes I don't remember things. I seem to have a double personality, you know. Now, take this thing, if someone else did that I'd feel a horror, a terrible feeling, but somehow I do not feel it now," he said to Deputy Sheriff Bell.

While the men, dwarfed into little spots, mucked up in the hill, Watson asked that the curtains of the ambulance be drawn, and he be left undisturbed. Dr. Saunders administered stimulants, and the murderer felt a little better. The cream-colored ambulance glimmering in the sun, stood on the highway, at the head of the long line of the official cars. Inside, propped on a pillow, lay Watson. He did not show any nervousness or anxiety. He kept on talking about himself. Whether sincere or feigning, he appeared to be anxious to paint himself a victim of a double personality, a man who could not help the crimes he committed. He was anxious about the impression he was making on those around him and was thinking what those who knew him "up north" would think of him. "You know I have lots of friends up north, and I don't want them to recognize me."

Watson's hands are his emotional indicators. They are the hands of a musician. Pliable hands—hands that can twist themselves into any shape, almost. These hands kept on forming different shapes while he sat on a rock below and talked to Deputy Bell and his physician. But they were not at all nervous, the wonderful hands of Watson the supermurderer. The hands that slew Nina Lee Deloney—that wrote her forged letters to her relatives while she lay buried under the sandy ledge—that held the hands of his other wives and did not shrink from their warm, pulsating touch—were not nervous. They did not shake or wriggle in agony. They just went on making forms, just as his mind must have been doing.

BODY ENTIRELY NUDE.

Nina Lee Deloney's body was absolutely nude. The two pins found in the sand were the only other things in the sandy grave. No trace of the blanket, clothes and other things he said he burned were found near the body. After he was taken to the Sheriff's office in El Centro he told Deputy Sheriff Bell that he did not burn the clothes at the graveside, he said he burned them somewhere on the grade this side of San Diego, on his return trip from the valley.

How the man ever carried the heavy, stiffened body up the rocky ened slopes is a mystery to the officers. The way to the grave is steep, winding and always uncertain under foot. The little rocks constantly roll downward under foot. Barrel cacti and chollas stud the sides of the waterfall. It is hard to climb without any load. But Watson said he climbed up there with the woman's dead body strapped to his back— climbed step by step, resting every few feet, always climbing when he burned the clothing and blanket in which he brought the body. The face had been crushed in with a hammer or some other heavy object, just as Watson told Mr. Woolwine in his confession. One of the hands had been badly crushed, as if it had tried to block the first blows.

CHILD SERIOUSLY HURT.

Police Look for Driver of Truck Who Failed to Render Assistance.

The police are looking for the driver of a heavy truck that struck and seriously injured Verna Bent, 9 years of age, of 718 Wall street. The driver, according to witnesses failed to render any assistance to the little girl following the accident and up to a late hour yesterday had not reported the matter to the police.

The child was rushed from in front of 807 East Eighth street, where the accident took place to the Receiving Hospital in the police ambulance and treated for lacerations about the head and body and possible internal injuries.

ANNULMENT VACATED.

Twice-Wed Woman's Case Complicated by Desertion Charge.

Judge Crail yesterday vacated an order granting Mrs. Madge Ovard Smith an annulment of her marriage to M. G. Smith and ordering Joseph H. Ovard, her first husband, to pay her costs and attorney's fees to enable her to defend his divorce suit. The court denied her demand for alimony from Mr. Ovard.

She said she married Mr. Smith after seven years had passed and she had not heard from Mr. Ovard, believing him dead. Mr. Ovard charges her with desertion.

FORMER PHOENIX WOMAN IS DEAD.

Mrs. Julia Winifred Mosher Collins, wife of Dean Collins, a newspaper man of Portland, Or., died in this city yesterday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Collins have been residents of Los Angeles since last January. They were married in 1914 in Phoenix, Ariz., shortly after her return from Leipzig, where she graduated from the Royal Conservatory of Music.

She leaves her husband, her mother, Mrs. H. L. Mosher of Phoenix, and a little daughter, Margaret Clare.

TRAFFIC ASSOCIATION MEETS.

The Traffic Association which suspended operations during the war while the lines of transportation were under government control, met last night at the Jonathan Club for the purpose of reorganization. Eighty-five representatives of various steamship lines, rail lines and industrial traffic, were present.

They propose a drive for new members to secure permanent clubrooms and arrange for a daily lunch. Mr. C. B. Means is acting president. New officers will be elected about June 1.

MARINES TO MEET.

All former or present members of the Marine Corps are asked to meet at 8 p.m. tomorrow at the recruiting station, 209 Kerckhoff Building, to discuss matters of interest, including the coming of the commander of the corps.

IS HE TRICKING THE STATE?

Lawyers Think Watson Trying to Dupe Authorities with "Crazy" Plea.

Is Bluebeard Watson insane?

Watson says himself that he is, and in his own handwritten statement published yesterday morning he prays for the public's mercy for the brutal acts he has committed, because he is "crazy."

When Watson was arrested two weeks ago he made a desperate attempt to end his own life by cutting his throat. The deputy sheriffs who arrested him stated he had not had the time then to outline his campaign for mercy. Not until he had enjoyed two weeks of solitude in his cell at the County Hospital did he offer any suggestion that he might be insane. And not until after Dist.-Atty. Woolwine had promised to save him from the hangman's rope did he make any statements tending to indicate that he was insane. And not until he had held a three-day conference with his own attorney, J. Morgan Marmaduke, did any suggestion of insanity enter Watson's case.

Hence, the question was asked around the Hall of Records and the County Jail yesterday:

EXERTS HIS CUNNING.

"Is Watson applying that same ingenious cunning with which he tricked more than a score of women who married him to the authorities who have him in custody?"

Watson has been accredited with having a master mind. This has enabled him to evade justice for years, during which time he bigamously married more women than can be accounted for and, according to his own confession, fiendishly murdered five.

Not until his "neck was saved," as his own attorney expressed it, did he enter his plea for mercy on the basis of insanity. He was told that he would not hang if he confessed, but even though his life appears to have been spared, he is evidently playing for a "softer snap." His own statement suggests very strongly that he desires to be committed to an asylum, where, after the lapse of a few years, he may be able to establish his sanity and gain freedom.

SHOWS SANITY.

To those who have studied Watson's confession thoroughly, it is the product of a skilled mind. These persons say no insane man could devise such a cleverly constructed confession. He avoided the mentioning of any dates. He admitted killing only the women whom the authorities had positive proof he had done away with. Two of these died by drowning. Undoubtedly knowing that all evidence of a crime committed had been lost with the bodies he would not definitely admit he had slain them, although he said "it might have been that way."

Those who have talked with Watson have said frequently that his mind works like the snap of a whip. He cannot be tricked into answering questions which he has not thought over seriously. After reading Watson's appeal to the public for pity several lawyers said yesterday:

"That statement is not the work of an insane man. It was written by a man with a keen mind. He is merely trying to put one over on the authorities even as he duped his many wives into believing he was an honorable and loyal husband."

Hence the question arises: What will be Watson's next line of defense?

It's to be a big celebration. We have exercised ourselves to the utmost to make this a fitting end of our 38th year of business in Los Angeles.

PORT BATTLE WAXING HOT.

Mayor's Fiat on Harbor Stirs up a Hornet's Nest.

Commissioners Willing, but Fear for Prerogatives.

Think Works Board may Get Strangle Hold on Power.

The Harbor Commission will meet this morning and politicians at the City Hall who are familiar with the Mayor Snyder-Councilman Fleming war on the commission and its methods are awaiting the next move of the board in answer to the Mayor's opening attack delivered last week when he read the "riot act" to Commissioners Gordon and Casey. The surrender of the commission to the Mayor, in so far as admitting that the City Engineer is harbor engineer, is expected for the Mayor is fortified by City Attorney Burnell's opinion as to the interpretation of the charter on this point.

The Harbor Commissioners are all Woodman appointees, and Commissioner Tom Hughes was Woodman's campaign manager. Mayor Snyder said that when he "went after" the Harbor Commissioners last week, Commissioner Casey at once expressed a willingness to co-operate with the Mayor and it is believed that Commissioner Gordon and possibly Tom Hughes will come into line in the interest of harbor development.

While expressing their willingness to recognize City Engineer Griffin as harbor engineer, if the City Attorney so directs, the commissioners are sensitive over their prerogatives, for Maj. Griffin is an appointee of the Board of Public Works, and in admitting his authority as harbor engineer one or two of the commissioners feel that it means that the Board of Public Works will get a foothold in the harbor construction and administration, thus tramping on the official feelings of the Harbor Commissioners.

Conferences are in progress in an effort to straighten out this conflict, so that when Maj. Griffin is recognized as harbor engineer all will be harmonious.

Added interest is given to the Harbor Commission trouble over the fact that the Council has authorized its Finance Committee to advertise for bids for the first $1,200,000 of harbor improvement bonds. This is the first allotment of the $4,500,000 worth of bonds authorized at the last city election.

ROGERS GETS OUT.

Noted Criminal Lawyer Accused of Assault is Released on Bail.

Earl Rogers, noted criminal lawyer accused of assault with intent to murder Deputy Sheriff Couts, obtained his release yesterday from the County Jail, where he has been since the dismissal of a charge of "excessive use of drugs and stimulants." Mr. Rogers's attorneys, Guy Eddie and George Greer, provided bail of $10,000 before Judge Works, acting as presiding judge.

This is the first time Mr. Rogers has been at liberty since the time he is said to have attempted to shoot Deputy Sheriff Couts.

CAR CHANGES EFFECTIVE SOON.

Los Angeles Railway Rerouting Schedule Becomes an Actuality Saturday.

The rerouting of cars of the Los Angeles Railway will go into effect at midnight next Saturday, and will bring about the most sweeping changes in electric car traffic ever seen in this city.

The Board of Public Utilities yesterday authorized the lengthening of the Pico-street line under the rerouting plan from Delaware Drive, its proposed terminus, to Royal court. The present terminus is at Sprague street, three blocks west of Royal court.

CHARGE COUPLE WITH MURDER.

DEAD MAN SUPPOSED TO HAVE BEEN RIVAL FOR HAND OF WOMAN.

Charged with suspcon of murder, Andres Gomez, 32 years of age, and his common-law wife, Marie Gonzales, 25 years old, both of 710 Judson street were locked in the City Jail following a shooting affair in their home in which Secundino Rivas, age 30, of 128½ North Spring street, was slain. Rivas was shot once through the heart. His body is at the undertaking establishment of Alvarez and Blue.

From what Police Detectives McCarron and Longuevan, who made the arrests, were able to learn yesterday, Marie Gonzales fled from Rivas when the two lived together in New Mexico. She came to this city with Gomez and the two rented the house on Judson street. Yesterday morning they were located by Rivas and he called at the house while Gomez was asleep.

According to the two prisoners Rivas attacked the woman and was shot to death by Gomez who was awakened by her cries for help. Gomez claimed to the arresting officers that he did not know that he had shot Rivas until he turned the body over. He stated that he believed when he fired that the Gonzales woman was being attacked by a bandit.

ACCUSED MAIL LOOTER WILL ENTER PLEA TODAY

The preliminary examination of Ray Gardner, charged with stealing a valuable mail pouch from a wagon at the Santa Fe Station in San Diego about a week ago, will be held before U. S. Commissioner Andrews in that city this morning. U. S. Atty. O'Connor, who returned from a business trip to San Diego yesterday, says the evidence against Gardner, although of a circumstantial character, is most complete. The amount of cash, checks, money orders, etc., secured by Gardner is estimated by the Federal authorities at from $60,000 to $75,000, but all of this has been recovered with the exception of $75. Following Gardner's preliminary hearing today, the testimony of the government will be placed before the Federal grand jury Friday.

MARKED MONEY DOES A DISAPPEARING STUNT.

A gallon of dry wine and a five-dollar bill that disappeared were the features of the preliminary examination yesterday of Joe Venechi of Lankershim, charged with violation of the Volstead Act. He was held by U. S. Commissioner Long to the Federal grand jury. Police Officer A. C. McGuire testified that he purchased the wine of the defendant and handed him a marked $5 bill, but Venechi declared that he did not receive it, and all efforts to locate the missing money failed.

TO FILL VACANCIES.

Postmaster Gets Action on Plea for More Mail Workers.

Postmaster Brown yesterday received from the secretary of the Federal Civil Service Commission a list containing about seventy-five eligibles for appointment to positions in the local postoffice.

Resignations are still continuing at the rate of about a half dozen a day, and the force will be advanced to a semblance of its former effectiveness by liberal taking from this eligible list. There is a shortage of more than 100 employees in the total list of more than 1000 that goes to make up the local establishment.

Many clerks and carriers are being transferred from the East, and these additions serve to fill the depleted ranks of the employees.

There will be another examination for eligibles held by Secretary Tynan at the Federal Building May 22, for clerks and carriers.

ON A SLAVE CHARGE.

Theodore Doric, a Pole, was charged in a warrant issued by U. S. Commissioner Long yesterday with violation of the Mann White Slave Act in having brought Mrs. Anastasia Lutyck, wife of John Lutyck, from Detroit to Santa Barbara for immoral purposes. The couple were picked up at Redlands and are in the San Bernardino County Jail. They will be brought here for arraignment this morning before the commissioner.

UNDER MANN ACT.

In the U. S. District Court this morning Peter B. Hovley, the rich Imperial Valley rancher charged with violation of the Mann White Slave Act in bringing his niece, Mrs. William Stalduyden, from Chicago to Los Angeles for an immoral purpose, will enter his plea. Hovley will plead not guilty and the trial will be set for an early date.

DAILY TRADE TALK.

Prices in the United States Have Advanced 120 Per Cent.

BY CHAPIN HALL.

The average consumer, from housewife to builder of skyscrapers, is of the off-hand opinion that prices have advanced one to three or five times as much as they were before the war. This estimate seems reasonable to those compelled to pay the freight, but statistics just issued by the government savings organization fix the figure at 120 per cent; the lowest of all the Allied nations engaged in the war. In Great Britain there has been a horizontal increase of 170 per cent; in France, 300 per cent; in Italy, 300 per cent, and in Belgium, 300 per cent. The strain has been severe in this country, but has been felt to a far greater extent across the water where the war-worn governments also have depletion of man power, and vast property destruction to contend with.

These figures are based upon wholesale prices, and in this country at least the retail advance has kept a little in advance of the wholesale increases, so that the 120 per cent probably becomes 125 or 130 per cent by the time it is passed along to the consumer. Several times during the past year the peak appeared to have been reached, but those who contended that prices could not possibly advance another point have lost faith in their predictions, and so late as last week another fractional gain was made. Close price-list observers have noted that here a cent and there a nickel have been tacked on the price of food staples; that the cheaper meat campaign was virtually without effect, and that there is no present basic reason to anticipate a sharp decline.

The supreme council of the savings organization has abandoned theoretical panaceas, admit that they have no magic word with which to renew the prosperity of mankind, and follow the advice often laid down by The Times that it is now up to the individual to so conduct his life that prices do not go higher. This can be done, says the council, only by following the suggestion of every clear-thinking economist, business man, labor leader and financiers in the world—produce, economize, save, do without and invest safely.

While local bankers have repeatedly expressed the hope that a readjustment may come through a moderated process of deflation, and a realization on the part of the public that it is only by co-operation along the lines indicated that a crisis may be avoided, Robert W. Babson, a statistician of national fame, takes a somewhat more pessimistic view of the situation. Mr. Babson is quoted as saying:

"The general impression is that there is only one solution of our financial problems, and that is a financial crash which will cause prices to tumble. People are not buying what they should buy; are not making what they should make, and are not purchasing things that will increase the permanent wealth of the nation. I am bullish on bonds. Bonds are the only thing I am bullish on. If a good many men would liquidate their businesses, put the money in real, good bonds and then spend two, three or five years playing golf, they would have more money at the end of five years."

Eastern Municipals.

Two eastern municipal bond issues, consisting of $400,000 city of Jamestown, N. Y., 4½ per cent water bonds, due serially from May 1, 1921 to 1960, and $250,000 5½ per cent lighting bonds of the same city, due in installments of $10,000 per year from May, 1925 to 1945, are being offered by the National City Company. The valuation of the property which serves as security for these issues is placed at $450,000,000, while the assessed valuation for the year 1919 was $75,774,260. The population of the city of Jamestown is estimated at 40,000. The bonds will be sold at prices to yield 5 per cent. to the purchaser.

Exchanges Closed.

Election day was generally observed in the financial district in Los Angeles and throughout the State. Banks and exchanges were closed and in many business offices employees were permitted to leave their desks for all or part of the day.

To Stabilize Wheat Market.

Plans for a national conference to discuss methods of re-establishing a free and open market for wheat, through the grain exchanges of the country, were outlined yesterday by Julius H. Barnes, United States wheat director. The authority of the Grain Corporation terminates on June 1, and the problems attendant upon the return of the industry to private control are of great importance. One of these is that the present level of wheat prices is kept far above that of the United States guarantee by export buying of wheat only which, it is pointed out, in addition to being artificial and liable to stop at any moment, handicaps our own mills and results in underproduction of millfeed for our dairy industries. Foreign buying of wheat largely concentrated in the hands of governments at the present time, Mr. Barnes said, is forced by bread subsidies abroad and by the inability of their war-crippled private agencies to "carry at high values sufficient stock and sufficient flow for assurance of the bread requirements of their people." He added that "the decision of purchase and prices paid rests in a few officials and it is measurably true that these officials with or without concerted action can influence the price level for America."

Food in Storage.

The report of storage holdings of food products in Los Angeles for the week ended April 28 shows a sharp decrease in eggs and potatoes, while other commodities are held in larger quantities. At the present time the storage holdings of eggs amount to 36,121 cases, as compared with 53,307 last year. Potatoes have dropped from 94,480 sacks, the amount in storage last year, to 46,580 sacks. Butter, however, shows a sharp increase, present holdings being 121,252 pounds, as compared with 33,019 pounds last year. Present storage holdings of cheese are 252,877 pounds, as compared with 236,335 pounds last year; apples have increased from 53,370 boxes last year to 120,695 boxes as shown by the last report; and there are 525 sacks of onions now in storage, as compared with 335 sacks in 1919.

Collateral Bonds.

The Railroad Commission has issued an order authorizing the Los Angeles Gas and Electric Corporation to issue $1,500,000 of bonds, which are to be deposited as security for $1,000,000 of four-year notes. The money is to be used to pay in part for permanent extensions, additions and betterments to the company's plant. The company estimates that its expenditures for construction work in 1920 will aggregate $1,541,260.

Electric Company Losses.

The statement recently filed by the Pacific Electric with the Railroad Commission showing a net loss in 1919 of $2,767,726 and a total deficit of nearly $12,000,000 was something of a shock to the public, which has a wide interest, either financial or physical, in the great transportation system built up by the corporation. The figures are in line with those from all parts of the country, but street railroad statisticians are beginning to voice the belief that the worst is over and that through readjustment, refinancing, rerouting and introduction of lighter new type cars, the upturn will be reached this year. The San Diego Electric Railway Company reports a deficit as of December 31 of $2,028,229.21 and a net loss for the year of $340,053.32.

France Wants Our Films.

The Los Angeles motion-picture producers are much interested in the restrictions which have been laid against American films by a French decree forbidding importation. If some means is not found of overcoming this ruling it will mean the loss of many thousands of dollars a year to the industry here, for the American film and American performers are said to be very popular in France.

The Price of Hats.

Among other things the average man, and woman, too, has to worry about is the price of the new spring hat, which is steadily mounting, and apparently has only the sky for the limit. Aaron Naumburg, president of the Hatters' Association, has just returned from an inspection trip to Europe and declares that he could not possibly be optimistic about the immediate future. "The situation is serious," he says, "former prices must be forgotten, this year's supply of rabbit skins is so far below

LATEST NEWS OF FOOD PRICES.

Head of Bakers' Association Predicts Rise of 1 Cent Per Loaf Soon.

The advance made by flour last week of 40 cents per barrel, together with the increasing cost of sugar, will in all probability necessitate an advance of 1 cent per loaf in bread prices in the near future, declared W. F. Ireland, secretary of the Wholesale and Retail Bakers' Association, yesterday. About two months ago bakers announced their intention of increasing bread prices, but action was delayed until more definite indication was given as to whether or not flour would advance to a higher level. Local bakeries have also advanced the wages of bread and pastry makers by $5 per week, and with the advance the open-shop principle was adopted by the bakers' association. The advance in the pay of employees became effective May 1.

LEADERS ARE WEAKER ON PRODUCE MARKET.

POTATOES AND ONIONS DROP TO LOWER PRICE LEVEL; CABBAGE IS LOWER.

Fruits and vegetables were in slow demand on the local produce market yesterday and the general tone of the market was weaker. With no buying support and with rail arrivals again in good supply, the leading lines slumped to lower price levels. Country arrivals were limited, but were absorbed very slowly, with the result that toward the close of the session the farmers were forced to move their offerings at lower prices than those which ruled at the opening of the market.

The cabbage market was very weak yesterday, with the majority of the sales ruling around $1.50 to $1.75 per crate, a decline of 25 cents per crate. By the pound, extra fancy stock was slightly firmer, but for most of the sales the lower prices ruled. In the shipping market cabbage dropped $5 per ton, the top price yesterday being $35 per ton, as compared with $40 per ton of the preceding day. The weakness of the local market for cabbage is attributed chiefly to the heavy shipments of cabbage from Texas, greatly decreasing the eastern demand for the local product.

Both potatoes and onions declined sharply yesterday. The highest price for fancy Stockton Burbanks yesterday was $7.25 per hundred, as compared with $7.50 per hundred of Monday's session, while Idaho russets dropped 50 cents per hundredweight. In the casiot market all varieties of old potatoes were from 25 to 50 cents per hundred lower. No. 1 new potatoes were moving slowly at prices 25 cents per leg lot lower than those of the preceding day. Arrivals of new onions were heavy, demand was slow, and the market for this commodity declined about 25 cents per crate for all varieties. Extra fancy Bermudas were moving at $3 per crate, while the Crystal White variety was bringing $3.25 per crate.

Good cauliflower was in brisk demand and prices ruled firm for the fancy stock, but there was very little stock available at any price. Asparagus, beans and peas held steady at the level of the preceding day. Tomatoes continued to advance under pressure of good buying demand, best Imperial Valley stock bringing a premium of 25 cents per crate over the prices of the preceding day. Mexican tomatoes were from 2 to 5 cents per pound higher.

A few crates of cherries from the Tustin district appeared on the market yesterday. They were of the early Black Tartarian variety, and, although of only fair quality, moved readily at 40 to 50 cents per pound. Some shipments of Arizona grapefruit were also received, sales for this commodity ruling around $2 to $2.25 per bushel basket.

COTTON DECLINES ON TEXTILE STRIKE NEWS.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

NEW YORK, May 4.—The cotton market was again irregular and unsettled throughout today's trading. The early better weather reports than had been looked for with their first advices showing only light to moderate rains in the eastern half of the belt and Southern Texas together with the newspaper reports of the strike of the textile workers in the mills at New Bedford likely to spread to other milling centers in New England, caused a good deal of fresh selling pressure from local and Wall street interests. This sent the market off sharply in connection with the Liverpool market, developing fearful weakness.

The market started rather weak and went off to a maximum decline of 95 points from yesterday's close on quotations for May and July, and 25 to 30 for October to January of the new crop deliveries before the selling pressure mostly from the bear traders, ran its course.

A private report indicating an increase of 2.5 per cent in acreage and 8.6 per cent in the use of fertilizer made rather a bullish impression on sentiment than otherwise and after the early break prices steadied on covering of 5 to 17 points net lower.

After the Liverpool closing cables were in and the completed weather map was posted showing more rainfall than had been looked for from the early advices, a new buying movement was started which turned the market up sharply during the afternoon.

FIVE-YEAR 7% CONVERTIBLE GOLD NOTES
Dated May 1, 1920 Due May 1, 1925
Application has been made to the Superintendent of Banks to certify these notes as legal investment for Savings Banks in California
Authorized by Railroad Commission of the State of California
EXEMPT FROM PERSONAL PROPERTY TAX IN CALIFORNIA
These notes are convertible at par, at the option of the holder, into 6% Cumulative First Preferred Stock at 95, or into Common on basis of par for these notes and 80 for the Common Stock, prior to May 1, 1922, and at 85 thereafter.
In addition to being direct obligation of the third largest gas and hydro-electric concern in the United States, these notes are secured by deposit with Trustee of $1500 par value of the Company's General and Refunding Mortgage 5% Gold Bonds as security for each $1000 note. Further, the Company agrees to deposit with Trustee additional bonds of the same issue if the market value of the pledged collateral should be less than 15% in excess of the par value of the notes. During the past nine years the value of the collateral pledged for each of these notes has not been below $1155.
The Company serves 320,619 customers, distributed over 47,000 square miles of territory having a present estimated population of 1,850,000. This territory includes the important San Francisco Bay section and the fertile Sacramento and San Joaquin Valleys. Including predecessor organizations, the Company has continuously and successfully operated its gas business for more than 65 years, and its electric business for more than 40 years.

It is estimated that the substitution of hydro-electric energy for current at present generated by steam will effect an annual saving of $2,000,000 in oil costs alone.

CORN PRICES UP ON COVERING MOVEMENT.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

CHICAGO, May 4.—All deliveries of corn, oats and rye advanced to new high figures on the crop and closed within a fraction of the top. There was a lack of pressure the greater part of the day while short covering was persistent. Corn closed 1⅝@2⅛ cents higher; oats 1@2 cents and barley 1⅝ cents higher, while rye was unchanged to ⅛ cent up.

While sentiment was inclined to be rather bearish on both corn and oats the believers in lower prices did not have the courage of their convictions. Profit taking of an important character was in evidence on the bulges and, with selling against the offers, was instrumental in checking the upturns.

The action of the grain markets suggested that a very strained situation existed. Reports of renewed industrial disturbances in Japan, however, attracted no attention as stocks in Wall street were higher. Commission houses advised great caution on either side of the market.

A feature in oats was the heavy buying of July and September credited to Robert Sumner, a New York trader who was here. He was believed to be covering shorts, having had a spread between May and July and September and the former was sold out recently.

BARLEY FUTURES ARE FIRMER; MILO EASIER.

An easier tone developed for milo during the session on the local grain exchange yesterday. Receipts of milo during the past two days have been liberal, and with no interest displayed by traders the market for this cereal continues weak. Barley was strong, although it received practically no support from the buyers during the call. Nearby deliveries of milo closed about 25 cents per ton lower. Milo futures were slightly firmer, although prices showed a wide extent. $2.37½ being bid for all May delivery, and $3.50 asked, in the deferred deliveries. May and June barley were 25 cents per ton higher, July and August barley closed at an advance of 75 cents per ton, and December barley was up 50 cents per ton. The only sale of barley consisted of 100 tons of all July at $2.97½.

NEW YORK STOCK EXCHANGE

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

NEW YORK, May 4.—Probably on the theory that the recent continuous reversal had exceeded reasonable limits, the stock market today reversed its course decidedly, recording a number of substantial gains.

Trading was unusually light, however, the turnover being the smallest of any full session for the past fortnight. There were few, if any, indications of public interest, aside from occasional buying of standard rails and industrials.

Save for freer offerings of call money at 8 per cent and later at 6, the factors which long had governed the market were not materially changed. The industrial situation was even less encouraging as evidenced by the reported expansion of the New England Textile workers' strike. The unsettled railroad situation lost none of its force as general business deterrent, but transportation shares were stronger and more active in the belief that an advance of freight rates is likely to be granted to the roads east of the Mississippi.

More than a proportionate quota of the day's business was supplied by independent steels, especially those referred to as forming the nucleus of a possible consolidation. Those included Replogle, Vanadium, Lackawanna and Midvale, in which gross gains of 2 to almost 10 points were reduced on realising sales.

High grade rails were 1 to 2 points up at their best and secondary or speculative issues 1 to 3, but these also yielded to profit-taking with motors, shippings and sugars at their close, oils showing marked heaviness, Sales amounted to 875,000 shares.

Further weakness of Liberty issues, especially the 2½s at $9.30, representing a loss of 2 per cent, unsettled the general bond market. Sales, par value, aggregated $13,675,000. Old United States bonds were unchanged on call.

Mildred Johnson, accused of passing three fictitious checks for $30 on local merchants, appeared in Judge Craig's court Monday for her second trial. A jury in the first trial failed to agree. In her testimony she asserted that she met a man who said his name was S. L. Bell, and that he gave her the checks to help her out. The case is being prosecuted by Dep. Dist.-Atty. First in America to make sanitary earthenware plumbing fixtures

Thomas Maddock, of an old English family of potters, began experimenting with sanitary ware in this country in 1873. He mixed his own clays, modeled the ware and fired the kiln himself. After considerable discouragement, he finally produced the first

Our display shows what a modern bathroom will mean in YOUR home

We illustrate above a part of an advertisement appearing in this week's issue of the Literary Digest.

The wonderful advancement that has been made in plumbing equipment since the time when the first sanitary earthenware fixtures were made, can best be realized by an inspection of the modern bathroom equipment now on display in our showrooms.

These fixtures which we recommend and sell are all made of glistening, pure white, easy-to-clean, non-absorbent vitreous china that is practically unbreakable and will not chip, crack or craze.

Our showing includes lavatories that have no metal work above the slab; the highest types of noiseless action closets; bathtubs of late designs and substantial construction and a wonderful assortment of vitreous china accessories.

Pay a visit to our model bathroom display and let us show you the advantage of equipping with fixtures of the high quality that has characterized the products that we have always sold and guaranteed.

TRIPPET INSISTS ON PERSONAL TESTIMONY.

INDICATES COURSE HE WILL FOLLOW IN LIQUOR ACT VIOLATION CASES.

U. S. District Judge Trippet yesterday indicated the line of action he will follow in regard to "whisky cases," with which the Federal courts are becoming congested. He insisted on more than stereotyped evidence. Willie Popoff of San Pedro, charged with violation of the Volstead Act, pleaded guilty, and the court asked Asst. U. S. Atty. Crane what he knew about the case.

That official began to read the report of a special investigator, but Judge Trippet refused to receive it, telling the attorney that he should make an investigation on his own initiative. This means that other evidence must be presented beyond that furnished in a ready-made report, and it must be based on the personal information of the U. S. Attorney's office in each separate prosecution. This will add much to the task now confronting the Federal prosecutors.

An indication of the congested conditions sure to ensue in the local Federal court by the rush of prosecutions under the Volstead law, was afforded yesterday in Judge Trippet's court, when a score of such cases were set for trial. So numerous are they becoming that the business of the court is likely to be devoted almost exclusively to this sort of trials in the near future.

At San Diego the same conditions exist, the proximity of the Mexican border accounting for the rush of alleged violations of the prohibition law. The situation has caused a renewal of the agitation for an assistant United States attorney to be permanently stationed in that city.

CANADA WANTS HIM, BUT HE'LL STAY HERE.

Edward A. Beckwith, an American citizen, who is wanted by the Canadian authorities on the charge of wife desertion, will be prosecuted in the Federal court here on a charge of bringing an alien into the country for an immoral purpose. The woman in the case is Mrs. Beatrice Enticknap, who deserted a husband and daughter at Ontario, it is said. Beckwith also left a family at that place, according to Alfred Burnett, immigration inspector in charge, who will move to have the woman deported to Canada. But Beckwith, being an American citizen, will be prosecuted criminally for bringing the woman into the United States. Beckwith when arraigned yesterday before U. S. Commissioner Long was held in $2000 bond.

LEAVES MANY BEQUESTS.

Pioneer Merchant of Los Angeles Dies in San Francisco.

Word was received yesterday of the death in San Francisco of B. L. Powers, pioneer in the motion picture property business here. Mr. Powers was in business in Los Angeles for fifteen years.

He came to this city in 1905 and opened an antique shop at 1152 South Los Angeles street. One year ago, he sold out and went to San Francisco. He was 64 years of age.

In Mr. Powers' will, he left his fine collection of paintings to the museum at Exposition Park for a period of two years, after which they are to be sold and the proceeds divided among the heirs. He left bequests to more than a hundred friends and relatives.

TELLS REASONS FOR PRICE CUT.

Wanamaker, New York, Endeavors to Reduce H.C.L.

Lays Blame for High Costs on Manufacturers.

Says it is Time They Gave the People a Chance.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

PHILADELPHIA, May 4.—"I don't know what they use aboard ship when they want the ropes manned in an emergency, but I do know that if the distributing merchants of this country, the small ones as well as the larger ones, were to come on deck in the present emergency of high cost of living and man the ropes, as they can easily do, it would be possible to reduce that cost in no uncertain degree and in a comparatively short time."

This is what John Wanamaker, one of the greatest merchants in the commercial history of the nation said as part of his response to the threadbare inquiry: "What can be universally done to bring down the cost of existence in America?"

The interview with Mr. Wanamaker hinged upon the advertisement which his two great establishments in this city and New York, issued above his signature announcing a reduction of 20 per cent. from actual prices in a $20,000,000 stock of merchandise. Added to this was his agreement to expend $1,000,000 each week in taking over any desirable merchandise and paying cash for it in order to continue the reduced price sales.

"Permit me to say," he went on, "that the public will, in a measure, be judging wisely and rightly by laying the onus of the high prices upon the manufacturers. The high prices do not originate with the distributors. But I realize that matters have reached a point at which it is for the distributors to do something to save the situation.

"This is an opportune time, indeed, for any man who has influence to loosen the screws that have wound up the machinery of distribution and manufacture to the highest point possible. The manufacturers having had the benefit of good times should help in satisfying the people that they are disposed to share with them the high cost of living, and this can only be done by lessening prices.

"But the distributors, the merchants, must, it seems, make the beginning. And the small merchant can do it as easily as the larger ones. He will do wisely to turn into money the goods he has accumulated during the past six months.

"Of course, all those who should be at work are not there yet. They are still enjoying the honors of war, still on parade, as it were, and that is one of the first things that should be overcome, but more people will have to go to work before it can be accomplished."

PLAN TO BEAUTIFY MEXICAN BORDER TOWN.

OFFICIALS AT MEXICALI PLAN STREETS AND MUNICIPAL BUILDINGS.

MEXICALI, May 4. — City and State authorities in Mexicali will spend more than $250,000 within a short time for municipal improvements, the first of which are expected to be started within a few weeks. The initial step in the city beautifying campaign will be the opening of the street to extend from the railroad tracks to Avenue Teniente Guerrero, one block south and making a continuation of the lower end of Heffernan avenue, Calexico, where it crosses the line, the greatest commercial artery between the Pacific Ocean and El Paso.

One of the chief items in the program of the Mexicali City Council is the erecting of a theater, municipal, and public library building to cost approximately $40,000. These two buildings will be located respectively on the east and west side of the new street, which is to be opened. Legal arrangements for the work are being completed by City Attorney Jesus Barcenas of Mexicali. Razing of the buildings now on the street will be started as soon as the city obtains title to the land.

When she learned of the proposed work, Mrs. A. Heber agreed to give the four lots where the street will be made to the city, but on account of title to the property being disputed and the case undecided by the Mexican courts, she could not give a clear title to the City Council.

Tentative plans have also been made for building an entire new business block by the City Council after the theater and library structures have been completed. A small moving-picture theater will probably be built on the south end of the new block, Mr. Barcenas said.

The large theater will be of sufficient size to accommodate big opera companies, and will have ample seating capacity to make such ventures profitable, without exacting a large admission fee from patrons.

Perhaps the biggest public improvement attempted in recent years in Baja California, will be the new water system, which is said to be assuming definite proportions under the direction of Gov. Cantu. From present indications, it is said that about $300,000 will be spent for a system, including a new and complete plant.

MARKET HEAD QUITS.

Superintendent Britt Resigns from the City's Service.

James P. Britt, superintendent of city markets since 1917, sent his resignation to Mayor Snyder yesterday, to take effect June 1. He leaves the city service to enter the real estate business. Mr. Britt came to Los Angeles sixteen years ago from Kansas City. He has taken a prominent part in the government's drive against the high cost of living, having conducted the city's food sales last summer. He was chairman of Mayor Snyder's committee appointed to investigate the high cost of milk and was responsible for having passed an antifood-hoarding ordinance requiring all cold-storage warehouses to make a monthly report to the city.

Mayor Snyder expressed regret at Mr. Britt's leaving the city service and wished him success in his new venture.

ABOUT two months ago we started the sale of $1,000,000 Western Milling Company's 7% Cumulative Preferred Stock—wtih 50% Common Stock bonus. To date our sales are well over the $500,000 mark.

This result indicates the public's confidence in the company and its future.

The enormous demand for space in our Public Storage Elevators—coming from all parts of the State—has resulted in speeding up the construction and increasing from 16 to 36 the huge storage tanks, giving us a capacity of 1,150,000 bushels. In order to have the plant ready for the 1920 harvest we have brought the President of the MacDonald Engineering Company from Chicago to personally superintend the construction.

By purchasing the Northwestern Milling Co., of San Francisco, we have secured the formulae with the manufacturing and selling rights of the celebrated "BESGRADE" Flour, Cereals and Animal Feeds, for which there is an active market already established.

The Western Milling Company will start with its elevators filled to capacity and an established market for its products.

The first quarterly dividend of the 7% Preferred Stock has been paid to shareholders of record.

We unhesitatingly recommend this investment to the public.

Your Hard Working Heart

By Leo H. Smith, M. D.

The heart is a wonderful double pump, through the action of which the blood stream is kept sweeping round and round through the body, at the rate of seven miles an hour.

A healthy stomach turns the food we eat into nourishment for the blood stream and the nerves. No one suffers from colds or catarrh who has plenty of red blood corpuscles and a good digestion, Catarrh in all its forms is a stagnation of the blood. Introduce pure red blood into the system, and health is assured. Dr. Pierce, over fifty years ago, gave to the public an alterative and blood tonic which he named his "Golden Medical Discovery." It is sold by all druggists the world over in tablets or liquid, and is just the thing to put the body in the best of condition. It is a tonic, alterative and nervine, which contains no alcohol, and has the ingredients printed on the label. "Golden Medical Discovery" assists the digestive functions, assimilating the food and taking from it what is necessary for feeding the blood. Thus the blood takes on a new vigor and vitality. This corrective remedy nature put in the forest for keeping us healthy. One feels strong, vigorous and full of "pep," instead of weak, nervous and "played out." Send 10c for trial pkg. of tablets to Dr. Pierce's Invalids' Hotel in Buffalo, N. Y., or, send for a free medical booklet on any disease or free medical advice.

CITY FOCUS FOR PARK PILGRIMS.

Head of National Reserves Tells Our Advantages.

Lauds Yosemite Development in Talk to Ad Club.

Dr. Reinhardt, Louis Mann and Others Also Speak.

With increased use of automobiles and with greater highway development, national parks are becoming a bigger and more important asset to the American people, said Stephen D. Mather, director of national parks, at a meeting of the Advertising Club yesterday. The finest scenery in America is to be found in the western parks, he said, and Los Angeles, in the center of a network of paved roads, is a focal point for travel to the Yosemite, the Grand Canyon and Zion Canyon.

Sequoia National Park, he said, is only eight or nine hours distant, with the Ridge Road of the State highway system completed, and some of the finest motoring trips possible anywhere, can be made from Los Angeles to the Grand Canyon, Zion Canyon, Yosemite, and even Yellowstone, with interesting and attractive side trips.

The getting together of business men of San Francisco and Los Angeles, to promote the development of the Yosemite and Sequoia parks, Mr. Mather said, was a big help in the program of park improvement. The action of Los Angeles business men in providing $500,000 to match an equal amount from San Francisco for Yosemite improvements was characterized by Mr. Mather as not only commendable, but tremendously helpful.

The national park director said it is the policy of his department to make Yosemite a people's park, one that the people can use and enjoy. Camping facilities have been improved and enlarged, he said, so that thousands of motorists are taking advantage of the opportunity to spend a few days there. He predicted that the number of campers next year will be doubled. Other conveniences are to be added, including parcel post facilities.

Horace M. Albright, Mr. Mather's field assistant, described Yellowstone Park as a paradise for motorists and anglers. The park has 300 miles of good auto roads, he said, and wonderful scenic beauties and is the greatest protected refuge for wild animals in the world.

Dr. Aurelia Henry Reinhardt was given an ovation at the conclusion of a brief talk on "Educational Problems," in which she emphasized the value of education in promoting business efficiency and sound Americanism. Dr. Reinhardt is president of Mills College.

Louis Mann, now appearing at the Mason Opera House, spoke on "Art and Commerce." He expressed his belief in the "happy ending" and that America is the only country that can drag the world from tragedy to comedy.

The aims and purposes of the Better American Federation were told by Edward F. Trefz. A membership campaign is to be begun the 24th inst., and twenty members of the Advertising Club have volunteered their services. Mr. Trefz said the organization is formed to support the United States and its Constitution, and will have a national scope.

ROTARIANS SHOW "THAT SOMETHING."

PROCEEDS GO TO SUPPORT THE COMMUNITY SETTLEMENT HOUSE.

In the interests of the Community Settlement House maintained by the Rotary Club, the feature motion picture, "That Something," symbolizing the spirit of American grit and determination, is being shown at the Victory Theater.

The institution is literally a melting pot, in which children of thirty-two nationalities are being prepared for their journey through life with the high ideals and upright principles of Americanism.

At the premiere showing of the picture Monday night, W. A. Barker delivered a short address. Will Forker, retiring president of the Rotary Club, introduced Mr. Barker and thanked the agencies that have assisted the club in supporting its pet charity.

POLICE RULING DUE.

Decision Today in Attempt to Prove Mayor's Prejudiced.

A decision in the case of Police Sergt. James McNamara, who was ousted from his position and is seeking by a writ of prohibition to restrain Mayor Snyder from sitting on the Police Commission during an investigation that has been asked, will be handed down by Judge Hewitt today. The charge against the Mayor is that he expressed his belief in the guilt of Sergt. McNamara, adding that he did not believe the charges of Chief of Police Home could be disproved. It was argued that the Mayor was prejudiced.

A number of authorities were submitted by Attorneys Griffith Jones and John Craig, representing Sergt. McNamara, and by Deputy City Attorney O'Connor on the question whether a writ of prohibition was lying against an individual member of the commission.

INVOLVES GRANT LAND.

Government Sues Southern Pacific to Recover Large Acreage.

A tract of 2520 acres of land claimed under a grant by Congress by the Southern Pacific, lying along the line of the Santa Fe in San Bernardino county, is involved in a hearing before Register Groves and Receiver Mitchell of the local Land Office. The contestant is the government, whose special agents, after a survey of the land, declare that it is mineral, not agricultural, in character.

Under the law no land, except for purely agricultural purposes, is subject to a Congressional grant. Special Agent Mancha is representing the government.
